ARC'S DATING OUR--WHAT?

By: vanquish356

There were many things Jaune imagined happening and never happening to him. And one he thought would never happen was being in a relationship. Yet it happened, just not in the way he expected. Nor how many. Jaune x Kali x Summer x Raven x Willow x Athena (Pyrrha's mom) x Meg (Velvet's Mom) x Winter. And what will his friends think when they find out? Will they join? Smut.

ARC'S DATING OUR—WHAT?!

Chapter 1

Team JNPR's Dorm

RRRIIIIIINNNNNNGGGGG

Sighs 'Alright. Alright. I get it.' Jaune thought as he woke up with a yawn. He rubbed his eyes before turning to turn off his scroll's alarm.

Sitting up in his bed, Jaune smacked his lips to get the horrible taste of waking up out of his mouth. Stretching a bit more, Jaune tossed the covers off himself before standing up. He then took a moment to collect himself and let his eyes adjust to the morning light. Jaune then looked over at the calendar hanging above his desk and saw that it was Thursday, meaning he had classes today. And they just so happened to be his least favorite subjects.

'Joy.' Jaune thought as he grabbed his clothes so he could take a shower. Letting out another yawn, he entered the bathroom so he could get ready for the day.

Twenty Minutes Later

"Morning, Jaune." Pyrrha said as she woke up and let out a yawn.

"Morning, Pyr." Jaune said as he dried his hair.

"Morning, Jaune-Jaune." Nora said as she got her books.

"Good morning, Jaune." Ren said as he made his bed.

"Morning, Nora. Morning, Ren." Jaune said as he got his books ready. But the amount he had was nearly double the amount Nora had. And that was because he had three more classes than his teammates due to being the team's leader.

"Anyone got any plans after classes?" Pyrra asked as she gathered her clothes.

"Aside from finishing a project, no." Nora answered.

"I'll be finishing an assignment for Ms. Goodwitch's class. After that, I'll probably meditate for a bit and then watch a movie on my scroll." Ren answered.

"What about you, Jaune?" Pyrrha asked, turning to her crush. She secretly hoped for Jaune to say that he had nothing planned. It would allow her to take him to Vale and confess her feelings to him.

"Uh. Let me think." Jaune said as he racked his brain. He knew he had something to do today, but he couldn't remember what. However, before he could say anything, his scroll went off.

Imagine me and you, I do

I think about you day and night, it's only right

To think about the girl you love and hold her tight

So happy together

"That's a nice song." Nora said while humming along.

"Who's calling you, Jaune?" Pyrrha asked.

"Not calling. Just a group text with some friends." Jaune answered while Ren smirked in the background as the song told him what 'friend group' texted his leader.

"What kind of friends?" Nora asked, curious.

"Just some childhood friends."

"What did they say?" Pyrrha asked, also curious.

"Let me see." Jaune said as he opened the message. And he thanked the Brothers above and any other god out there that he did not blush. While the text itself only reminded him that he was supposed to meet up with his 'friends' later, it was the image underneath it that nearly caused him to blush, drop his scroll out of shock, and almost caused his body to divert its blood flow to his other head in his pants. "They just reminded me that I'm supposed to meet up with them later after classes end."

"Oh. That's great." Pyrrha dejectedly said. While she was happy to learn that her crush did have friends outside of Beacon, she was hoping to spend the day with him. But Pyrrha then remembered that there was always next time. And next week was the start of their two-week spring break. So that gave her plenty of chances to finally confess her feelings to Jaune. "So, what time are you meeting them after class?"

"My last class ends at four. After that, I'll drop off my books and then head into Vale so I can meet up with them at five."

"Oh, alright. Just be safe, Jaune."

"I will, Pyrrha. Don't worry. And if anything happens, I'll text you guys." Jaune assured, causing Pyrrha to smile. However, internally, Jaune knew he wouldn't need to text his teammates if something happened. The reason was that three of his 'friends' were skilled fighters. And another, while not a 'fighter,' could easily knock out most people with ease and can more than hold her own. But, despite this, Jaune would occasionally text his friends so they didn't worry.

"Thanks, Jaune."

"Do you think we can meet your friends, Jaune?" Nora asked.

"Not now." Jaune quickly answered, surprising his teammates. He then coughed to clear his throat. "Sorry about that. But uh. Yeah. Of course, you guys can meet them, just not now. But down the road, yes. We can even make it another sort of team outing."

"Oh. I get it now." Nora said, smirking, causing a shiver to go down Jaune's spine while Ren tensed.

"W-what do you get, Nora?" Jaune asked, with Ren getting ready to intervene should things go south.

"Isn't it obvious?"

"What is it?" Jaune asked as Pyrrha looked between everyone while also being curious about what Nora was getting at.

"YOU'RE GOING TO THAT VIP LIGHT BALANCE SHOW WITH YOUR FRIENDS! I'M SO JEALOUS!" Nora shouted.

"Oh. Yes. Yes. We are." Jaune said, relieved that Nora wasn't correct.

"Lucky. I've been wanting to see them live for ssssoooo long."

"Maybe one day, Nora." Ren said.

"And maybe sooner than you think." Jaune said.

"Hopefully." Nora said, smiling.

"But what will happen soon is us getting detention. We still have classes. And while I don't know about you three, I want to have some breakfast before heading to class." Pyrrha said. As much as she didn't want to break up this moment, she knew she had to remind them; otherwise, they all would get into trouble.

"Right. We should finish getting ready." Jaune said.

"I'll go and hold our table." Nora said before grabbing her stuff and dashing out of the dorm.

"And I'll go take a quick shower." Pyrrha said as she grabbed her clothes and entered the bathroom.

"That was a close call." Ren said.

"It was." Jaune agreed.

"So."

"So?" Jaune asked, confused, as he turned back to Ren and saw him smirking.

"What did they send?"

"Let's just say. All seven of them sent me a picture of them huddled together in front of the camera, smiling, smirking, or embarrassed, as they pulled down their... concealments to reveal their... missiles with stiff tips on top." Jaune said, careful about how he worded his answer.

While Jaune and Ren felt comfortable enough around each other and knew each other enough to discuss some more adult topics, they still had to be careful when in their dorm and in Beacon in general. Jaune trusted Ren enough to tell him his secret. But he did not dare tell anyone else. Not everyone was as mature as them, and they didn't need rumors spreading around the school due to someone overhearing their conversation as they passed their dorm.

"Talk about a nice photo to remind you of your... adventure later, Jaune." Ren said, chuckling. "You're one lucky man, Jaune. Imagine having seven good 'friends' at the same time."

"Yeah. I really am lucky." Jaune said, rolling his eyes. "Anyway. I got you and Nora something."

"And what's that?" Ren asked as Jaune went to his desk, opened the drawer, and pulled something out.

"I know you have been wanting to take Nora out so you can tell her how you feel. So, I called my eldest sister and traded a few favors to get VIP seats for today's Light Balance show at six." Jaune said as he handed Ren the tickets.

"Thanks, Jaune." Ren said, smiling.

"No problem, Ren."

"But uh. What should I tell Nora? She thinks you're going to the show with your friends. And you confirmed it."

"Oh. Just tell her that we're seeing a private unlisted performance. And that it would be much later than your show."

"Alright." Ren said. As much as he didn't like lying to his friends, especially Nora, he knew that if he didn't, it would cause a lot of unneeded drama and problems.

"Now come on. We need to finish getting ready."

"Right." Ren said as he collected his books. "Also. When do you think you will be returning from hanging out with your friends?"

"Probably very late. Maybe around midnight or a little later, I'll be back."

"Alright. I'll the dorm door unlocked."

"Thanks, Ren." Jaune said as he grabbed a few boxes containing 'special' items inside from underneath his bed.

Ten Minutes Later

"There you guys are." Ruby shouted before taking a sip of her drink. And as usual, it was milk. While not bad, the others, specifically Yang, had given up on trying to get Ruby to drink anything else for breakfast.

"Here we are." Jaune said as he and his team sat down with their food and began eating.

"How did you guys sleep?" Weiss asked.

"Fine." Ren answered.

"Great. I had the best dream of pancakes." Nora answered.

"Excellent. And the dream I had was great too." Pyrrha answered, blushing. And her blush told Team Rwby that the dream was about her and Jaune.

"What about you, Jaune?" Blake asked before taking a sip of her tea.

"Mostly fine. I didn't get to sleep that much since some people kept calling me." Jaune answered.

"So that's the noise I heard last night." Ruby said.

"Why were you up that late, Ruby?" Yang asked through narrow eyes.

"Using the bathroom and getting a glass of water."

"Oh. Okay. That's fine."

"Who was calling you, Jaune?" Weiss asked.

"Just some friends." Jaune answered.

"The same ones you're going to hang out with later, Jaune?" Nora asked.

"No. Some others I met online a while ago."

"Jaune. How many times have I told you? Sleep is important. You need at least seven hours of sleep. You should have just told them to call you back later." Pyrrha scolded, causing Team Rwby to laugh.

"She really does love Vomit Boy." Yang whispered to her team.

"A lot." Blake said, smirking.

"I wonder when she is going to confess." Ruby said.

"What? Want to get some info on the competition, sis?" Yang teased, causing Ruby to blush.

"So, what's on everyone's schedule?" Ren asked.

"Nothing much for today. But I am going out later to pick up a book I ordered recently." Blake answered.

"I need to head into town to buy some food for Zwei. He's running low." Ruby answered. "After that, I will probably spend the rest of the day in our dorm."

"I'm expecting a call from my mom later." Yang uneasily answered.

"Wait. Ruby. Wouldn't that include you?" Nora asked, confused.

"Nope. Yang is expecting a call from her biological mother." Ruby answered.

"Huh?" Everyone else asked, confused.

"Yeah. Ruby and I are sisters. But technically, we're half-sisters. Same father, different mother." Yang explained.

"Ah." Everyone else said.

"But why did you seem so... uneasy about the call?" Nora asked.

"Nora." Ren chided.

"It's fine, Ren. It's just that my... mother and I don't have the best relationship... which is putting it lightly. I can't really explain much since most of it is personal. But my mom has been wanting to reconnect recently."

"But it feels so out of place and awkward, especially given your current relationship with her and whatever else happened." Weiss said.

"That's one way to put it. But yeah. It feels awkward, especially since it came out of nowhere."

"Are you and mother getting along?" Pyrrha asked.

"Yes. So far, and for the most part. It's still tense and awkward. But I think we're getting to the point where we can hold an actual conversation for a few moments without it getting uncomfortable."

'That's good. I'm glad she actually decided to contact Yang and reconnect. It certainly did take some convincing.' Jaune thought. "Well. Hopefully, it all works out in the end."

"Hopefully, Vomit Boy." Yang said, smirking.

"Will you ever stop calling me by that nickname?"

"Nope." Yang answered, causing Jaune to roll his eyes. "But anyway. Enough about that. We told you what we had planned for today. But what about you guys?"

"Nothing today, really. I might train a bit after classes and then watch a movie or read a book." Pyrrha answered.

"I need to head into town after class to pick up some things for Magnhild." Nora answered.

"Want me to join you, Nora?" Ren asked, earning a nod from Jaune.

"Of course, Renny." Nora answered, smiling.

"What about you, Jaune?" Ruby asked.

"Going to hang out with some childhood friends." Jaune answered.

"Oh. That's nice." Blake said.

"Although, I am surprised that you have friends outside of us, Arc." Weiss said with a smirk.

"Why does everyone think I had no friends before coming to Beacon?" Jaune asked. "I mean, I know I am slightly awkward, but still."

"Relax, Arc. It was just a joke." Weiss said, chuckling.

"Sure." Jaune said, rolling his eyes.

"But still. It's always nice having friends, especially ones you can trust." Yang said.

"I wish I could be more than just one." Pyrrha muttered while eyeing her crush. But while most didn't hear it, Blake did due to her enhanced hearing, causing her to smirk.

'While I prefer to stay out of people's business, I think Yang and I could give Pyrrha a little help in getting her together with Jaune. They are perfect for each other.' Blake thought, smirking. But then she remembered something. 'Wait. Velvet is also crushing on him. Maybe we shouldn't. Or, perhaps we can get all three of them into a relationship with each other. Well, that is if Jaune is open to that kind of relationship.

"That's true, Yang." Jaune said.

"But you know what's better than having friends you can trust?" Yang asked.

"What?" Jaune asked, curious.

"Having a special someone for some sexy times." Yang said, causing Pyrrha to stiffen.

"JAUNE!" Pyrrha shouted, snapping back to focus when she heard Jaune coughing. "Are you okay, Jaune?"

"I'm fine, Pyrrha." Jaune answered after taking a sip of his drink. "I just wasn't expecting Yang's answerer."

"Oh. Okay. But are you alright?" Pyrrha asked, eyeing Yang, who smirked.

"Yes, I'm fine, Pyr. Don't worry." Jaune said with a smile that sent Pyrrha's heart fluttering.

"Okay." Pyrrha said, smiling.

"But it's just some friends Yang." Jaune said, turning back to Yang.

"Sure they are. Anyway. It's good that you have other friends, Jaune." Yang said, chuckling, before turning to Ruby. "If only someone else tried to make some friends."

"I told you, Yang. I don't need any more friends since I have you, our team, Jaune, his team, and my baby, Crescent Rose." Ruby pouted.

"Still, Ruby. More friends aren't bad. Well, as long as they are true friends rather than those false friends." Weiss said, earning an eye roll from the young reaper.

"Anyway. What about next week during our vacation?" Jaune asked, much to the relief of Ruby. "Any plans?"

"Again, nothing much. I'll probably use it to finish my assignments and finish the book I'm currently reading." Blake answered before remembering something else. "Oh. And my mom is visiting next Wednesday. So, I'll spend the day with her."

"I need to catch up on some assignments. So, I'll be busy most of the week. But my mom is also visiting this Thursday. So, I'll be spending the day with her." Ruby said.

"My mother and older sister will be visiting me this Friday." Weiss said. "Which is surprising, to say the least."

"How so?" Ren asked, curious.

"Surpsing in the fact that they both managed to find time to come. And that's because my sister, Winter, is a specialist in the Atlas Kingdom. As such, comes a lot of responsibilities. And they often keep her far too busy for any time to herself, let alone come all the way to Vale. So for her to gain sudden off time is surprising. But it's not unwelcome, as I enjoy spending time with her since she helped raise and guide me during some more... difficult years."

"And your mother?' Yang asked.

"It's somewhat similar to that of Winter's reason. Because of my 'father's' passing, my mother has to take the reins of the SDC and restore its image that he tainted. Now, she's swamped with paperwork to the point of barely getting any sleep. Thankfully, Ironwood sent some of his trusted personnel to help with the workload. Although, we think he did it out of guilt for not doing anything while Jaqcues was alive. So, again, it's a surprise that she managed to find enough time to come here."

"I'm sorry for your father's passing, Weiss." Ruby said.

"Don't be. He was a poor excuse for a man that made our lives, especially my mother's life, a living hell. He even caused her to go into a spiraling depression and gain an addiction to wine." Weiss said with a huff. And through her tone, the others could tell she despised the man. "Thankfully, Winter and I managed to pull her out of it. Now, she's happy and full of life again."

"Well, I'm glad your mom is doing better, Weiss." Jaune said.

"Thanks, Arc. I'm glad she's doing better now, too. It's nice seeing her genuinely smile again." Weiss said as she finished her coffee.

"It really is nice to see one's parent's smiling. I know I like it when my mom is happy." Blake said, smiling.

"It's especially nice to see them happy after seeing them sacrifice so much for you." Pyrrha said with a forced smile. While she had a great relationship with her mother, she did miss her. Since her mother was still in Mistral and due to the events her sponsors forced on her, Pyrrha hadn't seen her mother in nearly eighteen months. The last time she even managed to talk with her was last month. 'I just hope she's doing fine. Hopefully, we can find an opening to talk again. I have some lien saved. Maybe I can fly to see her during the vacation. And perhaps I could ask Jaune to come with me. I know we still have to get into a relationship, but it would be nice if he could meet my mom. And down the road, I could meet his.'

"But speaking of moms. Will you be meeting with your mom, Yang?" Nora asked.

"No. I think it might be a bit early to meet each other face-to-face again. But maybe down the road, we can set up a time and place to meet." Yang answered.

"Yeah. And while I haven't met her, I'm pretty sure she would like to meet you in person again, Yang." Jaune said. However, as he said this, he wasn't looking at Yang. He was looking past her toward the windows where a raven landed on the edge. The raven nodded before flying away.

"Maybe. We'll see."

"Any other plans for you, Yang?" Pyrrha asked.

"Aside from catching up on some assignments, no. Oh. I just remembered. I'm going to this bike show later in the week."

"Will you be entering your bike, or are you just going to watch?" Blake asked.

"Just watch. I don't feel like competing."

"Alright."

"But what about you guys? Any plans for the weekend?" Weiss asked.

"No." Ren said.

"Well, at least for next weekend. Me and Renny will be going to a festival on the other side of town this week." Nora added.

"Like a date?" Yang asked with a smirk.

"No. Not like a date." Nora answered. And through her tone, everyone could tell she wanted it to be one.

'Don't worry, Nora. Hopefully, that will change today.' Jaune thought.

"What about you two? Any plans?" Yang asked.

"I might try and call my mom later in the week. But aside from that, not really." Pyrrha answered.

"I might call my family." Jaune answered. "But while I don't have any plans, we might do a team outing during the vacation."

"Oh, that's a good idea. We should do one." Ruby said.

"We should. It's been a while since we did anything together as a team." Yang said.

"We should." Blake agreed.

"But let's try not to destroy anything during the team outing. I don't feel like getting detention so soon." Weiss said with a smirk.

"No promises." Ruby and Yang said, causing Blake and Weiss to chuckle.

Ding

"Well. That's the bell. We should get to class now." Pyrrha said as everyone cleaned up.

"Yes. I wasn't kidding when I said I didn't want another detention." Weiss said.

"Let's go then." Blake said as everyone, minus Jaune and Ren, left the cafeteria.

"I take it the bird was her, right?" Ren asked.

"Yes. Although, I was surprised she was here." Jaune answered.

"Maybe she wanted to remind you that you will be meeting them later."

"Possibly."

"And did you have any involvement with her wanting to reconnect with Yang?"

"Not in the way you're thinking."

"How then?" Ren asked, curious.

"Raven already wanted to reconnect with Yang before everything happened. I and the others just helped her and encouraged her to go through with it. And we helped her stick with it whenever she felt like backing off or didn't know what to say to Yang during their conversations."

"Oh. That's nice. Hopefully, it all works out with Yang and her mother."

"Hopefully. It's obvious both want to reconnect with each other."

"But speaking of wanting to reconnect, don't forget to get those raincoats from under your bed unless you want some surprises in the future, especially with those two specific friends." Ren said, smirking. But as he said this, he looked around to ensure no one was eavesdropping on them. Thankfully, everyone was focused on finishing their meals or getting to class to pay attention to them.

"Right. I nearly forgot." Jaune said. While he always did want kids, he wanted to wait until he graduated Beacon before having any.

"Anyway. We should get going before the others get suspicious." Ren said.

"Right." Jaune said as they exited the cafeteria.

Eight Hours Later

RRRRRIIIIINNNNNGGGG

"Alright, class. That's the bell. For your homework for the break, read through pages 1000-1250 and write a ten-page essay about the decisive battles the Great King won during the Great War that turned everything in his favor." Doctor Oobleck said before taking a sip of his coffee. "You're free to go."

'Finally.' Jaune thought as he put his books in his bag.

Standing up, Jaune stretched before grabbing his bags and exiting the classroom. Although, he did have to duck to avoid getting hit by the rubber that Team Crdl threw at him. But as if karma was furious with them and wanted to get revenge, the rubber ended up hitting Glynda in the face. Once Team Crdl realized this, they tried to make themselves hidden. Yet, Glynda knew it was them and used her semblance to keep them in place as she entered the room while Doctor Oobleck sighed. And judging by how a vein on her seemed ready to pop, Jaune knew they were in serious trouble.

'Talk about timing.' Jaune thought as he headed to his dorm.

Feeling his scroll vibrate, Jaune took it out and saw that he received another message from his good 'friends.' Looking around to ensure he was alone, Jaune opened the message and sighed when he discovered there was no raunchy image attached.

'Hey, Lover.

Don't forget; we have a date today, followed by some special fun time afterward. Meet us at Natasha's outdoor dinner that's a few blocks down from the Shopkeep's bookstore. I'll send you the address in a bit. But in the meantime, here's a picture of us.'

'Okay. That's a lovely photo, one that I can show my family.' Jaune thought as he saved the photo to his scroll.

While the previous photo nearly sent him pitching a tent, this picture was entirely wholesome. It was a picture of four of his 'friends' sitting together and smiling while leaning into each other. Well, two of them had loving smiles on their faces. The third had one eye closed with her tongue slightly out, yet was still smiling. To some, it might seem slightly seductive, yet, Jaune found it cute. The fourth seemed slightly embarrassed that she was doing this, yet smiled nonetheless. However, Jaune wondered where the others were.

'I'll ask them when I get there. I still can't believe I'm in a relationship with all of them.' Jaune thought as he reached his dorm.

Opening the door, Jaune was surprised that none of his teammates were there. He figured that Ren already took Nora out to town. But for a few moments, Jaune became worried about Pyrrha. Thankfully, he got his answer when Pyrrha texted him in the group chat, saying that she had to deal with her sponsors and won't be back until around eight. Jaune sighed in relief before going over to his bed and dropping his bag on it. He then grabbed some clothes before heading into the bathroom to take a quick shower.

After a few moments, Jaune exited the bathroom while wearing some fresh, nice-looking clothes. He then walked over to his desk, opened the drawer, and pulled out some perfume before spritzing it on himself. Putting it away, Jaune then grabbed some spare lien he keeps for situations like this. After pocketing his wallet, Jaune double-checked to ensure the door was locked before getting on his knees and pulling out a second backpack. Picking it up and placing it on his bed, Jaune reached in and pulled out a small black box with a combination lock. Inputting the code, he opened and pulled out a package of condoms. While some would find this ridiculous, Jaune felt it was necessary. And the main reason was Ruby and Yang. While Jaune knew his teammates wouldn't invade his personal privacy, he could not say the same for Ruby and Yang.

'All right. I think I have everything.' Jaune thought as he did a mental check on what he had and what he thought he would need. Satisfied, Jaune grabbed his keys before exiting the dorm and closing the door. "Time to head out."

"Head out where?" A voice asked, startling him. Turning around, Jaune smiled when he saw Velvet smiling at him.

"Oh, hey, Velvet." Jaune said as he calmed his racing heart.

"Hey, Jaune." Velvet said, smiling. But she had to try her best not to blush at how handsome her crush looked to her, and the perfume suited him perfectly. "Where are you going, and where's the rest of your team?"

"I'm heading into town to hang out with some childhood friends. As for my team. Ren and Nora are out in town as well. Pyrrha is somewhere dealing with her sponsors. And I should probably bring her back some chocolate so she can unwind from having to deal with them."

"Oh, so that's what that cursing was." Velvet said. After her last class finished, she decided to head to her dorm for a quick snack. But on her way there, she had the familiar voice of Pyrrha cursing so much that it shocked her. Yet, Velvet now understood why Pyrrha was cursing as she felt she would be doing the same if she also had sponsors breathing down her neck like Pyrrha had.

"Yeah. Saying they are a headache is a vast understatement. Honestly, Pyrrha has the patience of an angel to deal with them."

"I think she has even more patience than Glynda, at least when it comes to dealing with her sponsors."

"I'm pretty sure Glynda would have smited them within the first ten seconds of talking with her. Well, that is if she doesn't strike fear into their souls first." Jaune said, causing him and Velvet to chuckle.

"True." Velvet agreed. There was a reason why Ozpin always sent Glynda when the council tried to cut the school's budget when they said the lien wasn't 'necessary' and would be better used 'elsewhere' that's more 'important.'

"But yeah. Anyway. I'm heading into town to hang out with some childhood friends. What about you? Any plans today?"

"No. I already trained today and completed all my assignments. We would also have team training, but Coco canceled it since she has to go across town to pick up some supplies she ordered." Velvet answered. "So, I'll most likely relax and maybe watch a movie with Fox and Yatsuhashi."

"That sounds fun."

"It will be if they don't put a spy or horror movie."

"Not a fan of those?" Jaune asked, raising an eyebrow.

"Not for horror movies. As for spy movies, we have seen so many that I am getting tired of them."

"I know that feeling. My sisters loved watching this one movie and forced me to watch it with them all the time." Jaune said.

"Sometimes I wonder what it would have been like to have siblings. But when I hear stories like that, I'm glad to have been an only child."

"Well, there are pros and cons when it comes to having and not having siblings." Jaune said. "Anyway. How about the weekend and the break? Any plans?"

'Aside from working up the courage to ask you out.' Velvet thought, blushing slightly. "My mom is visiting this weekend. I'll be spending time with her. After that, I'm not sure."

'Wow. It seems like my vacation is going to be pretty busy. And not just for me, but for everyone else. But it is nice seeing my friends spending time with their parents.' Jaune thought while silently thanking the Brothers that he was able to keep his composure. "That's nice. Anyway. I have to get going now. My friends are not that patient."

"Alright. Oh. But before I forget. Are you free any time next week?"

"I'm not too sure. This weekend I'll probably be busy. And my team is going to have a team outing next week, but we haven't decided on a date yet. Plus, I might be busy on a few other days. But we'll see. Why?"

"I was wondering if we could hang out sometime next week."

"Sure. If I could make some time, of course, we can hang out. But if I'm not free, how about the week after? We have two weeks of vacation after all."

"Sure. I'm mostly free both weeks."

"Alright. But maybe tomorrow after classes, we can meet up and discuss it."

"Sure. How about five? That's usually when I get back to my dorm."

"That works." Jaune said but knew he was running short on time when he felt his scroll vibrate. "I gotta go. My friends are getting impatient. It was talking to you, Velvet. See you later."

"It was nice talking to you, Jaune. See you later or tomorrow." Velvet said as Jaune left. And once he turned the corner, she let out a sigh. "Hopefully, this goes well, and I can ask him out."

"It will with my help." A voice said, causing Velvet to tense up considerably.

"Oh, no." Velvet said when she realized the voice belonged to her leader, Coco.

"Oh, yes. Come on. We need to head back to the dorm and get you ready for your date with Arc." Coco said, smirking, as she dragged a paled Velvet to their dorm.

'This isn't going to be good.' Velvet thought.

One Hour Later

'Okay. There it is. But I wonder where they are?' Jaune thought when he spotted the diner.

Figuring they were inside, Jaune shrugged before pocketing his scroll and heading to the diner. But after a block or so, Jaune heard a loud 'caw' nearby. Looking toward where it came from, Jaune saw a raven circling above. Smiling, Jaune watched the raven fly around a bit before diving and landing on his right shoulder. Raising his hand, Jaune 'petted' it before letting it 'preen' his hair. Chuckling, Jaune thanked the Brothers above that there weren't many people out at the moment. He then resumed walking to the diner. And as soon as he arrived, the raven flew off his shoulder before reverting to its true form.

"Hey there, stud." The sexy minx/milf known as Raven Branwen said with a flirtatious smirk.

"Hey, Raven. It's great to see you again." Jaune said. Smirking, Raven stepped closer to Jaune while swaying her hips, licked her lips, and grabbed his shirt before brazenly pulling him into an open mouth kiss.

Mmmmnnn! Hmmm! Mmmnnggh!

Moaning, both leaned into the kiss as their tongues fought for supremacy. And not for the first time since getting into a relationship with Raven, Jaune was thankful that hardly anyone was out at this time, let alone nearby, where someone could see them. However, it soon became challenging for Jaune to have coherent thoughts when Raven won the battle and shoved her tongue down his throat, and dominated his tongue. Groaning, Jaune gave in and let his hand wander her body while hers combed through his hair. Soon, his hands found purchase on Raven's and began massaging them and relishing in their firmness. And every few seconds, Jaune gave them a nice squeeze, causing Raven to let out a delicious moan.

Mmmnnggh!

Not wanting to be outdone, Raven let her left hand move to the back of his head to force him closer while her right hand trailed down his body from his face to his chest and all the way to his crotch. Smirking yet not stopping the kissing, Raven began rubbing her lover's cock through his pants, causing him to moan. And she felt her lips slightly moisten as she imagined Jaune plowing into her, scrambling her mind, and making her want to scream to the heavens so loud that the Brothers above could hear her.

"MMMMMMMMHHHHHHHHHH!"

And Raven nearly did scream at what Jaune did next. Wanting her to receive an equal amount of pleasure she was giving him, Jaune gave a final squeeze to her ass cheeks before moving his left hand up to grope her right breast and massage it while his right hand cupped her mound. And even through her clothes, Jaune could tell she was getting wetter by the second. It caused Jaune to remember their last encounter behind Beacon Academy while classes were ongoing. And just those thoughts caused him to become hard as steel. Thankfully, his two belts managed to keep it concealed for the most part.

"Oh, I have missed Moan this." Raven said as they separated, with her licking her lips as they did. But she couldn't hold back the moan she let out as she said this because Jaune brought his other hand to her unoccupied breast and squeezed and twisted both of her nipples. And from doing this, Jaune could tell her nipples were hard enough to etch diamonds.

"And I missed you, Raven." Jaune said, causing Raven to smirk and roll her eyes before giving him another kiss.

"And we missed seeing this." Another voice said, causing them to turn around and see the rest of Jaune's 'friends' sitting at one of the outside tables.

"Too bad we can't enjoy it further since we are out in public." Another said.

"But I can't wait until later, where we can cuddle and have some fun in a more private setting." A third said.

"Hey, Meg. Hello, Winter. Hello, Willow." Jaune said as he and Raven went over to the table and sat down. But before he did, he kissed all of them on the lips. For Willow, it was a romantic one. For Meg, it was steamy but still sweet. However, for Winter, as soon as Jaune was close enough, she pulled him in and smashed her lips against his in a raunchy kiss that caused his mind to go offline for a few seconds while more blood rushed downstairs.

"Hey, Jaune." Winter said with a dreamy smile as they separated.

"As you can see, Winter has missed you a lot and was looking forward to our date today." Willow said.

"I can see that." Jaune said as he sat down.

"And our special time later." Winter added with a devious smirk before sipping her drink. And as she put down her cup, she licked her lips and ensured that Jaune saw her, followed by the wink she sent his way.

"Don't worry, Winter. It'll come in a few hours." Willow said before taking a sip of her tea. While she was never a big fan of tea, it was certainly better than having some wine. She had made so much progress, thanks to her daughters, Jaune, and her friends, that she didn't want to backtrack. And no matter how tempting it was to have some after a tedious day or a romantic evening, Willow refrained from having some. Thankfully, her friends, children, and Jaune are very supportive of her. "Just have some patience, dear."

"Oh, take it easy on her, Willow. After all, it's hard to have patience when there is a nice, juicy carrot nearby." Meg said, winking at Jaune.

"One that can more than satisfy our needs and make us scream to the heavens." Raven said as she licked her lips while rubbing his thigh. Jaune smiled and was about to say something but couldn't when he felt a clothed foot delicately massaging cock to full erection. And the slight hum told Jaune that Willow was doing it.

'She's such a tease.' Jaune thought.

Even though Willow reminded others to wait until they got to a more private setting to have some 'fun' time together, she was always the first one to tease or get Jaune worked up. Not only that, but Willow was also the most daring out of everyone. Whereas Raven would casually grope Jaune in public or make their make sessions go outside of public decency, she always ensured there was no chance someone would see them. Yet, Willow always pushed the boundaries, even when they were in a restaurant or theater full of people.

"Anyway. How has everything been going for you four? And how are the other three?" Jaune asked.

"Everything has been going for the most part. I did run into some trouble with some papers regarding the SDC and some partnerships. Thankfully, the helpers Ironwood sent helped me through them and rejected the shady ones." Willow answered. "But I am also looking forward to seeing Weiss next week."

"I had to help train some recruits at Atlas Academy. And they were a handful, to say the least. I now understand why Glynda keeps a bottle of brandy in her desk drawer. Aside from that, everything was relatively boring." Winter said. "But, like with my mother, I am also looking forward to spending time with my sister, Weiss."

"It was hectic for me, especially with the move and all. But it was worth it since now it will be easier to spend time with my little Velvet on the weekends and during her vacations." Meg said. "And it would also let me have some more fun with you, stud."

"What about you, Raven?" Jaune asked.

"Saying it was stressful and nerve-racking would be an understatement." Raven answered while she played with her drink.

"The Branwen clan?" Willow asked.

"Not entirely. I did have to go back and help with a few things. And while slightly taxing, it was not what caused everything to be stressful or nerve-racking."

"You're daughter?" Meg asked.

"Yes." Raven sighed. "It's just... Sighs I want to reconnect with my daughter, Yang. But everything is so fragile right now. One wrong thing, and it all comes crashing down. And I don't want that."

"It's going to work out, Raven. Yang feels as uncertain as you do about the whole thing. But from our conversation earlier, I know she wants to reconnect with you too. Just take it easy and step-by-step; it will all work out in the end and before you know it." Jaune assured, earning a small smile from her.

"I really am glad our daughters are friends with you." Meg said.

"And not with some scumbags like Team NDGO from Shade Academy." Winter said.

"And for their sake when it comes to my daughter. They would be in a full body cast if they tried anything." Raven said.

"Still, I'm glad they are friends with someone as nice as Jaune, who also watches out for them." Willow said.

"But speaking of them, how was your week, Jaune?" Meg asked.

"Tiring, but otherwise fine." Jaune answered.

"Anything interesting happened?" Raven asked.

"Aside from an accidental dust explosion during class, nothing interesting happened."

"Dust explosion? How did that happen?" Winter asked, curious, wondering if it was an error on the supplier's part and not the student's.

"Well, it was the upperclassmen. They were learning how to turn crystals into raw dust form. And one wasn't as careful as they should have been. Thankfully, the explosion was small and only destroyed one desk."

"That's good that only minor damage occurred. And it will serve as a good reminder to the student when it comes to dealing with dust in raw powder form."

"True." Jaune said, shrugging. "But what about the others?"

"Summer is back home getting ready for her date with you. But she is also planning her family outing with Yang and Ruby next week." Raven answered.

"Kali is back in Menagerie dealing with an absurd amount of paperwork." Willow answered, groaning at the word paperwork.

"And Athena?" Jaune asked.

"Sponsors." Meg, Willow, Winter, and Raven simultaneously said. And it was all they needed to say.

"Yeah. They are a pain. Pyrrha always has a headache when it comes to dealing with them." Jaune said.

"The only thing worse than them are the parasites that call themselves journalists." Reven said.

"True. But enough about all that. How about we get our food and enjoy our date?" Meg asked.

Everyone nodded before heading inside to order their food. Thankfully, it wasn't packed. And the few people that were there didn't bat an eye at them. Although Jaune suspected it was out of fear as Raven glared at some of the more vocal-looking ones. After ordering their food, everyone sat at one of the tables and discussed when and where they could meet for future dates since Jaune had a two-week break coming up. But Jaune had a hard time focusing on the conversation as Willow and Raven caressed his dick with his feet while Winter and Meg subtly brushed their breasts against his arms.

Thankfully, Jaune's torment didn't last long, as their orders were soon ready. Getting up and again thanking the Brothers that he had two belts on, they went over to pick up their food before heading outside to eat. Once at their table, they began eating their food while Raven, Willow, Winter, and Meg asked Jaune about their daughters' time at Beacon. And again, Jaune was thankful that his dates did not torment him anymore as more people began to show up. Although, this did not mean he was off the hook, as he saw the hungry looks in Willow's and Winter's eyes.

One Hour Later

"That was a nice meal." Jaune said as they finished their food and tossed away the trash.

"It was. Now, for the next part of the date." Meg excitedly said.

"I can't wait since I'm craving some dessert." Raven said, seductively licking her lips.

"Me too." Winter said, eyeing Jaune.

"Now, now. Remember, a stud he may be, but Jaune is still our lover." Willow said. Yet, as she said this, she moved to his side and grabbed his ass, causing Jaune to blush.

"Of course. We're only teasing. The amazing and mind-blowing pleasure are delicious add-ons. But in the end, he's still our lover, and we do love him." Winter said before giving him a sweet, loving kiss. And after a second, they separated. Yet, Jaune didn't get a moment to compose himself as Meg quickly latched her lips to his.

"Yes. He's our love and lover." Meg said as she detached her lips from his.

"One that we're glad we met and is now ours." Raven said before grabbing Jaune's shirt and pulling him into an erotic liplock that lasted ten seconds.

"And I'm glad that I've met all of you and that you are all my lovers." Jaune said with a gentle smile that the others returned with their own.

"Now come on. The movie is going to start soon, and we need to get our seats." Willow reminded before grabbing Jaune's hand and laying her head on his shoulder. Nodding, everyone headed to the theaters while ignoring the looks everyone sent their way. But Jaune did get a chuckle when he saw Team Crdl's shocked faces when they saw him with his lovers. Although he, Meg, Willow, and Winter laughed when Raven sent them running scared when she sent them a sadistic glare while showing off her weapon.

Twenty Minutes Later

Vale Theater

"So, what was the name of the movie again?" Meg asked as they entered the theater room.

"It's called Casino Royal." Jaune answered as they made it to their seats. Thankfully, despite running late, they were still able to make it on time and grab their snacks.

"Wasn't this one of those James Bond films?" Raven asked, curious.

"I believe so. But I'm not sure."

"It is." Winter answered. "I think it was one of the top five James Bond movies ever made."

"Ooh. It must be good then." Meg said.

"I have never seen any of the James Bond movies for... reasons. But it does look good, so I will give it a chance." Willow said as the movie began to play.

'If you can even pay attention to the movie.' Jaune thought as he felt Meg rub his crotch while Raven rubbed his thigh.

Later

'Fourteen million five hundred thousand. All in.' Jame Bond said, earning gasps from the spectators in the movie and some of the moviegoers.

"Mmmnnggh!"

Well, all except Jaune and his dates.

Leaning his head back, Jaune did his best to stifle his moans of pleasure. Looking back down, Jaune felt his cock become even stiffer as Meg and Raven were on their knees servicing his cock. Raven was licking his shaft with vigor while Meg sucked on his balls. His musk sent their senses into overdrive. Their hands weren't idle as they were furiously fingering themselves. A puddle of their juices was forming underneath them. And Jaune's hands weren't idle either as they gently combed through their hair.

"Hnnghhh!~ Mmmnnghh!"

Raven and Meg both moaned as they continued worshipping Jaune's cock. Seeing some precum forming on the tip that soon flowed down the shaft, Raven nudged Meg to get her attention and show her. Nodding, Meg released Jaune's ball from her mouth before moving to lick the underside of his cock while Raven peppered the rest of it in sloppy kisses. The salty but flavorful sensation of their man's precum caused their minds to go haywire, and they could only focus on giving and receiving pleasure.

"Mmmnnghh."

But Willow and Winter weren't idle. They had moved to sit beside Jaune and took turns making out with him. Wanting to return the pleasure, Jaune moved his hands from Meg's and Raven's heads and began fingering Willow and Winter. Thankfully, the movie drowned out everyone's moans, meaning none of the other moviegoers were aware of the indecency going on.

Wanting to see how far they could push their luck, Raven and Meg pulled down their shirts to reveal their breasts and that they had forgone wearing bras. Smirking, they shifted themselves so they could wrap their breasts around Jaune's shaft before moving their tits up and down.

"MMMMMHHHHHH!" Jaune moaned into Willow's mouth.

Jaune clenched his eyes shut as incredible, blissful, intoxicating softness moved up and down his shaft. Internally chuckling, Raven and Meg continued rubbing their breasts along Jaune's shaft while licking the head whenever it appeared.

"Hah… hah… hah…" Jaune said in between heavy pants as his cock twitched slightly while the devious tongues slid around his tip. And every now and then, Raven and Meg shared a sloppy kiss with each other with Jaune's dick in between their lips.

Knowing that Jaune was close and wanting her dessert already, but also knowing they were risking getting caught the longer they continued, Raven decided to take it up a notch. She then righted herself before pushing Meg off Jaune's cock before smacking her lips and plunging her mouth onto Jaune's cock, taking him to the hilt. And knowing Jaune's weak points, Raven began humming, causing him to nearly bellow out her name in pleasure. And had it not been for Winter shoving her tongue down his throat, the whole theater would have heard him. Not wanting to be left out, Meg moved down to resume sucking on Jaune's balls while Raven faced fucked herself on Jaune's dick.

"I... I'm... I'm close..." Jaune barely managed to get out as he strained his face from all the pleasure he was receiving.

"Cum for them, dear. Let them have their delicious dessert." Willow sensually whispered into his ear before biting his ear.

Yet, Jaune remained firm and did his best to keep himself from cumming. Taking this as a challenge, Raven increased the pace at which she bobbed up and down Jaune's cock while increasing her suction each time her nose touched his golden pubes. Still wanting to pleasure her lover, Meg returned to her balls and began slobbering all over them while fondling them and occasionally taking one in her mouth. Meanwhile, Winter, Willow, and Jaune shared a sloppy kiss while he fastened the pace of his fingers as they went in and out of their pussies. Seeing that Jaune was distracted, Raven released his cock and kissed the top before taking a deep breath before plunging down on it again to the point where she was now deepthroating him.

That was enough to send Jaune over the edge.

"MMM-GAHHH~!" Jaune moaned, bucking his hips as his dick released a massive load into Raven's waiting mouth. And as he bucked, his fingers' movements became erratic. After a few more thrusts, Jaune caused Winter and Willow to cum, with euphoria clouding their vision as they rode out their orgasm.

And despite already having done this numerous times with Jaune before today, Raven still had trouble handling his load. She drank as much as she could and as fast as she could while relishing in the slightly bitter taste of her man's seed as it traveled down her throat. Unfortunately, to her disappointment, it was so much that some escaped the confines of her mouth and dripped down her face, where it landed on her breasts or Jaune's balls. Also wanting to taste Jaune's essence, Meg quickly maneuvered herself so she could lick all that escaped Raven's mouth. Winter and Willow glanced at each other before leaning down to scroop any of Jaune's load that landed on Raven's breasts before sticking it in their mouths and swallowing.

"Delicious." Meg, Willow, and Winter said as Raven let go of Jaune's dick with a loud pop. She then smacked her lips before kissing and cleaning the tip of any of Jaune's remaining seed. Raven then pulled up Jaune's pants before adjusting her clothes and sitting in her seat while the others did the same.

"It sure was. I've been craving it for a while." Raven said while using her fingers to clean her face of Jaune's cum before sexually licking her fingers clean.

"But we pushed out luck too far now. Let's enjoy the movie now." Willow said as she and Winter laid their heads on Jaune's shoulder. Smiling, Jaune kissed their heads before grabbing their hands and giving them a gentle and loving squeeze.

Two Hours Later

'I really hope the employees don't figure out it was us.' Jaune thought as they exited the theater. While no one saw them while they did it, Jaune knew they could get caught if an employee realized what the puddles and stains were and saw who had those seats.

"Well, that was a pleasant movie." Willow said as they threw out their trash.

"It wasn't my favorite but still good." Raven said.

"Maybe I might watch it again with my little Velvet during the weekend." Meg said before sighing. "But sadly, all good things must come to an end. It's late, and I have to get up since I have to finalize a few things."

"I need to get to a secure place, as Yang will be expecting a call from me in a bit. And I need to get up as I need to meet up with Qrow tomorrow and help Summer with something that has been troubling Patch recently." Raven said.

"Is everything alright?" Jaune asked, worried, causing everyone else to smile. Even though they knew from day one that Jaune was a barely average fighter, they loved how he was always willing to help others no matter the risk.

"Nothing too bad, Jaune. There just have been some thugs terrorizing the wildlife and destroying crops. There were also signs of a gang trying to set up a base in Patch, and we need to get rid of them. But it seems like they are just dumb, arrogant young adults thinking they can do anything they want because they have their aura unlocked and weapons." Raven explained, causing Jaune to sigh in relief.

"Alright. But be careful, and don't hesitate to call us if you need help." Jaune said. Smiling, Raven pulled him into a passionate kiss that sent his mind reeling. After a few seconds, they separated, with Raven turning into a raven and flying away.

"Don't forget about me." Meg said before grabbing Jaune's shoulders and mashing her lips into his. She then wrapped one arm around his back while her other pulled him in close. Meanwhile, Jaune wrapped one arm around her lower back while his freehand gently rubbed her faunus ears, causing Meg immense pleasure. After about a full minute, they finally separated. "I'll never get tired of that. Good night, Jaune. I'll see you soon for our private fun time."

"See you, Meg." Jaune said, smiling as Meg rounded the corner and headed to her new home.

"And that leaves just us to round out the night." Winter said as she placed her hand on Jaune's right shoulder.

"A fun night, I might add." Willow said, placing her hand on Jaune's left shoulder.

"So, where are we going next?" Jaune asked, even though he knew what was going to happen once they arrived. And he could not wait to finally show Winter and Willow just how much he genuinely loved them.

"You'll see." Willow said as she and Winter guided him to the special place they rented out for the evening.

Motel

"What was the name of this soap opera again?" Jaune asked before taking a sip of his drink. While he was never one for soap operas, Jaune had to admit that some he had watched with the others were far better than he expected. Although, he was confused about some of what was happening as they were watching the final episode of the first season.

"It's called Neighbours." Winter answered.

"And it is already in my top five favorite soap operas, even though we have only seen a few episodes." Willow said as she returned with a cup of tea. She then sat beside Jaune on the couch before gently grabbing his hand and squeezing it. Jaune smiled and squeezed back before leaning to kiss her on her cheek.

"While I was not initially a fan of soap operas, I must admit that some exceeded my expectations."

"Before meeting any of us, did you ever watch soap operas, Jaune?"

"A few times. But I only watched them because my sisters 'wanted' me to watch it with them." Jaune answered.

"And by 'wanted,' they meant something else." Winter said.

"Yeah. They did want to spend time with me, but they also wanted someone to vent to. Which honestly makes no sense since I was eight at the time and had no idea what was happening."

"But you still cherish those moments, right?" Winter asked. And from her tone, Jaune could tell she wished she could have moments like that with Weiss. Smiling, Jaune reached over and gave her hand a gentle and reassuring squeeze.

"Of course. No matter what happened, I always loved spending time with them and cherish every moment I spent with them." Jaune answered before kissing Winter on her cheek. "And I'm confident Weiss feels the same with you."

"Are you sure?"

"I'm sure."

"Thanks, Jaune." Winter said, smiling. Nodding, Jaune placed a quick kiss on her lips before turning back to the show. Putting down her drink, Winter got comfy on the couch before leaning into Jaune while Willow did the same.

Twenty Minutes Later

"Well. That was nice. Different, but nice." Jaune said as he stretched.

"It was." Winter said, licking her lips as she rubbed Jaune's thigh.

"Should we start the next season or not yet?"

"How about you prepare some snacks and drinks while we make a quick call? And when you get back, we can watch the next season." Willow answered.

"Alright. I'll go make us some snacks and drinks." Jaune said as he got up and headed to the kitchen. Thankfully for Willow and Winter, unlike most other motels, the kitchen was in another room and had a door that Jaune closed.

"Are you sure you want to do this, Mother?" Winter asked.

"Yes. I want to feel him without anything in the way. And I know you want the same." Willow answered while rubbing her thighs together. "Did you bring the pills?"

"Yes. These are the best pills Atlas offers." Winter answered while holding up a bag with the pills inside.

"Good. Did you take them yet?"

"No."

"No? You want it?" Willow asked, curious.

"No. I am on the shot. Although, I will have to make an appointment to receive another soon."

"Alright. But speaking of that, do you want to have little Jac Frosts running around soon?"

"MOTHER!" Winter exclaimed, slightly embarrassed, causing Willow to laugh. She then composed herself before coughing to clear her throat. "But I wouldn't mind having some in the near future."

"It would be nice to have some grandchildren. But I do hope you and Weiss won't mind having more siblings in the future." Willow said while rubbing her stomach. She wouldn't mind having more kids. And she would love it if Jaune was the one to give her more.

"Do you think Jaune would be okay with being a father?" Winter asked, curious.

"Oh, I know he would be fine with having kids. Summer told us that they talked about it and that Jaune always wanted to have children, although he would prefer to wait a bit until he has a job or graduates Beacon."

"But what if... it happens before then?"

"Jaune told Summer that he would drop Beacon and immediately find a job to help bring in the lien because, as Jaune said, while he might love that he's on the road to becoming a huntsman, he loves us more. And he wants to give us a comfortable life."

"Of course, he would say something like that." Winter said, chuckling. "But I'm still glad we met him and are now in a relationship with him, albeit an unconventional one."

"A highly unconventional one." Willow agreed before standing up. "Come on. Let's get changed so we can set the mood for later."

"Right. While the fingering at the theater and watching Raven and Meg go down on him was nice, I want to feel him inside me." Winter said, licking her lips as they went to the bathroom to change into some more 'appropriate' attire.

Fifteen Minutes Later

"Alright. I got some... snacks." Jaune began before trailing off when he saw Winter and Willow wearing transparent underwear with bras that did not cover their hard nipples. The sight was incredibly arousing, and Jaune could feel cock hardening at it.

"Thanks, Jaune. Come sit with us. The show is about to begin." Willow said with a seductive smirk.

"And we don't want you to miss any of it." Winter said with a purr as she made a 'come here' motion with her finger. As if under a trance by them, Jaune gulped and moved to sit in between them. And no soon than he did, Winter and Willow leaned into him with their breasts rubbing against his arms. Plus, every now and then, as they reached to grab some popcorn, they would intentionally 'miss' and grab Jaune's crotch and rub it for a few seconds.

'This is going to be torture.' Jaune thought, growing incredibly horny with each passing second, with his dick feeling slight pain from how erect it was.

Half an Hour Later

"Alright. That's the first episode done." Jaune said as the episode finished.

"And now it's our time." Willow said, biting Jaune's ear while caressing his thigh.

Unable to control himself anymore and tired of all the teasing they had been giving him, Jaune turned to his left and pulled Willow into a passionate kiss. Willow immediately moaned into the kiss before bringing her hands to Jaune's head and running her fingers through his hair. Feeling her tongue against his lips, Jaune opened his mouth to grant her entrance with their tongues battling right after. Wanting her to feel even more pleasure, Jaune raised his hands and groped her breasts.

"Mmmnnghh!"

Willow deliciously moaned when Jaune began massaging her breasts. The doughy feeling felt like heaven in his hands. But the moaning wasn't enough for Jaune. He wanted to hear her scream his name. He stopped his treatment of her breasts to remove her bra. Willow let out a whine of disappointment at the lack of feeling of his hands. Yet she screamed into his mouth in euphoria when Jaune began twisting, pinching, and pulling her nipples.

"YES! JAUNE! YES! JUST LIKE THAT! BY THE BROTHERS ABOVE, DON'T STOP!" Willow shouted, delirious from all the pleasure Jaune was giving her.

With each passing second, Willow could feel her lips getting wetter with arousal. Yet she lost it and felt an orgasm rip through her body, causing her to see stars when Jaune latched his mouth onto her right nipple and began sucking while still pinching and pulling her left nipple. Wanting to stifle her moans, Willow bit down on her fist while her other hand pulled Jaune closer. But Jaune took this as a challenge and began nibbling and rolling the tit between his teeth while occasionally giving it a long suck. And his other hand continued massaging Willow's other breast.

"YES! KEEP GOING! AAAAAHHHH!" Willow shouted, eyes rolling into her head with her tongue hanging out as she rode through her climax.

"You know, Mother. Our lover's needs shouldn't be left unfulfilled." Winter said, her thighs covered in her arousal.

Getting up, Winter removed her bra to let her D-cup size breasts free. She then, in her highly aroused state, tore off her underwear before getting on her knees in front of Jaune. And with deft fingers and ease that could only come from having done this multiple times, Winter quickly undid his belts and pulled down his pants zipper with her teeth. Once she did, she was rewarded with the sight of her lover's ten-inch cock. And even though it wasn't the first nor the last she would ever see it, Winter couldn't help but marvel at it.

"Beautiful. I can't wait to have this inside me again. But first."

Raising her hand, Winter spat into it before giving Jaune's shaft a few strokes. And then, as if it was a tasty morsel given to her by the Brothers above, Winter lunged to put it in her mouth and began bobbing up and down. Jaune gasped, momentarily letting go of Willow's breast, as Winter began servicing him with her mouth while her hands fondled his balls.

"Oh, Winter." Jaune moaned, feeling his climax fast approaching.

"You love it when my dear daughter gives you a blowjob, don't you?"? Willow asked with a teasing smirk.

"She's incredible."

"Why, thank you, Jaune." Winter said, releasing Jaune's cock from her oral passage with a loud, wet, 'plop.' "But now. Keep pleasuring my mother, and make sure you won't ever forget this moment."

And before Jaune could say anything, Winter gave his cock a wet kiss before licking the tip, causing him to groan. Not wanting her to stop but also not wanting to neglect his other lover, Jaune pulled Willow into another tongue-coiling kiss while he played with her nipples. Smirking at the sight and feeling her own arousal grow, Winter raised her breasts, wrapped them around Jaune's length, and rapidly rubbed them up and down.

Jaune couldn't help but let out another moan as his length was enveloped between two heavenly pillows of flesh. Yet he was silenced when Willow pulled him between her breasts, where Jaune quickly adapted and began peppering them with kisses. Wanting him to keep moaning, Winter slowed down the pace at which she was rubbing her breasts slightly before kissing the tip of his shaft and began suckling it while licking it in her mouth. And after every couple of bobs and strokes, Winter would push her breasts down to the base before taking more of his cock in her mouth and humming to increase the pleasure Jaune felt.

"I-I-I'M CLOSE!" Jaune grunted.

Smirking, Willow let Jaune twist her tits one last time before kissing and swapping spit with him. She then detached herself from him before tapping Winter's shoulder. Winter understood what it meant and released Jaune's member from her mouth before moving to the side. Willow then sat down on her shapely rear before bringing up her C-cup and wrapping Jaune's prick with them. And she couldn't help but let out another moan when her hard nipples brushed up against Winter's.

They then both grabbed their breasts and began rubbing them up and down Jaune's hard-as-steel erection. After a few seconds of seeing Jaune moaning, they began licking his tip whenever it popped out between their breasts. And occasionally, their tongues would touch, which would lead to a sloppy, incestuous kiss with Jaune's dick in between their mouths. Each time they separated, they felt Jaune's dick somehow getting even harder.

"Come on, Jaune. Cum for us." Winter said before kissing his tip.

"Yes. Cum for us, dear. Let us have our dessert." Willow added before suckling Jaune's tip.

That was enough for Jaune.

"AAAAHHHH!" Jaune moaned as he felt his climax hit him like a truck.

His cock twitched for a few seconds before erupting. His cum shot violently through his and out of his length. Winter and Willow stuck out their tongues and closed their eyes as their lover's seed covered their faces and breasts. Some of it even landed on their hair. Jaune's climax lasted a full minute, with his cock losing only some rigidity.

Letting out a breath, Jaune opened his eyes, looked down, and felt his length harden again immediately at what he saw. Winter and Willow were scooping up all his cum that landed on their breasts before making a show of tasting and swallowing it. And once that was gone, Winter and Willow exchanged a look and smirk before wiping all the cum off their face and putting it in their mouth before engaging in another incestuous kiss with lots of tongues.

"Mwah. AAHHH." Winter and Willow moaned as they separated with a tasty sigh. They loved the taste of their man's seed.

"I take it you enjoyed our show." Winter said with a seductive smirk.

"Obviously, dear. Look how hard he is." Willow said as she pumped Jaune's cock a few times, causing him to moan.

"But we did have our meals out of order. Dessert is supposed to be last."

"That means we can move on to the main event." Willow said as she carefully caressed Jaune's shaft while rubbing her face against it. Her delicate and manicured hands felt like heaven.

"I'll you take the lead, Mother."

"Thanks, dear." Willow said before licking the underside of Jaune's shaft and kissing the tip. That was enough to break the camel's back, so to speak.

"EEEP!" Willow let out before chuckling when Jaune suddenly got up and picked Willow up bridal style.

Despite the heavenly pleasure that his lovers gave him that brought him to climax, Jaune was also ready and desperate to get to the main course. After picking up Willow, Jaune, with some struggle, got out of his pants, walked over to the bed, and gently laid Willow on it. Meanwhile, Winter chuckled at what she saw. Yet, she felt her lower lips moistening even more at the thought of getting to watch her lover take her mother. Grabbing a nearby chair, Winter moved and placed it across from the bed. She then sat and began gently rubbing her pussy lips while massaging her right breast.

Meanwhile, Jaune removed the rest of his clothes before getting on the bed and moving to be on top of Willow. Their eyes connected before leaning in for a romantic kiss that sent Willow's heart soaring. It had been so long since she felt loved. For years, she was trapped in a loveless marriage with Jacques. She even started to think she would never find someone that genuinely loved her like a lover. Even after Jacques's death, those thoughts remained like a haunting dream. Yet, that all changed after she met Jaune. He loved her with all his heart and made her feel alive again. And soon, Willow found herself falling in love with him and felt like some long-forgotten dreams were coming true when she learned that he returned the feelings. Now, Willow couldn't imagine living without him. She wouldn't mind making him her husband when the time was right. Granted, she would have to share him with six others, but that didn't matter as Willow knew Jaune also loved the others, and they loved him.

"I love you, Willow Schnee." Jaune said as they separated.

"I love you too, Jaune Arc." Willow said before giving him a quick kiss. "Now. Show me how much you love me. Make love to me."

Nodding, Jaune leaned down to capture her lips again while his hands roamed and caressed her body. Willow couldn't help but let out a moan as she felt indescribably loved with how gentle Jaune was with treating her body. It made her feel like she was one of the most important people in his life. And it was true. Willow and the others meant the world to Jaune. And Jaune was going to show her how much he loved her.

Gently running his left hand over her smooth body, Jaune cupped her left breast while her right hand gently cupped her mound. Willow let out a moan into his mouth before pulling him close with her right hand while her left trailed down his body to his length and began stroking it. Groaning into the kiss, Jaune began fingering her while massaging her breast and occasionally tweaking her nipple.

They kept at it like this while gradually increasing the pace of their hands. Meanwhile, Winter started fingering herself furiously, wishing Jaune and Willow would stop the foreplay and move on to the main course. Thankfully, it seemed like it was fast approaching as Jaune's finger thrusts and Willow's strokes began to get frantic. Soon, Willow came around Jaune's finger while precum began to leak from his tip and land on Willow's toned stomach.

"Jaune! Please! I can't wait anymore! Take me! Take me now!" Willow struggled to say between pants.

"Are-" Jaune began, but Willow silenced him with a quick kiss.

"YES! I'm on the pill. Take me now! I want you inside me."

"Alright." Jaune said, smiling. Giving Willow one last kiss, Jaune grabbed his hard-as-steel rod and carefully lined it up with her snatch. He then slowly and carefully pushed in until only his tip was enveloped. He took one deep breath before...

SHLUP

"YES!" Willow screamed to the heavens, her breasts heaving as Jaune slid all the way inside her.

They stayed like that for a minute, unmoving, as Willow grew accustomed to having her lover inside her again. Soon, Willow looked into Jaune's eyes and nodded, signaling for him to go ahead. Nodding, Jaune took a breath before slowly going in and out of Willow's cunt. However, Jaune had to restrain himself from going all out and rutting like an animal in heat. He wanted to make the experience as loving as possible, as he knew Willow preferred that as opposed to mindless rutting.

But that didn't mean Jaune couldn't increase his speed slightly while increasing the pleasure for her in other ways. Readjusting himself, he picked up his pace slightly, causing soft noises of flesh slapping flesh to come about from their lovemaking. Although, he did have to restrain himself as the velvety feeling of Willow's passage around his length nearly made him lose control. But once Jaune had reached a nice pace of sawing into Willow's pussy with his length, he let his hands roam over her body. First, he caressed her long, soft, firm legs before moving to her toned stomach and gently massaging it. Then he moved his hands up to her breasts and started massaging one while twisting and pulling her other.

"Yes, Jaune. Oh, Jaune. I missed this. Please, go faster." Willow begged as she heaved and enjoyed the pleasure Jaune was giving her.

"YES, JAUNE! GO FASTER!" Winter shouted as she furiously rubbed her clit, causing Jaune to chuckle.

"Anything for you, my lovely Willow." Jaune said, smiling.

Adjusting himself again, Jaune increased his speed and began plowing against Willow's pussy. With each passing second, Jaune increased the pace, causing Willow's breathing to become increasingly ragged. Soft smacking sounds were made as they continued their lovemaking. Willow soon began moaning continuously as pleasure clouded her senses and fogged her mind. This continued for ten minutes until Willow noticed that Jaune's thrusts became frantic, signaling he was close.

"JAUNE! TAKE ME! INSIDE! YOU KNOW HOW I LIKE IT!" Willow shouted.

Nodding, Jaune pulled out of Willow before grabbing her legs and raising them over his shoulders. He then leaned forward, pressing against Willow, but not too much that it would cause pain, and reinserted himself into her tight entrance. And once he did, Jaune let himself go and started going as fast as he could while ensuring he did not hurt Willow. The soft smacking sounds soon increased in volume. But they were drowned out by Winter's moans. After a couple of more minutes of this, Jaune felt himself tense up.

"Willow. I'm about to cum."

"INSIDE! PLEASE! CLAIM ME AS YOURS!"

"HERE IT COMES!"

Jaune started thrusting even faster into Willow. And after another minute of frantic thrusting, he pulled back until only the tip remained inside her before slamming all the way inside and hitting her most sensitive spots. The velvety feeling and her pussy muscles contracting on his length were enough to send Jaune over the edge, causing him to shoot his massive load into Willow's womb, painting it white. And the sensation of Jaune filling her womb to the brim with his seed sent Willow over the edge and allowed her to experience the most powerful and euphoric orgasm of her life to date. They stayed in that position for a minute before Jaune pulled out of her, with the combined loved juices leaking out of her a second later.

'That was intense. I wonder what Jaune will think when he learns that I'm not actually on the pill.' Willow thought as she and Jaune caught their breaths. The thought of getting pregnant by her lover and having a reason to spend even more time with him delighted her to no end. "That was... That was..."

"Amazing." Jaune panted before leaning down and capturing her lips in a sweet, romantic kiss where they put all their love into it. "I love you, Willow."

"I love you too, Jaune." Willow said as they rested their foreheads against each other. She honestly could stay like this forever, being with her lover. But they separated when they heard a dripping noise from behind them. "Thanks for satisfying my needs, Jaune. I really needed it."

"You're welcome, Willow."

"Now. How about you satisfy my daughter? She seems like she's about to pounce on you." Willow said with a smirk. And before Jaune could say or do anything, Winter grabbed him by his shoulders and gently forced him onto his back on the bed.

"No more delaying. I want you now." Winter growled with a purr as she sat on his stomach. She was incredibly wet and horny. And while she did come a few times while watching Jaune make lover her mother, Winter knew the only way she could get off was by Jaune fucking her brains out. It had to be soon, too, though, as the sensation of his slightly muscled chest underneath his fingertips and thick cock rubbing against her ass was driving her wild with lust. Leaning down until she was next to his ear, Winter whispered two words while rubbing her ass against his shaft. "Take me."

Jaune didn't need any further enticement. Despite just cumming into Willow not even a moment ago, Jaune still felt incredibly horny and rearing to go. With a soft growl, Jaune grabbed Winter's hips before lifting her up and slamming her onto his cock in a single motion. While Willow loved it when Jaune was soft and romantic in their lovemaking, Winter preferred it fast and rough. And that was just how Jaune was going to give it to her.

Not giving Winter any time to adjust to having her lover inside her again, Jaune moved his hands to grab her ass, his finger digging into the soft flesh. Then he started lifting her up and slamming her back down on his length while simultaneously bucking up into her as strong as he could.

"YES! YES! YES! GIVE IT TO ME!" Winter screamed.

"Yes. Give it to her, Jaune." Willow said, fingering herself.

Nodding, Jaune threw all caution to the wind and began thrusting into her until he hilted all the way inside her. Jaune didn't even start out slow. He went all out, and Winter knew her poor pussy would be sore tomorrow. She doubted she would even be able to walk a straight line.

"YES! YES! YES! FUCK ME!" Winter screamed her lungs out when she felt Jaune hit her G-spot perfectly, causing her to see lights and her eyes to roll into her head. And she nearly lost it when Jaune smacked her ass, leaving a red handprint on it. "YES! YES! MORE!"

SMACK

"JAUNE!"

SMACK

"JAUNE!"

SMACK

"MORE! JAUNE! MORE!"

SMACK

Winter was now a drooling mess as all she could think about was getting the most pleasure possible. As such, she began rocking her hips back and forth while Jaune pounded into them. Seeing her breasts bouncing in front of him, Jaune got harder inside Winter, causing her more pleasure. Reaching up, he captured one of her tits and began sucking on it like a baby deprived of its milk.

"MMMMMMMM!"

Leaning forward, Winter kept bouncing in Jaune's lap while pulling his head closer to her chest. And her face became ahegao when Jaune gave her tit an extra strong suck followed by a gentle bite. However, Winer thrashed around as she came on Jaune's cock when he moved his free hand to her ass and began fingering her anus, causing pleasure to shoot through all her veins.

"JJJJJAAAAUUUUNNNNEEEE!" Winter screamed as she rode out her climax. And once she could somewhat focus, she realized that Jaune hadn't cum yet. But before she could say anything, Jaune lifted her off his dick and placed her on the bed. Winter wondered what Jaune planned on doing but quickly understood when he raised her ass and gently lowered her face to the bed. And she instantly became beyond excited again. Licking her lips, Winter grabbed and spread her ass cheeks while looking back at her lover. "Go ahead, Jaune. Take me. I know you want to-YES!"

Without letting her finish her sentence, Jaune began smacking her ass again. And with each smack, ripples were sent across her pale ass, enticing Jaune more and more. Soon, a red mark started appearing on her cheek. Gently massaging it, Jaune smiled at the firm yet softness of it. Grabbing his hard rod, he lined it up with Winter's ass as she braced herself.

"Give it to her." Willow said, having already cum twice. Nodding, Jaune gave Winter's ass one last smack before ramming his dick into her asshole.

"YES!" Winter screamed as she instantly came from having her lover deep inside her ass. "Oh fuck! OH FUCK! OH FUCK!"

Not giving her any chance to adjust, Jaune began hammering away at her ass. Their hips smacked against each other while his balls hit Winter's cunt, causing her untold amounts of pleasure. The force behind each thrust increased, and soon, Winter felt her tits rubbing against the bed.

"MORE!" Winter panted as she came again.

Huffing, Jaune used some of his aura to increase his pace and strength behind his thrusts. And seeing Winter in such a state caused him to get even harder. Placing his hands on her hips, Jaune continued fucking her ass while enjoying how tight her passage was.

"UGH! YOU'RE SO TIGHT!" Jaune shouted.

"ALL FOR YOU!" Winter deliriously shouted.

Moving his hand up her body, Jaune grabbed her hair bun and undid it, letting it flow free and giving her the visage of a snow angel. Yet, she let out the sluttiest scream ever when Jaune gave an extra hard thrust into her ass while grabbing and pulling her hair back.

"YES! JAUNE! TAKE ME! CLAIM ME! MAKE ME YOURS! I'M YOURS!" Winter shouted as she came yet again.

Readjusting his grip on her hair, Jaune continued thrusting into her ass while pulling on her hair. Yet, he ensured that he didn't pull too hard to cause actual pain or tear out any of her beautiful hair. This continued for another ten minutes as sounds of flesh slapping flesh reverberated around the room, with Winter cumming every few seconds when Jaune's ball hit her cunt. And that wasn't the only sound as Willow was moaning next to them as she fingered herself.

"I'm c-close." jaune grunted through clenched teeth, yet he did not slow down his pace.

"INSIDE! YOU KNOW WHERE!" Winter screamed as she felt she was getting close to another mind-blowing climax.

Nodding, Jaune pulled out of Winter's ass before slamming into her pussy. He then leaned down so his chest was against Winter's back before hammering away. From this angle, Jaune managed to hit so deep that he pushed through her cervix and hit her womb. Winter let out a gasp as her tongue rolled out. And her vision went blurry with her mind shutting down when Jaune grabbed her breasts and began massing them while occasionally tweaking her nipples.

"HERE... IT... COMES!" Jaune shouted before coming inside Winter, painting her womb white. And if she hadn't been on the shot, Winter knew she would have gotten pregnant. But now that she thought about it skipping her next shot appointment sounded very enticing. Soon, Winter felt most of her strength leave her as she fell to the bed while Jaune pulled out of her with their juices leaking out and staining the blankets further. "Wow."

"That was amazing." Winter panted, feeling like she was in heaven.

"I hope you still got one round left in you, dear." Willow said, moving beside Jaune and pulling him into a kiss.

"I think he still has one left. But how should we get it out of him?" Winter asked, thankful for aura as it allowed her to recover from the mind-blowing orgasm quickly.

"I have an idea." Willow said before grabbing Winter and laying her on the bed. Winter instantly got the idea when Willow moved to be on top of her with their breasts squishing against each other. They then turned back to their lover.

"Come here and get your treat." Winter said with a wink as she slapped her mother's ass.

Feeling hypnotized, Jaune moved closed and gently smacked Willow's ass before sliding his dick between their clits. He then began sliding in and out. And every few seconds, he would slide out entirely before entering either Winter or Willow. Each time he did, Jaune hammered away at their cunts, causing them to moan as their tits rubbed against each other. They continued like this for another few moments as Jaune soon felt his limit fast approaching. And Jaune knew after this one; he would be spent for the night.

"Here it comes." Jaune warned.

Hearing this, Winter and Willow quickly rearranged themselves to where they were lying next to each in front of Jaune. Seeing what they wanted, Jaune began rapidly pumping his length. And after a few moments, he finally reached his limit and blew his load onto Willow and Winter, covering their stomachs, breasts, faces, and hair with his seed, with some getting on their tongues, which they happily swallowed.

"Delicious." Winter and Willow said as they scooped all of it off their bodies and swallowed it. Once done, they parted slightly before motioning for Jaune to lay between them. Feeling spent for the night, Jaune sighed before moving to lie between them.

"That was amazing." Winter said as she and Willow snuggled into his sides, with Willow bringing the blankets above them.

"It was." Willow agreed.

"I wasn't too rough, right, Winter?" Jaune asked.

"No. You were perfect." Winter assured, easing Jaune's worries.

"But now, let's sleep. It's late." Willow said with a yawn, ready to sleep with her lover again and glad she didn't have to worry about lonely nights anymore.

"And you have some classes tomorrow, right?"

"Yes. But I only have two classes, and they are after one." Jaune answered.

"Good. That means we don't have to get up early." Winter said, glad she could have a full sleep with her lover by her side. "And you have a two-week break next week, which means we can do this again soon with the others."

"That reminds me. Do you have any plans for the weekend, dear?" Willow asked, curious.

"No. Not really. Why?" Jaune asked.

"Well. We need a favor from you."

"What is it?"

"Remember how we said Athena couldn't make it because of the sponsors?" Winter asked.

"Yes."

"Well. That's only half true. You see, Athena was planning a trip to come visit you and her daughter. But because of the sponsors, she missed the flight. So we all chipped in and got her another flight this weekend."

"But where do I come in?" Jaune asked.

"Well, dear. Athena has been feeling incredibly lonely recently. And not being able to see you, her daughter, or even call her daughter didn't help. So we want you to show her a good time this weekend and ensure that she knows she is no longer alone. Afterward, take her to see her daughter but keep it a surprise from Pyrrha." Willow explained.

"Alright. I can do that. Plus, it would be nice to spend the day with Athena again since it has been a while." Jaune agreed.

"Thanks, dear." Willow said before leaning to lovingly kiss Jaune on the lips. And once they separated, Winter quickly captured his lips in a steamy yet passionate liplock.

"You're the best." Winter said as they separated. Willow then turned off the lights before she and Winter snuggled into Jaune and fell asleep.

Notes:

Something I felt like doing. I know the scenes weren't the best. But this was my first time writing something where the characters have sex. Hopefully, I didn't do too badly. And hopefully, I will get better at writing these kinds of scenes down the road.

Chapter 2

ARC'S DATING OUR-WHAT?!

Chapter 2:

'I don't think I will ever become a morning person like Ren.' Jaune thought as he shielded his eyes when the sunlight slipped through the holes in the blinds and hit his face.

Feeling a weight on his left arm, Jaune turned and smiled when he saw Willow Schnee sleeping, cuddled against him. Her expression was serene. Her hair was undone and slightly messy, which only added to her beauty. And with how the morning sunlight illuminated her pale face and white hair, Willow looked like a dazzling snow angel that the brothers themselves created. Yet, to think that he was in a relationship with such a person still astounded Jaune. But what he was still trying to understand how he came to such amazing fortune was that he was in a loving relationship with seven amazing women.

"Hmmm. Morning, dear." Willow said as she woke up and stretched, unknowingly allowing Jaune to see her luscious breasts slightly jiggle, causing him to get semi-hard.

"Morning, Willow." Jaune said, struggling to maintain eye contact.

"I see you can't get enough of them." Willow said, chuckling, as she brought her other arm underneath her breasts to accentuate them.

"They are amazing. But I prefer your eyes and your personality, my beautiful snow queen."

"Come here, you." Willow said, chuckling at the cheesy line before cupping Jaune's cheek and pulling him into a deep kiss.

Internally smiling, Jaune brought his free arm up to cup Willow's cheek and deepened the kiss. Willow moaned as they put all their love and passion into it. For Jaune, the feeling of being able to kiss the one he so dearly loved felt undescribable each time they did so. For Willow, every time she kissed Jaune, she felt like she was falling in love all over again. Moreover, every time their lips touched, she felt more assured that Jaune was the person she wanted to marry, grow old, and have even more kids with.

After a few seconds of the tender lip lock, Jaune felt Willow part her lips slightly before having her tongue brush up against his. Granting her request, Jaune opened his lips, and as soon as he did, Willow's tongue darted into his mouth and started wrestling with his. Moaning into the kiss, Jaune moved his hand to Willow's hair and began gently combing it with his fingers while she used her hand to pull him closer. They continued like this for another few moments until Willow won the wrestling contest and took control of the kiss. Yet Jaune didn't mind as Willow used this opportunity to memorize every inch of his oral cavern. But, like all good things, the loving make-out session came to an end when the need for air became too strong for either of them.

"I love you, Jaune Arc." Willow said as they separated, with a thin trail of saliva connecting their lips, which she happily pulled into her mouth.

"I love you, Willow Schnee." Jaune said before leaning in and giving her a quick kiss.

"What time is it?"

"Nine-ten." Jaune answered after looking at the bedside clock.

"We should probably get up in a bit. I don't want you to be late for your classes later."

"And I should message my friends since they are probably worried about me."

"Right. We should... Wait. Where's Winter?" Willow asked when she didn't see her daughter on the other side of Jaune.

"I'm not sure. I could have sworn-MMMMHHH!" Jaune began before letting out a loud moan. Seeing a lump form underneath the blankets near Jaune's waist, Willow tossed it to the side to reveal a horny Winter blowing Jaune while fingering herself. And beneath her was already a noticeable puddle of her juices.

"WINTER!" Willow shouted, surprised but also slightly jealous that she wasn't the first one giving Jaune fellatio. Hearing her mother's voice, Winter removed Jaune's shaft from her mouth and gave the tip a wet kiss before turning to her mother while still fingering herself.

"What? Hearing you two make out got me going. Plus, I want my morning snack before breakfast." Winter answered while stroking Jaune's shaft.

"I'm not mad at that. A small snack before breakfast is never bed." Willow said before winking at Jaune. "But it's what I always told you and Weiss when you two were much younger. And that is to share."

"Then what are you waiting for, Mother? I'm sure Jaune has enough for the both of us." Winter said before moving to the side.

"That's right." Willow said before moving to be next to her daughter.

Both mother and daughter shared a wink before bringing up their luscious breasts and wrapping them around Jaune's cock. The young blonde couldn't help but let out a loud moan of pleasure as he felt the set of heavenly pillows engulf his cock, with it becoming hard as steel. Smirking, the two Schnee women began moving their breasts up and down, increasing his pleasure while letting out their own moans whenever their hard-as-diamond nipples brushed against each other.

"Oh, heavens."

"You're not there yet, dear." Willow said as they increased their speed.

"But maybe we should take him there." Winter suggested.

"Good idea."

Slowing down their tit job ever so slightly, Willow began peppering his shaft with succulent kisses with gusto while Winter licked it like it was a dessert from the heavens that she had long sought after. Jaune continuously groaned from all the pleasure they were giving him. And he nearly came there and then when Winter and Willow started taking turns suckling his tip like a lollipop.

"Mmm." Winter and Willow moaned when Jaune's tip started leaking precum.

Both Schnee women started alternating between kissing the tip and licking his shaft while it leaked out more precum. And each time Jaune's precum graced their tastebuds, their senses became overloaded with euphoria. It was almost enough to make them cum, but it did make them incredibly hot and bothered. Unable to control themselves anymore, Winter and Willow began fingering themselves while still servicing their man's cock.

"You two are amazing." Jaune groaned with his head leaning back into the pillow.

"You haven't seen anything yet." Winter said before, in one quick motion, engulfing Jaune's cock in her mouth and taking him to the base where her nose touched his golden pubes.

"MMMMMHHHHH!" Jaune groaned, struggling to keep himself from blowing too early. Letting out another groan, Jaune moved his hands to comb through Winter's and Willow's hair.

Not wanting to be left out of her treat, Willow lowered herself and licked Jaune's ball for a few seconds before taking one into her mouth. And she then used her free hand to gently massage his other ball. Jaune lightly groaned and started to feel his limit fast approaching as the manicured hand increased the pleasure he was receiving. However, it took all his willpower to moan loudly to wake up the entire floor when both Shcnee women began alternating with their blowjobs. When Winter had his cock in her mouth, she savored his taste while humming to cause vibrations to go down his shaft. But when Willow took him into her mouth, she contracted her oral muscles to increase the tightness while increasing the suction of her mouth.

"I-Im close." Jaune said through gritted teeth.

Smirking, Winter let go of his length with an audible, wet pop. She and Willow then raised their breasts to give him another tit job while vigorously licking the remainder of his shaft their heavenly mounds didn't cover. And every now and then, their tongues would touch, which was quickly followed by an incestuous kiss with Jaune's tip in between their lips. This sight was enough to send Jaune over the edge.

"I'M CUMMING!" Jaune shouted as his seed shot through and out of his length, covering Winter's and Willow's faces and breasts, with some landing on their awaiting tongues, which they happily gulped down.

"Mwah. AAHHH." Winter and Willow moaned as they swallowed his seed.

"Delicious." Winter said, cleaning the cum off her before devouring it.

"Thanks for the light snack, dear." Willow said, doing the same.

"You're welcome." Jaune panted.

"But now it's time to get ready."

"And get some breakfast afterward." Winter added.

"Sure. But first, let's take a shower."

"Jaune. Did you actually suggest that we shower together?" Willow asked.

"And wash each other?" Winter asked, raising an eyebrow.

"Are you two saying you don't want to?" Jaune asked. But he didn't get a verbal answer. Instead, Winter and Willow pulled him out of bed and into the shower.

Two Hour Later

"What classes do you have again, Jaune?" Willow asked as they ate at a nearby diner.

"Leadership classes and Grimm Biology." Jaune answered as he took a bit of his salad.

"Crucial classes to all upcoming huntsmen." Winter said before taking a sip of her tea. "Even though the Grimm have been on the decline."

"True. They are tough but necessary."

"Who are the teachers for those classes?" Willow asked.

"For Grimm Biology, it is Doctor Oobleck. But for Leadership classes, it is Glynda." Jaune answered before taking another bite of his salad. But because of this, he missed the smirk Willow and Winter shared with each other.

"How is Glynda anyway? It's been a while since we've seen each other." Winter asked.

"From what I can tell, Glynda is doing well... for the most part."

"For the most part?" Willow asked, raising an eyebrow.

"Professor Peach had to go on leave, and Glynda was the only one who could substitute for her. And that brings the number of classes she has to teach from five to eight, which also increases the amount of paperwork she has to do."

"Couldn't Ozpin have hired a temp to teach the classes?" Winter asked.

"Or couldn't Doctor Oobleck or Professor Port handle them?" Willow asked.

"I'm not sure about Oobleck or Port. But as for why Ozpin couldn't hire a temp, budget cuts." Jaune answered.

"Figures." Winter and Willow sighed, frustrated at the Council.

"Still. It would have been good if someone else could have substituted for Peach. Glynda has too much on her plate already." Winter said.

"That's an understatement, considering she looks like she's about to snap at any moment." Jaune said.

"And who could blame her? After all, training the next generation of huntsmen is no small task." Willow said.

"But I think she could use a vacation, one that is long overdue." Winter said.

"Long overdue. Too bad it's not as easy as saying it." Jaune said. "Honestly, If I could, I would have Glynda take a month-long vacation."

"True. Still, while a month-long vacation might not be feasible, perhaps a single day just to unwind and destress would do her wonders. And maybe reveal somethings she keeps hidden." Willow said, recalling a previous conversation she had with Glynda.

"Not sure about the last part, but yeah. A single day to unwind would let Glynda get some much-deserved rest." Jaune said.

"Much deserved. But on an unrelated note, do you have anything planned for today?" Winter asked.

"No, I don't think so. Maybe some homework if Glynda or Oobleck assign some."

"Doctor Oobleck might assign something. But I doubt Glynda will." Willow said.

"Maybe, since next week is our spring vacation." Jaune said before taking another sip of his drink. "But what about you two? Any plans for the weekend or next two weeks?"

"We need to return to Atlas this weekend. But we will be back next week to spend time with Weiss." Willow answered.

"And then spend some fun time with you." Winter said with a smirk, causing Jaune to roll his eyes.

"But unfortunately, we won't be able to spend the full two weeks here. We were barely able to get enough time for one week."

"Then that means we just have to make the most of the time we have." Jaune said, smiling, as he grabbed Winter's and Willow's hands and gently squeezed them, earning a loving smile from them.

"Of course. I'm looking forward to it." Winter said.

"And we will have far more time to spend together after you finish Beacon." Willow said before leaning to give him a chaste kiss. And she was looking forward to that time where they could spend time together like a family. Although, they would soon have to find a place to settle down together since Atlas wasn't the best place for many reasons, especially for raising children.

"I'm looking forward to it." Jaune said.

DING

"Excuse me."

"Who is it?" Willow asked as Jaune took out his scroll.

"It's my friend and teammate, Ren. He just texted me wondering where I am and to tell me that the rest of my team and sister team are starting to get worried."

"I think it's time we call it for now. It's nearly noon, and it will take you some time to return to Beacon." Winter said, checking the time on her scroll.

"Yeah. I don't want to get in trouble." Jaune said as he got up. "I'll call you two later."

"You're not going to leave us without a goodbye kiss, are you?" Winter asked with a smirk.

"Of course not."

Cleaning his hands, Jaune moved to the other side of the table where Willow had stood up and waited for him. They bother smiled before leaning toward each other with their lips connecting. Willow's hands moved to the back of Jaune's head while his moved to her lower back. But unlike the kiss they shared when they woke up, this one remained purely romantic, with Willow loving every second of it. Their lips soon parted to deepen the kiss, with both of them moaning slightly afterward.

'I can't wait to be able to do this every day. His graduation day can't come fast enough.' Willow thought as they separated while keeping their foreheads touching. "I'll call you later, Jaune."

"I'll be waiting." Jaune said, gazing into her eyes.

"My turn." Winter said, impatient.

Getting up, she grabbed Jaune by his shoulders after he stepped back from Willow before pulling him close and mashing their lips together. And without giving him a chance, she shoved her tongue into his mouth and quickly dominated his tongue. Mentally chuckling but also loving Winter's eagerness, Jaune enjoyed the moment as their tongues intertwined every so often.

But after a few seconds, Jaune wanted to take control of the kiss. Snaking his hands down, he grabbed Winter's ass cheeks and gave them a firm squeeze, causing her to let out a low moan in his mouth. Yet, she still remained mostly in control. However, that all changed when Jaune rubbed her right cheek for a moment before bringing his hand back and delivering a semi-loud smack to it. The result was Winter nearly screaming into his mouth while being distracted enough for Jaune to gain control of the tongue battle and push it back to her mouth. Yet, Winter didn't mind it, as she loved it when Jaune took control. It was a massive turn-on for her. Sadly, as much as she wanted to return the pleasure, she knew she couldn't as they were in public with the lunch rush fast approaching. So, with one last dance of their tongues, they separated with smiles on their face.

"See you, Jaune." Winter said.

"See you, Winter." Jaune said before running off as he was low in time.

"Do you think he will be receptive to the idea?" Winter asked, turning to Willow.

"I'm sure he will be. He has a good heart and is always willing to help others. But what comes of it, I'm unsure." Willow answered.

"But whatever comes out of it, she will be much more relaxed." Winter said as they got their trash and threw it out.

"Much more relaxed. And hopefully, she accepts what she has been keeping to herself for a while." Willow said. "Anyway. We should get going now. We still have a few things we need to get done."

"Right."

Half an Hour Later

Beacon Academy

Team JNPR's Dorm

"I'm back." Jaune said as he entered his dorm.

"JAUNE!" Pyrrha shouted, rushing to hug her leader, glad he was okay.

"Hey, Pyr." Jaune said, chuckling as he hugged her back.

"Hey, Jaune. Glad you're in one piece with no broken hip bones." Ren said, chuckling, with Jaune rolling his eyes.

"Yes. I'm in one piece with no broken bones."

"Hey, Jaune. Where were you?" Nora asked, curious.

"And what did Ren mean by broken hip bones?" Pyrrha asked, also curious, as she begrudgingly separated from Jaune.

"One of my childhood friends is an adrenaline junkie. She loves doing tricks on her rollerblades. But most of them, if she messes up, would land her in the hospital because of how dangerous they are. She sometimes asks if I want to try. But I always say no because I don't want to end up in the hospital." Jaune explained.

"I'm glad you said no, Jaune. I would hate for you to get unnecessarily hurt." Pyrrha said, relieved. While she had no problem with people that love doing extreme sports, she knew how dangerous it could be. And she didn't want Jaune to get severely injured, even if he had his aura.

"But why didn't you call or text us that you would be staying over?" Nora asked.

"Especially when you said you would be back around midnight?" Ren asked.

"I forgot to charge my scroll before I left, so it died a bit after I met up with my friends. And where we were had really bad signal. When I asked one of my friends for the time after we finished, I learned it was too late to return as the bullheads were closed. And I would have called or texted when I returned to my friend's place, but it was so late that I figured you guys were already asleep, and I didn't want to wake any of you." Jaune lied.

"Must have been really fun for you to lose track of time." Ren said, smirking.

"It was."

"Still. You could have told us something, Jaune before you left. Or this morning. You know we get up early." Pyrrha scolded, causing Ren and Nora to chuckle. It was adorable and heart-warming how much Pyrrha cared for Jaune. It made Nora wish Pyrrha and Jaune would get together as she knew they would make a cute couple. However, Ren knew they would get together eventually, as it was only a matter of time. But he wondered if Pyrrha would be okay with being in an open relationship where Jaune was with several other women, one of which was her mother.

"You're right, Pyr. I should have called you earlier. I'll make it up to you. How about tomorrow I make us some pita bread with tyrokafteri and orange honey cake with pistachios?"

"Well. I guess I can forgive you this time." Pyrrha said, smiling, as those were some of her favorite foods. "Still, a little heads up next time would be appreciated."

"Of course. I'll remember to keep you guys updated."

"Thanks."

"While this is a nice moment." Nora said, smirking at Pyrrha, who blushed. "Don't you have classes in a few moments, Jaune?"

"Right. I need to get going." Jaune said before looking around. "Now, where's my bag?"

"Um, here." Pyrrha said, holding his bag. "I knew you had classes, Jaune, but I didn't know when you would be back. So, I, um, packed your bag for you."

"Wow. Thanks, Pyrrha. I really am glad to have you as my partner." Jaune said before pulling Pyrrha into a hug, which she greatly appreciated.

"I'm glad to have you as my partner, too, Jaune." Pyrrha said, wrapping her arms around Jaune and leaning into his embrace. And while this happened, she imagined being in this same position during their wedding day. But Pyrrha knew she had to first ask Jaune out.

"As heartwarming as this is, Jaune, there are only five minutes before Oobleck's class begins. And you know how he likes to give extra homework to late students." Ren said.

"Right. Got to go." Jaune said before dashing out of the dorm.

"Do you ever think that our fearless leader is hiding something?" Nora asked.

"Sometimes." Pyrrha answered. "As much as I hate to admit it, I feel like Jaune isn't always truthful with us."

"But we can't really blame him for doing so. I mean, we only know Jaune for a few months. And while we have become great friends, there might be a few things he might not feel ready to share with us. Plus, there are some things we all like to ourselves as they are private." Ren said.

"True." Nora and Pyrrha said.

"Anyway. Since we finished our classes, what should we do until Jaune-Jaune finishes his?" Nora asked.

"We can make some popcorn and watch a movie." Pyrrha suggested.

"Sure. Any ideas about what we could watch?" Ren asked.

"What about Beetlejuice?" Nora suggested.

"Sure." Ren and Pyrrha said.

Ninety Minutes Later

RRRIIIIIINNNNNNGGGGG

"Okay, class. That's the bell. You may leave. Enjoy your break. And don't forget to read pages 800 to 1750." Doctor Oobleck said before sitting on his desk.

"That's a lot of pages we have to read." Ruby groaned as she and Jaune gathered their books.

"Yeah. But at least we have two weeks to do it." Jaune said.

"True. Still not looking forward to it."

"Same. Anyway. We should get going since we have leadership classes next."

"Right. Oh, shoot."

"Something wrong, Ruby?" Jaune asked as Ruby started looking in her bag.

"I forgot my notes. I'll be right back." Ruby answered before using her semblance to dash to her dorm.

"Well. At least there's a half hour before our next class." Jaune said before deciding to head to Glynda's class. While he might be really early to her class, it was far better than being late. Plus, it would give him some time to organize his notes. But before Jaune could head there, he felt his scroll vibrate. Curious, he took it out and saw that he received a message from an unknown number.

'Meet me in the bathroom now. We need to talk.'

"Who could-"

Tap Tap

Caw

"Right. I'm heading there now." Jaune said before dashing to the bathroom.

A Few Moments Later

"Okay, Raven. I'm here." Jaune said as he entered the bathroom and locked the door so they could have privacy. "What do you-WOAH!"

Before Jaune could even finish his sentence, a black blur swooped by, grabbed him, and tossed him into the stall at the end. Then, before he could say anything or react, Jaune felt the jet black hair milf smash her lips against his. He immediately moaned into the kiss and tried to pull her in closer. But she grabbed his hands and raised them over his head so he couldn't do anything. Then Raven shoved her tongue into his mouth, rapidly dominated his tongue, and swabbed clean his mouth of his spit. Yet, despite being unable to do anything, Jaune didn't mind it and let Raven continue ravaging his mouth. After about eight minutes of this, Raven finally separated from him, allowing Jaune to get some much-needed air into his lungs.

"Hey, stud." Raven said, licking her lips.

"Hey, Raven." Jaune said, chuckling as he rolled his arms. "I take it you wanted to do that for a while."

"Yeah. As much as I don't care what others think about what we do, I don't want you getting in trouble for indecent PDA."

"True. Anyway. You said you wanted to talk. What is it? Is everything okay?"

"Everything is okay, Jaune. I just need a favor from you." Raven answered as she leaned against the stall's door.

"Alright. What is it?"

"Well, there's a friend of ours. She has been rather stressed lately. And she has been feeling quite lonely recently... and frustrated in a sense."

"So, what do you want me to do?" Jaune asked, curious.

"We want you to fuck her."

"Um, excuse me."

"You heard me. We want you to fuck her and help her relax and destress. And before you say what I know you're going to say, she already agreed to this, and she is not in a relationship." Raven said. 'But maybe that will change after today.'

"Alright. But what do-"

"We all are fine with it. In fact, we were the ones who brought it up with her."

"Okay. So, uh. Can I at least know her name?"

"No."

"Alright. So I just have to have sex with her, and that's it."

"And make it memorable and pleasurable for her. And fulfill any desires she has. But yes, in simplistic terms, you just have to have sex with her." Raven answered. "So, are you willing to do it?"

"Well, since you are all okay with it and the friend is alright with it, and no one is getting hurt, sure."

"Good." Raven said, smiling.

"But where and when will it happen?"

"Tonight at eight. It will be in room 308 of the Golden Star Entertainment Group hotel."

"Golden Star Entertainment Group Hotel? Wow. Okay. I will have to leave as soon as class finishes if I want to get there on time since that's on the other side of town."

"I don't think you will have to worry about that. Also, here is your ticket for the bullhead to take you there." Raven said, handing Jaune his ticket.

"Thanks, Raven." Jaune said.

"You're welcome. But now for your reward for being such a good boy. And my treat to hold me off until next week." Raven said.

And without letting Jaune say anything, Raven quickly undid his belts while still wondering why he chose to wear two and pulled down his trousers. She then pulled down his underwear and licked her lips in anticipation when Jaune's impressive length sprung up and stood at attention. Gently grabbing it, Raven leaned down and licked his shaft from the base to the tip and suckled it. And Jaune let out a low moan when she licked the tip and cleaned it of some precum. But while Raven wouldn't mind having her favorite drink, she knew they wouldn't have time as Jaune's class would start soon.

"Time for your reward." Raven said, letting go of Jaune's cock with a loud, wet pop.

Raven then stood up, turned around, and dropped her pants to reveal that she had chosen to forgone panties. Jaune's cock, while hard from Raven's blowjob, became painfully erect from seeing Raven's luscious, pale ass. And he nearly lost it when she bent forward to also show him her pussy lips and slapped her ass, sending ripples across her cheeks. Reaching out, he grabbed both of her cheeks and gave them a firm squeeze, loving the soft but firm feel. Jaune massaged them for a while, loving the scent of her juices as they trailed down her legs, giving them a slick shine. Rubbing the right cheek, Jaune raised his hand and gave it a few slaps, earning delicious moans from Raven.

"You say you're a leg man, Jaune. But I think you're more of an ass man." Raven said, enjoying his treatment of her ass.

"I am. But your ass is just that tempting."

"Then you will definitely like this."

Spitting into her hand, Raven reached back, grabbed Jaune's cock, and gave it a few strong strokes to lube it up. She then spread her asscheeks to show her tight asshole. Raven then guided Jaune's prick to where it touched her asshole and had it smack against it a few times before having the tip enter it slightly. She then took a deep breath and readied herself to have her lover embedded in her ass. But before she could do so, Jaune, impatient, grabbed her hips and slammed her ass to his hips, hilting himself all the way in one go.

SHLUP

"MMMMMMHHHHHH!" Raven and Jaune moaned. For Jaune, Raven's anal passage felt immensely, almost impossibly tight. It was almost enough to send him over the edge or lose control and start rutting away. For Raven, while she wasn't as passionate about anal sex like Winter or Summer, she did occasionally love having her lover stuff her ass with his cock. Adjusting his grip on her hips and loving the soft sensation of her skin, Jaune lifted Raven until only his tip remained before slamming her back down and repeating the process.

"Yes. Just like that." Raven moaned as she began slamming her hips against Jaune's thrust to increase the pleasure.

Wanting to hear Raven scream, Jaune increased the force at which he was hammering at her ass. He then leaned forward and reached around to grab Raven's breasts and massage them for a few seconds before twisting her nipples, sending a delicious wave of pain and pleasure to shoot up her spine.

"YES! KEEP GOING!" Raven shouted, her tongue hanging out of her mouth as she came.

Twisting and pulling her nipples, Jaune continued pounding into Raven's ass as she panted from euphoria. But Jaune wanted to take it up a notch as she still wasn't screaming his name. Channeling some of his aura into his arms and legs, Jaune forced them up before bending Raven over and having her place her hands on the stall's door. He then resumed jackhammering into her tight anal passage. Yet, despite the sudden movement, Jaune hadn't ceased playing her nipples. However, after another pull, he moved one hand from her heaving chest, down her toned stomach and rubbed and twisted her clit, overloading her senses with pleasure.

"YES! JAUNE! KEEP GOING!" Raven said, now drooling a bit as she could only focus on the pleasure her lover was giving her as she rode through her second orgasm. Thankfully, the angle Jaune was rutting against meant that her juices didn't soak her pants.

Feeling his limit fast approaching and knowing she was close too, Jaune leaned so his chest was against her back, turned her head to face him, and began making out with her. He then began furiously rubbing her pussy while alternatingly pinching, pulling, and twisting both her tits. And with each passing second, Jaune increased the pace at which he was ramming into her. This continued for another five minutes. And it all came to an end when Jaune stopped rubbing Raven's clit, causing her to whine slightly, before pushing her over the edge when he slapped her ass again.

"I'M CUMMING!" Raven shouted as she rode her third and final orgasm. And the feeling of her anal muscles contracting on his shaft was enough to push Jaune over the edge. With one last grunt, he hilted himself to the base in her ass and let loose his load into her, filling her anal cavity to the brim.

"Wow." Jaune said as he pulled out of her, with some of his seed leaking out of her ass.

'If only it wasn't in my ass and instead my other hole. I wouldn't mind another kid. Although, I should probably wait until I fully reconnect with Yang. It might be too much for her if she learns that I got impregnated by her crush. But maybe sharing this handsome man would be a good way for us to bond.' Raven thought as she, on shaky legs, pulled her pants up before turning to Jaune. "That was fantastic, stud. Now I better go. And you better head to class. Don't forget. Eight P.M. at the Golden Star Entertainment Group hotel."

Grabbing Jaune by his school's tie, Raven made out with him one last time before leaving.

"Wow. That was something. I wonder who their friend is and what prompted this." Jaune wondered before taking out his scroll and noticing that there were only five minutes until his class with Glynda began. "SHIT!"

Quickly cleaning up and making himself look presentable, Jaune grabbed his bag, dashed out of the bathroom, and ran to his next class.

Ten Minutes Earlier

"Am I really going through with this?" Glynda Goodwitch asked herself as she looked herself over in the mirror.

She typically wore a white long-sleeved, pleated blouse that had a wide keyhole neckline, a black high-waisted pencil skirt, and brown stockings. However, this time, her attire was somewhat different. While she still had a white blouse, this one had a slightly bigger cleavage window and accentuated her curves ever so slightly. While it would still be mostly unnoticeable at a passing glance, it would undoubtedly catch anyone's attention if she stayed near someone long enough or drew attention to it. If it did, they would barely notice her transparent purple bra. And her pencil skirt was no different. It was tighter, highlighting her hips and ass, and was shorter. Generally, her pencil skirts reached below her knees, which was standard and more professional. But this one only went halfway down her thighs, meaning if she sat down in a specific way, anyone in front of her would be able to see the transparent purple underwear she was wearing. Finally, she swapped her regular brown stockings for black thigh-high fishnet stockings.

"I still can't believe this is happening. But I'm not going to let this opportunity pass. And hopefully, there will be no more lonely nights after tonight."

DING

"I better get to class."

Moving to her desk, Glynda grabbed her cape and put it on before grabbing her The Disciplinarian and bag. She then quickly double-checked to ensure she had everything before leaving and heading to teach her class.

Five Minutes Later

"Where's Ms. Goodwitch?" Ruby asked, curious.

"I'm not sure. She's never late." Jaune said, looking at the time on his scroll. While it was only a minute past three, Glynda always arrived to each of her classes a good ten minutes before they began. So, this was highly unusual and made everyone feel slightly uneasy.

"Maybe she got caught up with something?"

"Like what?"

"Maybe Oobleck or Port needed her help with something. Or Ozpin called her into his office to go over something."

"I doubt that considering-"

"Sorry, I'm late class. I just had to go over a few things for a different class." Glynda said as she entered the classroom and headed to her desk.

But while everyone immediately sat upright and got ready to take not and not invoke Goodwitch's wrath, Jaune felt his eyes nearly bulge out of his head while blood rushed to his cock. While it might not have been apparent to everyone, Jaune could easily tell that Glynda's attire was a lot more... enticing and daring while still leaving a lot to the imagination. However, Jaune had to pinch himself to snap out of his trance and pay attention. Not only was it rude, but if he got caught staring at his teacher, then an expulsion would have been the best outcome.

"Jaune. Are you okay?" Ruby whispered when she saw Jaune adjusting himself from the corner of her eye.

"Y-yeah. I'm fine, Rubes." Jaune answered, desperately trying to find a comfy position that would also allow him to hide his erection.

"Alright."

'Okay. I just need to calm down and focus on the class and not stare at Glynda. But I wonder why she changed her outfit. Maybe she's going on a date later. If so, good for her. We all could use a special someone in our lives. Or special someones in my case.' Jaune thought as he got out his notebook and a pen. However, he tensed up when he heard the familiar clicking sounds of heels. Although, he became confused when the scent of a rather expensive perfume entered his nostrils.

"Is everything alright, Mr. Arc? You seem a bit uncomfortable." Glynda asked, standing close to him.

"I'm fine, Ms. Goodwitch." Jaune hastily answered.

"Alright." Glynda said before taking a few steps away. However, instead of returning to her desk, she remained near Jaune. "Okay, class. Today we will learn the importance of having a strong bond with your allies/teammates."

'This is going to be a long class.' Jaune thought as he took down some notes. However, he also knew it would be an extraordinarily difficult one as Glynda stayed near him. And every so often, he had to swallow a lump in his throat and beat down his erection when he felt like Glynda sashayed her hips when she moved in front of him.

Ninety Minutes Later

"Okay, everyone. I know we still have another hour, but I'm ending class early today as I have other duties I must attend to. There will be no homework for the break. You all may leave now and enjoy your break." Glynda said before hastily leaving.

"Well... that was unexpected." Jaune said as he gathered his stuff, but he was also silently thankful that class was over.

"It was. Glynda never ends class early and always assigns homework." Ruby agreed. "But I'm not complaining. And we can use the time to get started on Ooblecks's ridiculous reading assignment."

"It is. But once you're finished with that, you'll never have to do something like that again." Another voice said. Turning around, they saw Coco walking up to them.

"Hey, Coco." Ruby and Jaune said.

"Hey, you two." Coco said, eyeing Jaune. "Interesting class, wasn't it?"

"Not really. Seemed normal." Ruby answered.

"A little interesting." Jaune lied, as, in reality, it was strange, to say the least. "But it was a little strange and concerning that Glynda arrived late, ended class early, and gave no homework."

"Well, yeah. Aside from that, it wasn't really strange." Ruby said.

"Really strange considering how punctual Glynda typically is. But like you two, I'm not complaining that we don't have homework since it frees up an afternoon." Coco said before turning to Jaune. "Jaune. Mind if we talk for a moment."

"Uh. Sure. See you later, Ruby."

"See you, Jaune. See you, Coco." Ruby said before leaving.

"So, uh. What did you want to talk-"

"Are you free this weekend?" Coco interjected.

"No. Well, Saturday, I'm going to be busy the whole day."

"And Sunday?"

"I got nothing planned. So, I'm free that day. Why?"

"Make sure that day is clear, and don't plan anything for it. Meet me at Carlyle Park on Sunday at noon. I have a surprise for you, one that you will like. But if you're not there, then I will find you and drag you there by the hood of your hoodie." Coco answered before lowering her shades and glaring at him. "Understand?"

"Y-yes." Jaune fearfully answered.

"Good. Ciao." Coco said before leaving.

"That was... something. Today is full of surprises. I wonder what else is in store for me. But I wonder what Coco has in store for me." Jaune said before taking out his scroll to check the time. 'I still have time before I need to head out. I should probably take a shower first and let the others know that I'll be out for the rest of the day.'

Ten Minutes Later

Team JNPR's Dorm

"Any idea who it is?" Ren asked Jaune while Nora and Pyrrha stepped out a bit ago for some reason.

"Nope. No clue. All she said was that it was to help their friend." Jaune answered.

"Are you okay with it?"

"Mostly. I mean, they went up to her, and she accepted the proposal. Plus, she's not in a relationship with anyone, and the others are fine with it. So no one's getting hurt."

"Well, if everyone's fine with it and no one's getting hurt, then I see no problem with it. But make sure you bring some condoms. We don't know if she is on any birth control. Plus, she might bring some condoms, but we don't know if she tampered with them. After all, your lovers might know her, but we don't. So better safe than sorry."

"True. Thankfully, I brought some recently." Jaune said as he grabbed some from his secret bag.

"Speaking of buying, don't forget to buy the ingredients to make the food you promised to make for Pyrrha as apologies."

"Right. I just need to-"

"-Pull up a list. Don't worry. While you were in class, I made a list of the ingredients for the food." Ren said, handing Jaune the list.

"Thanks, Ren."

"No problem. Also, where are you going to have fun?"

"Room 308 of the Golden Star Entertainment Group hotel."

"Wow. You better take a shower now and then get going if you want to get there on time." Ren said, surprised.

"Right."

"Will you be staying overnight?"

"I'm not too sure. It could be just an hour there or a few."

"I'll leave the door unlocked. But remember to give us a heads up if you're going to be returning today or tomorrow."

"Will do. Also, when Nora and Pyrrha ask, tell them I had to fly across town to visit my family. If they ask for a reason, tell them I don't know the reason either."

"Alright. Take care, and try not to overdo yourself." Ren said before heading over to his bed to take a quick nap.

"Will do." Jaune said before entering the bathroom.

Seven Forty P.M.

Golden Star Entertainment Group Hotel

'I still wonder who their friend is.' Jaune thought after knocking on the door.

"Hello, Jaune." Winter said as she opened the door with a smile.

"Hello, Winter."

"Come on in."

"Thanks." Jaune said as they entered the room. He looked around and noticed that the room seemed like any sort-of upscale hotel room. "So, uh. Is there anything you want me to do?"

"Not really. Our friend is in the bathroom. She arrived a bit earlier than we expected. As for you, you just sit on the bed and get ready to help her relax. Don't forget to make it as memorable as possible for her."

"Okay." Jaune said, moving to sit on the bed. "But what about you? Are you going to stay?"

"As much as I would like to have you fuck me into unconsciousness, this night is all about her. Oh, and don't worry about condoms. She is on the pill. Good luck." Winter said before leaving.

'Odd.' Jaune thought as he waited for whoever their friend was to exit the bathroom.

Five Minutes Later

'I wonder if she is okay.' Jaune thought as he sent a message to his friends saying that he won't be back until tomorrow due to the bullheads needing emergency maintenance. Hearing movement, Jaune put away his scroll and turned to the bathroom door as it slowly opened, only to have his jaw drop in shock.

It was Glynda Goodwitch who stepped out of the bathroom. And she was wearing the same outfit as earlier, yet, for some reason, it seemed even more arousing.

"Hello, Mr. Arc." Glynda said as she walked toward him. However, it took a lot of her willpower not to back out from this.

"M-Miss. Goodwitch." Jaune stuttered.

"That's right, Mr. Arc. Now. Shall we proceed?"

"I-I-I... U-uh." Jaune struggled to say, still trying to process everything.

'It's now or never.' Glynda thought as she closed the distance between herself and Jaune.

And as Glynda looked down at her possible future knight, Glynda couldn't help but smile at his nervous expression. She found it slightly amusing, considering he was dating several other women, one of which was terrifying in her own right. Then again, Glynda knew that Jaune would have never expected to be able to have sex with the headmistress of Beacon Academy. However, she hoped in the future that the stress-relieving sex would change to genuine lovemaking. Glynda knew this type of relationship was looked down upon. But standards be damned. She wanted to be with Jaune, even though she had to share him with several other women.

"Now, Mr. Arc. Are you going to do your job and help me destress?" Glynda asked with a smirk. Seeing him nod slowly, Glynda smirked before taking a single step close and sitting on his lap. She then gently cupped his face while bringing hers closer. "Now. Let's get started."

Without saying another word, Glynda leaned down and connected their lips in a passionate kiss. And in it, Glynda tried to convey everything she felt and secretly felt about the young man she was kissing. But while Jaunw still had yet to reciprocate the kiss, Glynda was immensely enjoying the moment and couldn't help but let out a small moan as she closed her eyes from pure bliss.

However, Jaune still felt shocked about the whole thing. Here was Glynda Goodwitch, professor and vice-headmistress of Beacon Academy, making out with him in a passionate liplock. It was surreal, to say the least. But Jaune would be lying if he didn't find Glynda beautiful... or that he had a few wet dreams about her. And her new outfit from early did get his hormones raging. But the question remained. Should he continue? He knew student-teacher relationships were frowned upon. But then again, he wasn't in a favored type of relationship. And while his hormones pointed in one direction, Jaune knew he had to think about this. No matter how tempting the whole situation was, how tantalizing the idea of being able to have sex with Glynda was, Jaune had to tread carefully. However, after a second, Glynda tried to deepen the kiss.

That allowed Jaune to arrive at his answer.

"Mmmmnnn!" Glynda moaned when Jaune cupped her cheek and returned the kiss, causing her to relax considerably. For a moment, she thought that she had crossed the line when Jaune didn't do anything. But those fears vanished when Jaune kissed her back.

Internally, Glynda was cheering as the passion behind Jaune's kiss increased with each passing second. Wanting to move forward, she parted her lips slightly, let her tongue out, and licked Jaune's lips. Now already well versed in what it means, Jaune opened his mouth to grant her tongue passage, which she happily took and started playing with his tongue.

Mmmmnnn! Hmmm! Mmmnnggh!

Moaning some more, Glynda relished the taste of Jaune's mouth as she swabbed his mouth clean while still wrestling with his tongue. Moving his hand to the back of her head, Jaune deepened the kiss while gently guiding his other hand to her hip. But soon, she felt something stiff and hot poking her nether regions. Yet, before she could say anything, Glynda felt Jaune place his hands on her ass.

"Mmmmnnn!" Glynda moaned into Jaune's mouth some more as she felt him firmly squeeze both of her cheeks, sending spikes of arousal throughout her entire body.

For Jaune, as he massaged his teacher's ass, he could help but get harder at how it felt. They were soft yet firm, and they easily molded around his fingers. And with each movement, Glynda let out another delicious moan. However, she began constantly moaning when Jaune started pulling her hips closer to his crotch and back, essentially making her hump him. Each time she felt his hot crotch press against her lower region, Glynda felt herself become wetter and hornier.

"MMMNNN!" Glynda moaned as she came, soaking her already wet panties even more. She then separated from Jaune before licking his lips to clean up their mixed saliva. But despite already cumming, Glynda was still horny and was ready to move to the next step. And she has been wanting to see Jaune's cock since class earlier. While she did get a sneak peek, she wanted to see it unobstructed. With a wet plop, Glynda separated from Jaune and licked his lips clean of their combined saliva. " ."

"Yes, Ms. Goodwitch?" Jaune asked, panting.

"We're wearing too many clothes."

Without waiting for him to say anything, Glynda began undoing the buttons on her blouse. Not wanting to leave her out, Jaune hastily grabbed the hem of his shirt and pulled it over his head to reveal his slightly muscled physique. While he wasn't as ripped as some other more experienced huntsmen or bodybuilders, it was still very pleasing to Glynda's eyes. With a purr, she stopped undoing her blouse and moved her hands to rub along Jaune's chest, loving the sensation of finally being able to do this. Feeling her manicured nails scrape along his chest was enough to send Jaune moaning while fire went down to his groin. Feeling that it was unfair that he was topless while Glynda wasn't, Jaune reached and finished undoing the buttons before removing the blouse. And once he did, out came a mouthwatering pair e-cup size breasts.

"Well, what are you waiting for, Mr. Arc? They are getting lonely." Glynda said, smirking as she moved side-to-side, allowing her breasts to swing and almost hypnotize Jaune.

Bringing up his hands, Jaune massaged the two milky white, perfect globes, causing Glynda to groan. But even the bra couldn't hold the pleasant jiggly feeling of the mounds. And the fact that it was translucent meant Jaune had a sneak peek of Glynda's delectable-looking tits. Yet, as much as Jaune wanted to tear off her bra and start sucking them, they could wait, and he didn't want to rush things. While Glynda was enjoying his massaging of her chest, he could tell she was slightly nervous and tense about the whole thing.

'Well, I'm here to help Glynda relax and make her feel good.' Jaune thought.

"Yes, Jaune. Just like that." Glynda moaned when Jaune resumed massaging her breasts.

Grabbing her breasts, Jaune massaged them, loving the doughy feeling of them. And as he continued, he listened carefully to Glynda's moans, seeing which actions caused her more pleasure. But what caused Glynda to moan louder while resuming her grinding against his crotch was when Jaune's hand moved over her clothed tits and got a bit rougher. Realizing this, Jaune focused on her tits and used the palm of his hands to grant her even more pleasure, and judging by how she increased her pace, she must be loving it.

"You really love my breasts."

"They are amazing."

"Of course. Everyone seems to stare at them..." Glynda dejectedly said. She knew she was pretty. But oftentimes, she felt like people couldn't see past her breasts.

"Well, they are big. But, if I'm being honest, I always preferred your eyes."

"My eyes?" Glynda asked, surprised.

"They glitter every so often, have a beautiful color, and a calming effect every time I see them." Jaune said. While he knew there was a better time and place to have this conversation, he knew he had to reassure Glynda that she was beautiful all around and that he saw her for more than her looks. "You're gorgeous in many more ways than one. But that's not why you're my favorite teacher."

"You're just saying that."

"I'm not. Yes, you're strict and can be harsh at times. But that's just your way of looking out for us and ensuring we can be the best we can be. Without you, most of us would have perished earlier. I am glad to have you as my teacher, Ms. Goodwitch." Jaune explained and assured, causing Glynda to smile. A tear even escaped her eye, which Jaune wiped away before cupping her cheek.

"Thank you for that, Jaune. I needed to hear that. But now, let me return the favor." Glynda said, leaning into his hand and pecking it before sliding off him and resting her rump on the floor. She undid his two belts, wondering why he always wore two and then pulled down his zipper, followed by his pants and underwear, allowing his impressive length to reveal itself in all its glory. And while Glynda wanted to put it in her mouth and eventually taste his essence, which the other said tasted divine, she knew that could wait for a bit. Right now, it was time to put her best assets to good use. But one thing before she did. "Also, call me Glynda."

Without waiting for him to respond, Glynda lifted her massive mammaries and enveloped Jaune's cock. The feeling of those soft heavenly pillows and warm embrace around his shaft sent Jaune moaning and panting. The sensation was beyond describing. Jaune vaguely recalled the dreams he had about Glynda where she did this, and those paled in comparison to the real thing.

"Mmmmhhhh." Jaune groaned as Glynda continued her fantastic titjob.

Up and down, up and down, Glynda raised and lowered her breasts, giving Jaune's cock one of the best experiences it ever had. And while it was her doing all the work, Glynda was growing incredibly horny by how warm Jaune's shaft was. And the scent was nearly driving her crazy with want. Wanting to hear her lover some more, Glynda decided to up the ante. She spitted onto his cock and alternated her breasts up and down to lube his shaft up. This, in turn, allowed her breasts to slide more smoothly along his erection, causing Jaune to experience even greater pleasure.

"Oh, Glynda. Keep going." Jaune moaned, having lain down on the bed as if he could stay upright because of all the pleasure Glynda was giving him.

Smiling and happy with herself, Glynda increased the pace at which she rubbed Jaune's cock, all the while enjoying the sounds he was making. Soon, he started bucking up into her cleavage, alerting her that he was close. This just made Glynda increase her pace with gusto.

"I'M CLOSE!" Jaune warned.

"Cum for me, Jaune." Glynda said, smiling, before planting a soft kiss on Jaune's tip.

This pushed Jaune over the edge. He felt his balls churn as they produced more cum. And after a second, he felt his see shoot through his shaft, out of his cock, and onto Glynda's awaiting tongue and face. Rope after rope of semen coated Glynda's pearly face, with her gulping down any that landed in her mouth.

'Delicious. But I wonder how it will taste directly from the source.' Glynda thought as she licked her lips clean.

"That was amazing, Glynda." Jaune said through ragged breaths. However, his erection, while softened from just having blown a load, went full mast again when he saw his semen covering Glynda's face as she scooped it off her face and chest before eating it.

"Thank you, Jaune. But now, it's your turn to return the favor. Get on the bed, Mr. Arc. That is…" Glynda began before using her semblance to grab her Disciplinarian from the nearby table and smacked it into her hand to create a loud whipping sound. "… an order."

It was evident to Jaune that Glynda had reverted back to her dominating role, which he presumed was a fetish of hers. But he wasn't going to complain, especially if it meant making her happy and bringing her greater pleasure.

"Yes, Ms. Goodwitch." Jaune said before sliding onto the center of the bed and lying down.

'Hopefully, it will be Mrs. soon.' Glynda thought as she used her semblance to pull Jaune's pants off.

Licking her lips at seeing Jaune's mast standing proudly, Glynda licked her lips, bringing her hands to her head, and puffed her chest out, making her breasts jiggle. She then turned to the side and bent forward slightly to accentuate her ass before slowly bringing her hands down her body. Glynda licked her hands as they passed her mouth, fondled her tits before massaging her breasts, and trailed down her toned stomach before finally stopping at her pencil skirt. She then made a show of unbuttoning her skirt before turning around and bringing it down, giving Jaune a full, unrestricted view of her breathtaking ass and soaked panties. She then removed her underwear before standing up and taking off her bra, letting her breasts bounce freely.

"Wow." Jaune whispered, amazed. But Glynda heard him and smirked.

"Now, Mr. Arc." Glynda said as she climbed on top of the bed and moved to rest her slightly haired womanhood against Jaune's lips as she encased his cock between her lily white melons in a sixty-nine position. "I command you to eat me out. Make me enjoy it, and I'll make sure you enjoy this."

Without giving Jaune time to do anything, Glynda licked Jaune's tip before bringing it into her mouth. The taste was nothing like Glynda had expected. It was even better than she could have hoped for. From inside her mouth, Glynda lathered Arc's cock with her tongue, trying to leave no spot unlicked. All the while, she bobbed her head up and down while tightening her throat muscles and increasing the suction. Even though she had never done this before, even with her previous and only boyfriend, Glynda thanked the Brothers above for the internet as it allowed her to watch videos to prepare for this moment.

Grabbing her breasts, Glynda began giving Jaune's cock another titjob to the part that wasn't in her mouth. As she did this, Glynda closed her eyes and furiously bobbed her up and down. And each time she pulled back until only the tip remained in her mouth, she suckled it and swirled her tongue around it before licking it clean of any precum that formed as a result of her ministrations.

But while she was giving Jaune an insane amount of pleasure, he was returning the same, if not more, to her. Reaching around her thighs, Jaune smacked Glynda's ass, enjoying the ripples that went across her cheeks and the moan she let out as a result. He then grabbed her ass, still loving its soft but firm quality, pulled himself up, and began kissing all over her nether regions.

"Uuuaahh!" Glynda moaned, momentarily halting her ministrations before resuming.

Jaune kept on kissing all around her nether region for a few moments before his eyes settled on her clit. Leaning forward, he gave the nub a gentle kiss before licking and sucking it, causing Glynda to moan. And she came all over his face from the sudden surge of pleasure.

"Mr. Arc. That was-OH, BROTHERS!"

Jaune wasn't done. As Glynda slowed recovered from her orgasm, he lapped up her juices and loved the sweet taste of it. But as soon as Jaune was done, he took the nub into his mouth again. However, this time, Jaune began nibbling on it and alternating to rolling it between his teeth. And as he did this, he occasionally smacked Glynda's ass again.

"YES! MR. ARC! KEEP GOING!" Glynda screamed, mind hazy with pleasure. But she could focus just enough to resume her service to his cock and tried to bring him over the edge before he so to her again.

However, it quickly became futile. After a few minutes of licking, biting, and nibbling on her clit, Jaune decided he wanted to have a taste of her. Adjusting his grip on her cheeks, he gave them yet another smack before sticking his tongue out and giving a long lick to her nether lips.

"Y-YES! LIKE THAT! KEEP AT IT!" Glynda screamed, barely even able to service Jaune's shaft anymore, let alone think.

Wanting to be a good student for his teacher, Jaune obeyed. But he was also getting thirsty and wanted to taste her some more. Jaune licked her nether lips a few more times before diving in and gorging himself on her. His tongue entered and began hungrily exploring. And Jaune didn't stick to one way of eating her out. He darted his tongue in and out rapidly, twisting and turning while inside, and taking a long lick that started from the inside and ended on the outside. And each time he did so, he ended with giving her a kiss on the nub before diving back in. But it was when Jaune gave her cunt an extra long suck before suddenly darting his tongue back in that Glynda came.

"AAAHHHH!" Glynda shouted, seeing stars as she clamped down her thighs on Jaune's head as she rode out her orgasm.

"Tasty." Jaune said, cleaning Glynda's nether lips before giving them a few soft kisses

"J-Jaune. That was amazing." Glynda huffed as she removed herself from Jaune. But she then realized that she had yet to bring Jaune to a finish. And that would simply not do. Grabbing his shaft, she gave it a few strokes before turning to face him. "You didn't finish Jaune. And what kind of teacher would I be if I didn't let my student find relief? I'm going to let you do something to me that so many men dreamed of doing, but only you will be able to do, Jaune."

Jaune was confused by what Glynda meant. But he quickly understood what she meant when Glynda lied down and mashed her juicy breasts together. She then looked at him from her side and said something that sent fire to his lions.

"Come, Jaune. Use my tits however you like. I know you want to." Glynda said with a wink.

Glynda didn't need to say any more words. Jaune immediately got up and moved to sit on Glynda's creamy, toned stomach. He then swiftly inserted his hard-as-steel cock in between her breasts. Jaune took a moment to catch his breath before thrusting away. He went at it slow and steady for the first few. But that quickly changed as Jaune lost control of himself. He grabbed Glynda's breasts for leverage and gave her tits a good squeeze before thrusting as fast as he could. In and out he went, savoring the sensation of sliding between the two luscious, heavenly pillows that were the breasts of Glynda Goodwitch. And with each passing second, he could himself getting closer to the edge.

Meanwhile, Glynda was loving every second of it. From the way he handled, massaged, and pulled her tits to how he slid in and out of her breasts. It was almost everything she wanted. Almost. Looking at him, Glynda licked her lips whenever she saw the tip of his dick emerge from her breasts. Wanting to taste him again, she leaned forward as much as she could and encased the tip in her mouth. Seeing this, Jauned moved closer so he could also fuck her mouth. This continued for the next ten minutes, with Glynda loving how Jaune fucked her breasts and mouth simultaneously. For Jaune, he struggled to hold on for as long as he could. But between the heavenly sensation of her soft pillows and her damp and succulent oral cavern, Jaune found himself nearing the edge rapidly.

"I-I'm close." Jaune said through gritted teeth.

"Cum for me. Let me taste you again." Glynda said before suckling on his dick. And that was enough for Jaune to grab Glynda's head, thrust into her mouth, and cum down her throat. She, naturally, was surprised but quickly adjusted and swallowed all of Jaune's seed as soon as it entered her mouth. Once Jaune was done ejaculating, he pulled out of Glynda's mouth and slumped back, panting.

"Wow." Jaune said, catching his breath.

'Tastes even better when it's fresh from the source. But now I want it somewhere else.' Glynda thought as she sat up, ready to continue. "Well, Mr. Arc. I must say, you really know how to show a lady a good time. But that's enough foreplay. How about we move on to the main event?"

"S-sure. But uh-"

"Don't worry. I'm on the pill, and it's a safe day." Glynda assured with a gentle, lovely smile that calmed all of Jaune's nerves.

"Alright. Let's do it."

Smiling even wider at what was about to happen, Glynda moved to lie on her back at the center of the bed. She then raised both of her legs into the air before using her free hand to spread apart her moist lips. Jaune committed the sight of Glynda Goodwitch, openly inviting him to have sex with him into his memory. Grabbing his cock, he gave it a few strokes while getting on his knees and moving closer. Once he was before her, he gave her pussy a few kisses before lining up his cock to her entrance. He then rubbed it against her lips, eliciting a few moans from her.

"Jaune. Please. I can't take it anymore. I need you inside me." Glynda begged before letting out a few moans while thrusting herself against him to try and find some much-needed relief.

Chuckling, Jaune stared into her green eyes before nodding. After all, he might be many things, but a cruel man he wasn't. He wasn't going to deny his partner anything. With a final breath, he gently entered inside of Glynda Goodwitch. Inch by inch, he slowly hilted more of his cock inside of her, with her moaning loud each passing second. Once his cock was halfway in her, Jaune looked at Glynda one last time. She eagerly nodded, giving Jaune the go-ahead. Nodding back, he breathed in before slamming the rest of the way inside her.

"YES!" Glynda ecstatically screamed when Jaune fully sheathed himself inside her. It was like a dream come true, even if it did hurt her a bit. While her hymen broke a long time ago, she was still a virgin. But she couldn't have been happier with who she gave her virginity to.

After sheathing himself inside her, Jaune took a moment to get accustomed to her incredibly tight passage while also allowing her to get used to being penetrated for the first time. But after a few seconds, she began bucking into him. Smiling, Jaune adjusted himself before pulling back until only his tip was still inside her. He then slowly reinserted himself until he was fully embedded inside her. In and out, Jaune continued at this pace for the next couple of minutes, with Glynda's moaning spurring him on.

"Yes, Jaune. More." Glynda moaned.

Smiling, Jaune leaned down, surprising her. He smiled, causing her to smile. Cupping her cheek, he pulled her into another passionate kiss, which Glynda happily returned and poured all of her emotions into. And as they continued to make out, Jaune continued slowly thrusting into her. Although, he had to resist the urge to go faster when he felt Glynda's breasts squash against him, with her tits rubbing along his chest. And the warm sensation of her velvety folds didn't help. After about ten minutes of this passionate lovemaking, Glynda felt herself fast approaching another climax. And she knew Jaune was close too.

"G-Glynda. I'm close." Jaune grunted as he continued thrusting into her.

"I-inside. It's a safe day, and I'm on the pill." Glynda reminded. Nodding, Jaune increased his pace slightly before Glynda pulled him close and mashed their lips together, with their tongues meshing right after. And after a moment, they both felt their climaxes hit them, causing them to moan loudly into each other's mouths. Their orgasms lasted a full minute, with Jaune painting her womb white.

"That was..." Jaune began as he pulled out.

"Amazing." Glynda finished.

"Are you-"

"I'm fine, Jaune. But I'm not yet satisfied. I can still go another few rounds."

"Are you sure?"

"Yes. But this time. I don't want you to be slow."

"No?"

"As much as I loved you being slow and loving, this time, I want you to fuck me hard." Glynda said before leaning forward to bite his ear.

That was enough to break the camel's back. Lying her back on the bed, Jaune nodded. He then realigned himself with her entrance. But before she could give the go-ahead, he simply slammed himself into her all the way.

"YES! FUCK ME!" Glynda shouted, arching her back. Grabbing her hips, Jauned pulled back before slamming into her all the way as hard as he could. "YES!"

Throwing all caution to the wind, Jaune changed his pace so that he was jackhammering her poor cunt. The sounds of flesh slapping flesh soon filled the room. And if anybody were to pass by their room, they might mistake their rutting for some Grimm mating.

Feeling sweat pour down his face, Jaune quickly wiped it away before focusing back on fucking Glynda's brains out. However, her bouncing tits soon caught his attention. Seeing the perfect globes jiggle with each of his thrusts got him even harder. Moving his hands from her hips, he leaned down and grabbed her tits before bringing them together and sucking on them. And he kept on pounding Glynda into the bed as he pulled, bite, and nibbled on her tits. The sound of the bed creaking in protest against their rutting grew louder but went unnoticed.

"YES, JAUNE! KEEP GOING!" Glynda shouted, feeling all parts of her body going numb for pleasure, aside from her breasts and pussy.

Continuously sucking on her tits, Jaune kept on thrusting into her. But after a few seconds, he could feel Glynda start bucking frantically against his thrusts. And her heaving started growing louder, with sweat covering her entire body, giving it a shiny sheen.

"JAUNE! KEEP GOING! I-I'M CLOSE!" Glynda shouted, but Jaune silenced her with another tongue-coiling kiss.

Separating, Jaune gave her tits one final squeeze before moving them to her ass cheeks and squeezing them. Once he felt like he had a good grip, Jaune slowed down his thrusting, causing Glynda to let out a soft whine. But she nearly screamed her lungs out when Jaune thrusted into as her as possible. His movements, while slow, were now going deeper inside her and were more powerful. This continued for the next few moments, with Glynda's silky, velvety folds bringing Jaune closer to the edge. But he did his best to hold out so they could cum together. Yet, it was getting harder with each passing second as Glynda's viginal muscles kept contracting all around his shaft, eager to milk him for all he's worth. But it was what happened next that made it too much for Jaune.

"YES! I'M CUMMING!" Glynda screamed, seeing lights as her eyes rolled into her skull when Jaune hit her G-spot. Seeing his teacher in this much of a euphoric state with her tongue sticking out was enough to push him over the edge.

"I'M CUMMING!" Jaune shouted before kissing Glynda as he came inside her again, filling her to the brim. Their orgasm lasted a full minute before winding down. Yet, even after they finished, they stayed like that, making out.

"Wow." Glynda said, panting.

"Wow." Jaune said, smiling, as he pulled out of Glynda with some of their fluids leaking out of her. Smiling herself, Glynda pulled Jaune into a chaste kiss. But as they separated, she noticed that he was still somehow hard.

"Do you have one more round in you, Jaune?"

"Yes. I still have another round in me."

"Good. But uh... Do you think you can help me fulfill two of my other fantasies?"

"Of course. What are they?" Jaune asked, curious.

Instead of answering, Glynda got up and moved to the nearby desk. But as she did, she made sure to sway her hips to give her a show of her ass. Once at the desk, she leaned forward and shook her ass at him enticingly before placing her crop next to her and beckoning him over.

"I've been a bad teacher. Mr. Arc. I need to be punished." Glynda said, turning to face him and giving him a wink. Smiling, Jaune got up and went over to her before giving a light smack to her ass, causing her to mewl.

"You really have been a bad teacher, Ms. Goodwitch." Jaune said as he grabbed the wand. "And bad teachers need to be punished."

Rubbing her buttocks, Jaune gave it another light smack with his hand before raising her wand with his other hand. He then wound up before swinging the wand across her bare pale cheeks again, resulting in her mewling ashamedly in delight. Briefly, Glynda considered putting something in her mouth to stifle herself. But she quickly went against it as she wanted anyone passing by their room to hear her lover making her scream and her fantasies come true. Yet, anyone on the floor could have heard how loudly she squealed when Jaune whipped her ass again.

"Again, Jaune!" Glynda pleaded, turning to look at him with a lustful and needful look in her eye.

Nodding, he wound up again before whipping it across her pale cheeks, resulting in a loud clapping sound, causing Glynda to coo in delight as she felt her cunt tighten while dripping with need. But Jaune was careful not to cause marks to appear on her flawless, creamy skin. Reeling back, Jaune smacked her ass again, causing Glynda to squeal even louder as her nails clawed against the desk. And with each smack, the strength behind it grew, with Glynda getting closer and closer to the edge. Her juices were now coating her legs again, with a puddle forming underneath her. However, it was when some of the strands hit her pussy lips that caused Glynda to thrash on the desk as she came hard, her face contorting in bliss, nearly ahegao. And as she came down, she sighed contentedly.

"Are you okay, Glynda?" Jaune asked, rubbing her ass tenderly.

"Yes, Jaune. Thanks for letting me experience one of my desires." Glynda said, smiling as she turned to look at him.

"You're welcome. But what's your other fantasy?" Jaune asked, curious. Blushing, Glynda leaned close and whispered it to him. Needless to say, Jaune was surprised by what she told him. But he wasn't going to deny her. And even he had to admit that it was a bit of a turn-on just hearing it. Smirking, he grabbed Glynda by her hips before lifting her onto the desk. "Are you ready?"

"Yes. Now, breed me, Jaune. Give me a child. I do believe I am currently fertile." Glynda said, smirking.

Nodding, Jaune lined himself up with her entrance before plunging all the way inside her in one go. And the face that Glynda made was one of pure bliss. She was in utter bliss as Jaune thrust into her hard and fast, leaving barely any time to adjust to him. Wrapping her legs around him, Glynda pulled him closer before mashing their lips together.

The sweet sensation of her lips on his again, with her pulling him closer, caused Jaune to let loose. He increased the speed and strength behind his thrusts. And Glynda screamed into his mouth when he began hitting her G-Spot again. As he continued fucking his teacher, Jaune could feel her breasts squishing and rubbing against his chest.

"YES, JAUNE! MAKE ME A MOTHER!" Glynda screamed, momentarily separating from Jaune before slamming her lips back against his. But internally, Glynda wondered if they could do this again down the road with her off the pill. She knew Jaune would make a great father.

Feeling his final orgasm fast approaching, Jaune wrapped one arm around Glynda to pull her closer while his other grabbed her ass. He then started rutting away as fast and as strong as he could while still hitting her G-Spot. Glynda kept moaning into his mouth as he continued fucking her. And after another ten minutes, they finally reached their limit.

"MMMMMMMMHHHHHH!" Both moaned as they came, with Jaune's seed filling her one final time. Pulling back slightly, Jaune pulled out of her with their combined fluids leaking out of her and staining the desk and floor.

"Thank you so much, Jaune. For everything." Glynda said before pulling him into a hug.

"You're welcome, Glynda." Jaune said, returning the hug.

They stayed like that for a while, simply basking in each other's warmth. But after a few moments, Jaune heard a light snore. Looking toward her, Jaune saw that Glynda had fallen asleep. Silently chuckling, Jaune picked her up before carrying her to the bed and lying her down. But no sooner than he did, he felt Glynda grabbed his arm.

"Please. Stay with me, Jaune." Glynda said, fighting through the tiredness.

Nodding, Jaune got into bed and laid down next to her. Glynda smiled before snuggling into him and falling asleep with his arm underneath her. Smiling himself, Jaune leaned down and kissed her forehead and cheek before turning and pulling her into his embrace. Sighing contently, Jaune closed his eyes with the scent and warmth of Glynda lulling him to sleep.

Notes:

Well, this was Glynda's chapter. This took a bit longer than I expected. Hopefully, it was worth it.

The next chapter will be Athena and Pyrrha, followed by Velvet and Meg.

Two quick things for the people still reading this. First: Should Coco and her mother be a part of this. And if so, any ideas about how Coco's mother might look like cause I'm drawing a blank. Second: After Jaune gets intimate with his classmates/friends, should I do/include other characters like Neo, the Twins, etc.?

Chapter 3

ARC'S DATING OUT- -WHAT!

Chapter 3

"Mhmmm." Jaune moaned/yawned as he woke up while stretching. Briefly, he wondered why he was in a different hotel than he would typically stay at when spending time with his lovers. But the memories of what happened last night quickly returned to him. Looking down, he smiled and could hardly believe his luck. 'I can't believe I just had sex with THE Glynda Goodwitch. Or maybe making love is the correct term considering what was said.'

Letting out another yawn, Jaune gave Glynda a gentle kiss on her head before carefully turning around. Reaching forward, Jaune grabbed his scroll that was on the night desk to check the time. Seeing that it was only ten past six in the morning, Jaune decided to get up. Typically, when there were no classes, he preferred to sleep in until nine... or until Pyrrha decided he had enough and woke him up by removing his blanket, exposing him to the cold air. However, Jaune knew that despite sending a message to his teammates last night, they would probably still worry if he didn't get back soon, especially Pyrrha. Plus, he still had to gather the supplies to make the food he promised Pyrrha to make it up to her for causing her to worry the last time. Not to mention, he had a date with Athena later today.

'I better get ready then.' Jaune thought as he sat up on the bed with the blanket sliding off, reminding him that he was still naked. But as it did, a stray thought entered his mind. 'I wonder what Pyr would say if she found out I'm dating and having sex with her mother.'

Stretching one last time, Jaune removed the blanket from himself while ensuring he didn't wake up Glynda. Swinging his legs to the side of the bed, Jaune looked out the window and had to cover his eyes from the sun shining into his eyes. After a moment, his eyes adjusted, allowing him to lower his hand. Jaune then placed his hands on the bed and was about to get up. But a soft, manicured hand grabbing his bicep stopped him.

"You're not leaving just yet, are you, Mr. Arc." Glynda softly said. Turning around, Jaune saw that Glynda had turned around and was looking at him with a gentle smile. Ane from his angle, and due to the blanket falling off her creamy body slightly, Jaune could see her firm tits. The sight of them caused him to get hard again, yet he couldn't help but smile at Glynda.

"Well, soon, I have to since I have plans today. But that's soon. I can stay for a little while longer." Jaune answered.

"Good. That means we can cuddle and do it again once more. Now, come here."

Not needing to be told twice, Jaune let Glynda pull him closer to her, and they engaged in a steamy and romantic kiss. Smiling into the kiss, Jaune moved so that he was on top of Glynda. Raising his right arm up, he cupped Glynda's cheek while having his thumb massage it by going in circles. Glynda moaned at the romantic pleasure her lover was giving and sought to return the affection.

Wrapping one arm around Jaune's lower back, she had the other rest on the back of his head and gently pulled him closer. She then opened her mouth and had her tongue lick his lips. Getting the message, Jaune opened his mouth, allowing her tongue passage into his oral cavern. Groaning from the pleasure and the thought of taking Glynda again got Jaune's prick extremely hard as their tongues started exploring each other's mouths. Soon, they started wrestling, with Glynda coming out on top despite Jaune being the more experienced one in this case.

"MMMMHHMMM! MWAH!" They both moaned as they separated while never breaking eye contact.

"That will always be amazing." Glynda huffed as they rested their foreheads against each other. And they both let out a small moan. For Jaune, it was the feeling of Glynda's nipples rubbing against his chest, while for Glynda, it was the sensation of Jaune's cock rubbing against her stomach and pussy. The drops of his pre-cum landing on her toned stomach delighted her senses. However, she then remembered something. "Mr. Arc."

"Yes, Glynda?"

"This relationship, or however you will call it, stays between your lovers and us, alright." And despite the position, Jaune could see the sternness in her eyes. Yet, he could also see the slight fear and hope in her eyes.

"Of course, Glynda. This stays between us. But don't count you're self out. You're also one of my lovers." Jaune said before leaning in to kiss Glynda, causing her heart to fill with joy.

"Thank you, Jaune." Glynda said as they separated. But they let out a moan when their movement caused some friction to their private parts. "Now. I know you have to go soon. But let's make love one more time before you leave."

"Of course. But... uh. Are you-"

"Yes. Don't worry, Jaune. I took the pill as soon as I woke up."

"Alright then. Let's get to it."

"Actually. I want to try something else."

"What is it?" Jaune asked, curious.

"I want you to take my other hole."

Without letting him respond, Glynda moved Jaune off of her before turning so that she was lying on her stomach, with her breasts squishing into the bed. She then reached behind and gave her ass a firm smack, causing ripples to go across her creamy skin. Glynda, with a seductive smirk, spread her ass cheeks to reveal Jaune her most tight passages. Then, as if to seal the deal and ensure that no mortal man could resist, she sent a wink to Jaune.

Almost as if he was hypnotized, Jaune got onto his knees before moving to be behind Glynda. He then leaned down and gave Glynda's luscious ass a kiss on each cheek. Straightening up, Jaune gave her ass a mighty slap, causing her to moan at the pain and pleasure while a red handprint formed. Grabbing his dick, he gave it a few pumps before lining up with Glynda's anal passage.

"Are you ready, Glynda?" Jaune asked.

"Yes, Jaune. Fuck your slutty teacher in her tightest and dirtiest of holes."

Jaune didn't need a clearer invitation. Lining up his dick with her entrance, he gave it a few prods before applying a bit more force to penetrate her anal passage with only the tip of his dick. Glynda moaned in pain yet bit down on the pillow to suppress it. And she nearly screamed when Jaune thrust the rest of his ten-inch dick in one go. Glynda only barely managed to stop herself from making everyone else in the hotel from thinking that some Grimm were in the hotel. But Jaune helped silence her by leaning forward and capturing her lips in a searing kiss.

They stayed like that for a few moments, with Jaune doing his best to stay still and not to blow his load early as he waited for his new lover to adjust to having him inside her. And once Jaune felt Glynda move her ass a bit and begin to moan, he finally separated. Moving back slightly, he placed his hands on Glynda's hips before pulling all the way back until only his tip remained inside her. Jaune then looked to Glynda, who gave him a nod. Nodding back, Jaune breathed out before slamming back inside Glynda.

"YYYYYYYEEEEESSSSSS!" Glynda screamed in euphoria and pain when she felt Jaune fill her ass up with his magnificent cock.

Groaning at the incredibly tight sensation of being inside his teacher's ass, Jaune remained still for a moment. Then he readjusted his grip before hammering away at her. And with each passing second, Jaune increased his pace. Yet, he made sure not to overdo it as it was clear that this was Glynda's first time doing anal, and he did not want to overwhelm her.

"YES, JAUNE! KEEP GOING! FUCK MY ASS!"

But that was proving to be far more challenging with each passing second.

Moaning, Jaune continued pounding away at his teacher's ass with his self-control waning with each second. The thought of taking Beacon's Vice-Headmistress and one of the top huntresses in Remnant sent Jaune's arousal levels through the roof. That and, combined with how Glynda was panting, her hair being a ruffled mess that covered her squished breasts, and her creamy, flawless skin had Jaune on edge.

"MORE, JAUNE! MORE!" Glynda shouted, her tongue hanging from her open mouth as her eyes became half-lidded. However, they shot open when she felt Jaune move his hands from her ass to her hips. Then, in one swift movement, he pulled her up so that she was on all fours rather than lying on her stomach. And with this new position, Jaune managed to reach deeper inside her.

"YES! YES! YES! GIVE IT TO ME!"

Letting out a small growl, Jaune tightened his grip on Glynda's hips as he increased the strength behind his thrusts. Each thrust sent ripples across Glynda's body, as well as pushing her forward slightly. Her heaving and sweaty breasts rubbed against the bed. The sight, combined with how tight her anal passage was, almost as if it was trying to keep him trapped there, pushed Jaune closer to the edge.

And Glynda was also rapidly approaching her finish as well. The feeling of her lover filling her ass along with her ball sack hitting her dripping wet pussy was causing her to experience levels of pleasure she previously thought were impossible to reach. Yet it was when Jaune started slapping her ass again that she began to see lights while letting out a moan, a slutty moan that was unbefitting of someone in her position. But it felt so right when Jaune was the one who caused her to release it. And she would not mind letting out some more for him to hear.

"AGAIN!"

SMACK!

"AGAIN!"

SMACK!

"AGAIN!"

SMACK!

"JAUNE!" Glynda shouted, feeling delirious from the pleasure as her eyes crossed while looking up.

Moaning, Jaune continued thrusting into Glynda's ass while occasionally spanking it. And each spank caused her to get tighter, forcing him closer to the edge. Hearing her release another utterly slutty moan, Jaune looked up and saw Glynda with her head thrown back and tongue sticking out. Seeing this and the sweat pouring down her skin, Jaune leaned forward so his chest was on her back. Feeling his weight, Glyda mustered what little control she had remaining to look to her side. She smiled at Jaune, who smiled back before capturing her lips. And she couldn't help but let out another moan when Jaune reached forward and began massaging and groping her breasts.

"MMMMM!" They both moaned in each other's mouths.

They stayed like this for a few moments, with Jaune massaging her breasts, pinching and twisting her nipples, and pounding her ass. Meanwhile, Glynda struggled to remain upright as all the pleasure was overwhelming her senses. After a few more minutes, they separated but could only pant.

"I-I'M CLOSE!" Jaune warned through gritted teeth as he continued fucking his teacher.

"M-ME TOO!" Glynda struggled to get out.

Knowing they were short on time and wanting to try something different, Jaune gave Glynda one final kiss along with a pull of her perky tits. He then moved back while not stopping his thrusting. Jaune then grabbed Glynda by her hips again, causing her to wonder what he was planning on doing. Yet, she got her answer when Jaune, with a surprising amount of strength, pulled her with him as he threw himself so he could lay on the bed with her riding his dick on his lap. And with this new angle, Jaune reached so deep inside of her that Glynda thought he would enter her womb from a different way.

"Y-Y-YES!" Glynda moaned, her face flushed red with pleasure.

Groaning at how incredibly, almost impossibly, tight it felt in this new position, Jaune continued thrusting inside of Glynda's ass as she bounced on his cock. Her magnificent breasts bounced in rhythm with their lovemaking. But soon, Jaune had to take over as Glynda's lust-filled mind could only comprehend breathing as it was lost in a haze of pleasure. Her hands were on Jaune's shoulders in a desperate attempt to remain upright and not collapse. Grabbing her ass, Jaune gave one final slap before lifting her up until only the tip remained inside her before letting go and letting her fall back down on him, taking him to the hilt again.

Feeling like he was about to erupt, Jaune grabbed Glynda's hips again and started thrusting into her as he dropped her onto his cock.

The new sensation and pleasure that came from this caused Glynda's eyes to roll into the back of her head. They continued like this for another ten minutes until they felt they had reached their limits.

"I'M CUMMING!" They both shouted as they came, with Glynda coating Jaune's legs and ballsack with her girl cum as he filled her ass with an unbelievable amount of cum. Once they came down from their high, Glynda removed herself from her lover's cock, allowing a bucket's worth of cum to ooze out of her anal passage and onto Jaune's crotch before lying down on his chest. Moving gently to the side, Jaune cupped Glynda's face and kissed her, causing them to feel bliss and love. After a few seconds, they separated.

"That was amazing." Jaune panted.

"It was. But now, we have to shower. I know you have a few things to do today, but so do I. And I doubt either of us can afford to be late."

"Why, Glynda. Are you suggesting we shower together?" Jaune asked, remembering how he, Kali, and Summer had a similar conversation a while back.

"Are you saying you don't want to?" Glynda asked with a smirk as she played with one of her tits.

Chuckling, Jaune gave her another kiss before they got up and headed to the bathroom to take a much-needed shower... and to make out a bit more along with caressing each other's body.

Twenty Minutes Later

"Alright. I will leave now. Give it a few moments before leaving yourself, Jaune. While we agreed to keep everything professional when in the presence of people who are… not part of our loving group, we cannot afford to have rumors start going around. And seeing the vice-headmistress of Beacon Academy leaving a hotel room with a student in tow will undoubtedly raise some." Glynda said as she finished buttoning up her blouse. But she made sure to go slow for the last few buttons while bending forward to give her new lover another peak of her heavenly pillows.

"Right. That's the last thing any of us need. We might be accepting of it, but others won't be. And I don't want anything to happen to any of you." Jaune said as he zipped up his pants while never taking his eyes off Glynda.

"You really are a gentleman, Jaune. I'm glad we're all in this special relationship with you now." Glynda said before pulling Jaune into a tongue-coiling kiss that lasted a full minute.

"Same." Jaune said, smiling as they separated.

"I'll see you back at Beacon, Mr. Arc." Glynda said as she turned around and headed for the door. But as she did so, she made sure to sway her hips a bit to give Jaune a bit of a show. She then opened the door, stepped out, and gave Jaune a wink before closing the door.

"Wow." Jaune said, feeling himself get semi-hard.

Chuckling, Jaune smiled and wondered how he got so lucky to be in such a loving relationship with eight older women, several of whom just so happened to be related to his friends. But as much as Jaune would like to reminisce about it, he knew he was running low on time since it was already seven. And he still needed to get the supplies and return to the dorm AND start making the food he promised Pyrrha before his team woke up. Getting up, Jaune went around the room and straightened everything out while also using some air freshener to get rid of the smell of sex. Even though Jaune doubted the employees would care who had sex in the room, he did not want to take a chance. After about ten minutes, the room looked almost as it did before he and Glynda made love. Granted, there was a bit of a heavy smell of air freshener, which Jaune hoped wouldn't raise any alarms or suspicions.

"Alright. That should do it. And it should be enough time for me to leave." Jaune said as he looked at himself in the mirror to ensure he looked presentable.

Once satisfied with his look, Jaune headed to the door and gave the room a quick look-over before exiting. Adjusting his hoodie, Jaune turned around and was about to make his way toward the exit but tripped after he took the first step. Shaking his head, he looked down to see what could have caused him to fall. And to his surprise, Jaune saw two bags filled with groceries. Seeing a note on top of one of them, Jaune got up and grabbed it. Looking it over, he realized that it was Summer who had written it. But from how the handles of the bags looked, he knew it was Raven who had brought the supplies here.

'Hey there, my stud blonde knight.

A few little birdies told me that you promised a certain friend of yours that you would make her her favorite foods as a way to apologize for scaring her last time you had some fun with our snow friends. And we knew you probably didn't get them yesterday and won't have time to get them today. So, I decided to gather the supplies and start on some to make it easier and quicker for you. That way, you can finish or nearly finish making it for her and your team before they wake up. I'm sure she would love it since you are a great cook and, as Athena told us, this is her daughter's favorite food. Also, don't forget you have a date with Athena today. And while we're on that topic, why don't you bring Pyrrha along with you? I'm sure they would love to see each other again since they've been apart for a while now. I know the others said to bring them together after you two had your time together, but I think this way is better. And who knows, something else more enjoyable might come from it. Either way, take care, my blond knight.

P.S. Don't forget either. I will be coming to Vale this week to spend time with my precious daughters. First, it will be Ruby, then Yang, and then both. But afterward, and possibly during, I would like to spend time with you. After all, this maiden still has some needs that only you can fulfill if you catch my meaning.'

"I should find a way to repay Summe outside of our usual rumps. And she's right. I should bring Pyrrha along with me. She hadn't seen her mother since a month before Beacon began. It would be a nice present for the both of them." Jaune said. However, he nearly had a panic attack when he took out his scroll and saw that it was quickly approaching eight. "SHIT!"

Grabbing the bags, Jaune raced out of the hotel and back to the bullheads, hoping he would make it back in time before his team woke up.

One Hour Later

"MMMMHHHHMM!" Pyrrha yawned as she woke up. Sitting up, she lifted her arms and stretched, feeling relief when she heard a satisfying pop. Rubbing her eyes, she looked around the room and noticed that her teammates/friends were also getting up. However, she briefly became worried when she didn't see Jaune in his bed. But she then remembered that he texted them last night that he would be returning today. 'I just hope he is safe and one day will tell me where he is going and stop being so secretive.'

"Morning, everyone." Nora said as she got up and stretched.

"Morning." Pyrrha said as she got up and began to make her bed.

"Do we have anything planned today?"

"No. We don't have anything planned for today. Well, for us as a team, anyway. I'm not sure about the personal matters." Ren answered.

"Nothing really for me. I might buy some more grenades and finish an assignment for Professor Peach, but that's about it." Nora answered.

"I might meditate for a bit and then finish Glynda's assignment. What about you, Pyrrha?"

"I'm expecting a call from my mom later. It will be the first time we've been able to communicate in a while, so I'm looking forward to it. After that, I might hang out with Jaune and possibly train a bit. But speaking of which, have you two gotten any other messages from him?" Pyrrha asked.

"Nope." Nora answered.

"No. But he should be here soon." Ren answered after checking his scroll.

"Hopefully, everything is okay. But why was he out the whole night again?"

"He had to meet up with his family for something."

"Again, hopefully, nothing bad happened."

"Hopefully." Ren said, slightly worried for his leader and friend. While he knew what Jaune did last night, he still did not know with whom. They were essentially flying in blind, with only Jaune's other lovers knowing who he was meeting. And the person might have had a grudge or something against him. 'Hopefully, that's not the case.'

"Should we get something ready for Jaune? You know, in case he comes back late and misses-" Nora began before stopping when she and Ren noticed Pyrrha sniffing the air. "Is everything alright, Pyrrha?"

"Did something-" Ren began, now worried as Pyrrha kept sniffing the air. However, he stopped when the scent finally hit him and Nora.

"OOH! What's that delicious smell?" Nora asked, now feeling hungry because of it.

"It's Honey cake with orange and pistachios and tyrokafteri and freshly baked pita bread. My favorites." Pyrrha answered, closing her eyes as she took a big whiff of the scent while smiling.

"I didn't know the cafeteria made those kinds of food." Nora said, surprised.

"I doubt the Beacon chefs are making that, Nora." Ren said.

"Maybe Team Rwby, then?"

"No. I doubt they're making it either."

"Then who could-"

"Oh. You guys are up." Jaune said, surprising them as he exited the tiny kitchen area of their dorm.

"Oh, hey, Jaune. You're back." Ren said, smiling and relieved his friend was fine.

"Yes. I'm-" Jaune began, but Pyrrha cut him off when she lunged at him and pulled him into a hug.

"JAUNE! YOU'RE BACK!" Pyrrha shouted, relieved.

"Yes. Pyrrha, I'm back." Jaune laughed, wondering if this would become a normal thing every time he returned from one of his dates.

"Are you okay, Jaune? What was the family emergency about?"

"I'm alright. And it was nothing major. It was just that some of the bunkers near where I live had a water main pipe burst. And because of its location, we had to move a lot of things to another location, including some of our stuff. But everything should be back to normal in about a week."

"That's good."

"When did you get back, Jaune?" Ren asked.

"And are you the one cooking?" Nora asked.

"I got back roughly forty minutes ago. And yes, Nora. I'm making the food I promised Pyrrha yesterday. And yes. I made enough for everyone. Honestly, I think I made a bit too much." Jaune answered while glancing back at the kitchen. The table was almost overflowing with food. He was pretty sure he made enough to last them the whole day with some still left over. "Anyway. Let's eat."

"YES!" Pyrrha shouted, causing everyone to chuckle as she dragged Jaune into the kitchen. And despite it being relatively small, they were able to be in there comfortably. Once they sat down, they grabbed a small portion of each before digging in. "Thanks, Jaune."

"You're welcome, Pyr." Jaune said, smiling as he saw some of the food on Pyrrha's face. It really showed the others just how much she loved the food.

"Thanks, Jaune." Ren and Nora said.

"You're welcome."

"Oh. Do you have anything planned for today, Jaune?" Nora asked.

"Yes. I'm going out in a bit. But that reminds me." Jaune said, cleaning his mouth with a napkin before turning to Pyrrha. Yet, he let out a chuckle at seeing how messy Pyrrha's face was as she ate with almost child-like glee. It honestly warmed his heart to see his partner this happy and carefree. It was a stark contrast to how she was at the beginning of the year, constantly stressed out and worried about what others thought. Taking his napkin, he leaned to her and cleaned her face of tyrokafteri.

"Thanks." Pyrrha said, blushing, as Ren and Nora smiled at the scene.

"Any time." Jaune said as he put down the napkin. "Oh. Pyrrha."

"Yes, Jaune?"

"Do you have anything planned today?"

'Is he going to ask me out on a date?' Pyrrha wondered and hoped. "Aside from waiting on a call from my mother, no. I was hoping we could spend the day together."

"What time are you expecting the call?"

"Around one or so. Why?"

"Well, I can't tell you since it's a surprise. But it does involve you."

"Really?"

"Yup."

"Can you tell me anything about it?"

"Not much outside of that it is in Vale. Don't worry. I know you will like it. And I promise you that we will be back in time for your phone call with your mom."

"Alright. I trust you, Jaune." Pyrrha said before taking another bite of her food. "When do we leave?"

"I would say in about an hour. That way, we can let the food settle a bit."

"Alright. But don't forget to take your motion sickness pills before we get on the bullhead, Jaune."

"Don't worry, Pyr. I won't forget."

"Sure you won't." Pyrrha said, rolling her eyes. Yet her smile never left her face, even as she made a mental note to grab Jaune's motion sickness pills.

"What are the chances you think this is a date?" Nora whispered to Ren.

"I'm not sure." Ren answered. 'But hopefully soon. I just hope Pyrrha doesn't freak out when she discovers Jaune's secret.'

"But hopefully soon. I'm getting tired of seeing them care so much for each other yet never asking the other out."

"Same."

An Hour and a Half Later

"Alright. We're nearly there." Jaune said as he carefully guided a blindfolded Pyrrha to their destination.

After they had finished eating breakfast, they cleaned up and started getting ready for the day. Jaune grabbed some fresh clothes and took an actual shower while Pyrrha got ready and talked with Nora about something. After that, they rested a bit before heading to the bullheads. And, just as Pyrrha had predicted, jaune had forgotten to take his pills. Luckily, she brought some with her. It was times like this that Jaune was grateful to have a partner and friend as great as her. Yet, it was when they landed that Jaune showed how much he cared for when he gave Pyrrha a hat, a scarf, and some shades so she wouldn't be recognized.

"Alright." Pyrrha said as she carefully continued forward, trying not to trip or accidentally bump into someone. Thankfully, from what she could hear, there weren't that many people around. But that could be due to it being a Saturday . 'I wonder where he is taking me.'

'There she is.' Jaune thought once he saw Athena sitting on a nearby bench. But he became slightly confused when he noticed a few suitcases instead of one. And he became even more so when some employees took them from her. However, Jaune figured he could ask her in a bit or later. "Okay. We're here."

"Can I take off the blindfold now?" Pyrrha asked. Looking back over, Jaune saw that Athena had finally spotted them and had gasped at seeing her daughter.

"Yes. Let me help you." Reaching up, Jaune removed the blindfold while being careful not to mess up Pyrrha's hair or her disguise. And once she could see again, Pyrrha let out a gasp as her eyes teared up.

"MOM!" Pyrrha shouted.

"SWEETY!" Athena shouted as they raced toward each other and embraced each other in a tight hug.

'That's a nice sight.' Jaune thought before going over to a nearby seat. 'I should give them a moment.'

"MOM! IT'S SO GOOD TO SEE YOU AGAIN!" Pyrrha said, tears streaming down her face.

"IT'S SO GOOD TO SEE MY DAUGHTER AGAIN AND HOLD HER IN MY ARMS! I MISSED YOU!"

"I MISSED YOU TOO!" Pyrrha said as they separated.

"Oh, how much have you grown, dear."

"Really?"

"Yes. You're growing into a fine young woman. Why, I would dare say you are almost ready for marriage."

"MOM!" Pyrrha shouted, embarrassed.

"Oh, I'm just teasing, sweetheart. I haven't been able to do so in so long, so you bet your bottom lien I'm doing so now. But still. You're growing into a fine woman. How has Beacon been treating you?"

"It's been great. I finally managed to make some good, quality friends." Pyrrha said while debating whether or not she should tell her mother about her crush on Jaune.

"That's great, dear. I'm so glad that you made some friends and not those fake ones the sponsors tried to set you up with."

"Thanks, mom. How has everything been on your end?"

"A bit lonely recently since I haven't been able to talk with you or some friends." Athena said, deciding not to reveal yet that she was in a relationship with the person her daughter was crushing on. While she didn't know everything about her daughter's life at Beacon because they were unable to talk with each other, Athena learned quite a bit from her friends. And she learned at one point that her daughter was crushing badly on her leader, who just so happened to be their lover. Looking to her right, Athena saw Jaune sitting on a nearby bench, waiting for them to finish. 'Maybe later today, we can bring it up. And maybe she can even join us. Yes, it's unconventional, given everything. But I doubt she would care since Mistral is pretty old-fashioned in a lot of things. Plus, from what the others told me, I know they both have some feelings for each other. They just need a little push.'

"I know. I wanted to visit you, but my damn sponsors keep messing things up. I swear, they somehow know what I want to do and when, and they decide to arrange something on THAT SPECIFIC DATE! " Pyrrha shouted, annoyed.

"They somehow do those parasites. Ugh. I planned on visiting earlier twice, but they purposely arranged meetings and deals on those days."

"I honestly hate them sometimes."

"Me too, deary." Athena said, smiling as they hugged once more. "But enough of them. This day is about us. And maybe something special later on."

"Something special? What do you mean by that?" Pyrrha asked, curious and confused.

"Don't worry about it, Pyr. I will tell you later. But I'm sure you will enjoy it."

"Alright. So, what do you want to do today?"

"A few things. But first, why don't you introduce me to the blonde boy you came with."

"Blonde bo... Oh. You mean Jaune. Yes. Where is he?" Pyrrha asked, looking around for a moment before spotting him nearby. "Yes. His name is Jaune. He's my team's leader and partner."

"Partner? As in special partner?" Athena asked with a mischievous smirk.

"MOM!" Pyrrha asked, blushing. Yet, Pyrrha hoped it would reach that point soon.

"Oh, I'm teasing, dear. But is he nice? And has he been treating you with respect?"

"Of course, Mom. He's one of the best people I have met. In fact, he's the one who finally helped me break out of my shell and bridge the gap between the other two members of our team. He's such a great partner and friend. I'm glad to have been paired with him."

"That's great, Pyr." Athena said, smiling as they walked over to Jaune. But in the back of her mind, she was looking forward to the more intimate encounter later today. And possibly find a way to repay him for helping her daughter. "Hello."

"Oh, hello." Jaune said, feigning ignorance. "Who are you?"

"I am Athena Nikos." Athena said. "And you are?"

"My name is Jaune Arc." Jaune said as he stood up.

"Wait a minute." Pyrrha said, as she just realized something. "This was the surprise, wasn't it, Jaune?"

"Yep."

"H-How did you know my mother was visiting, Jaune?"

"To keep it short. We met once before, albeit only briefly. And I guess that was enough for one of Athena's friends to contact me and tell me that she was visiting today. They wanted me to keep it a surprise and bring you here." Jaune lied.

"Well, it was a pleasant surprise. I'll have to thank them later." Athena said.

"It was a pleasant surprise. But still, I would have preferred a little heads-up." Pyrrha said.

"Then it wouldn't have been a surprise, dear."

"True. Anyway. Thanks, Jaune. But what will you be doing now?" Pyrrha asked, curious, as she wondered what she could do to spend the day with her mother. Yet, she also wondered if they could invite Jaune.

"Well-"

"How about he joins us, dear." Athena interjected.

"What?" Pyrrha asked, surprised.

"Yes. You said he's your team's leader and partner. And he's the one who helped you so much. Naturally, I would like to get to know the person who's had such a big impact on my daughter's life, especially in more ways than one." Athena explained while mentally wondering if Jaune would be up for having a child in the near future. As much as she didn't want to admit it, Athena knew her nest would soon become empty as her daughter was almost fully grown now. And even though she knew her daughter would most likely get together with their lover, Athena wouldn't mind raising another child. She wouldn't even mind helping raise her grandchildren when the time came. "Plus, he can share some of the stories about your time in Beacon, especially the more embarrassing ones."

"MOM!"

"I would love to join you guys. And I have tons of stories of our time at Beacon." Jaune said with a smirk, causing Pyrrha to roll her eyes and chuckle. Even though she was not looking forward to being embarrassed, she knew she would still enjoy spending time with her crush.

'And maybe I can even confess my feelings for him later. And perhaps my mom could help.' Pyrrha thought, hoping she could finally get together with Jaune.

"Excellent." Athena said while pulling Jaune closer to them. But despite wanting to feel him hug her more intimately, Athena knew she had to resist so as not to draw suspicion from her daughter. At least, not yet, anyway.

"Are you sure you're alright with this, Pyrrha?" Jaune asked. Even though he was supposed to go on a date with Athena today, he knew family times were always more important. And he knew how much both Nikos women missed each other and didn't want to get in the way.

"It's fine, Jaune. I don't mind. Besides, I've been wanting to spend some more time with you outside of our training sessions. Plus, I think it was time you met my mother." Pyrrha answered.

"Alright. So long as I'm not intruding on your time with her."

"Oh, don't be silly, dear. You're not intruding on anything." Athena assured.

"Okay then." Jaune said, smiling.

"So what should we do first?"

"I'm not sure. It is Saturday and only eleven in the morning. So, there's plenty of things to do. I'm just not sure where we should begin." Pyrrha answered.

"Jaune. Any ideas?" Athena asked.

"Nothing is really coming to my mind at the moment." Jaune said as he racked his head for something they could all enjoy. But then he remembered something he saw advertised not long ago. Yet, he wasn't sure if the others would be interested. "But there is the play that is happening not too far from here."

"A play?" Pyrrha asked, surprised.

"What kind of play?" Athena asked, curious.

"A live performance play." Jaune answered.

"I didn't know they did live performance plays here in Vale."

"Not usually. At least in this part of Vale, anyway. But a theater opened up a few months ago."

"I'm not the biggest fan of plays. But it has been a while since I've seen one." Pyrrha said.

"Oh, don't give me that, dear. You loved plays. It was one of the few things you did outside of training when you were younger." Athena said, smiling as she recalled Pyrrha asking/begging to take her to see multiple different plays.

'I should keep that in mind. It would be a nice way for Pyrrha and me to spend time together whenever we get a chance.' Jaune thought.

"Do you know which one is playing and what time it starts?"

"It's called Perseus and Medusa. And it should start in about forty-five minutes." Jaune said after checking the time on his scroll.

"Oh. Perseus and Medusa. That was your favorite story growing up, dear."

"It sure was." Pyrrha said.

"So, you two want to see it?" Jaune asked.

"Sure." They answered.

"Alright then. Let's go."

Half an Hour Later

'The benefits of having an older sister who's a well-known director.' Jaune thought as he, Athena, and Pyrrha headed toward their seats after getting their snacks and drinks. Despite only opening relatively recently, the play was nearly sold out, with the remaining tickets being ridiculously expensive. Thankfully, Jaune's older sister managed to come through for them and get them a discount. Not only that, but she got them a discount on some of the VIP seats.

"So, what are our seats again?" Pyrrha asked.

"Seats C12, C13, and C14."

"Oh. The VIP seats. Perhaps we could consider this a date." Athena said, smiling as she grabbed Jaune's hand, which he returned with a light squeeze. "Or maybe a date between you and my daughter."

"Mom." Pyrrha whispered, slightly embarrassed. But secretly, she wished/hoped they could consider this a date afterward.

"I'm just teasing, dear." Athena said as she snuck a kiss with Jaune. Thankfully, Pyrrha was looking away when she did.

Chuckling, they continued heading to their seats. Luckily, they weren't too hard to find. And for some reason, Jaune found himself sitting in the center of the seats. But the reason became apparent when the lights dimmed, and Athena laid her head against his shoulder while grabbing his hand. However, Jaune tensed up momentarily when Pyrrha did the same. Yet, he relaxed a moment later as it felt nice and right for some reason.

'I just hope we can remain good friends after she learns that I'm dating her mother along with seven other women.' Jaune hoped as both women cuddled into him, unaware the other was doing the same thing. 'I'm also glad that Athena isn't as frisky or as daring as some of the others. I don't think we would have been able to keep it a secret otherwise.'

"Ladies and gentlemen. Please silence your electronics and put away everything else. The play is about to begin." The announcer said.

Two Hours Later

"Now, that was a nice play." Jaune said as they exited the theater.

"It was." Athena agreed. "So, now what?"

"How about we go to the beach?" Pyrrha suggested, surprising the others.

"Uh. Are you sure, Pyr?" Jaune asked, worried that she might get spotted. The last thing he wanted to happen was for journalists to come and ruin their time and spread rumors.

"I'm sure, Jaune. And we're not going to our usual spot."

"We're not?"

"Nope. Yang told me of a special spot we could use if we wanted some privacy. Hardly anyone goes there, and there's lots of cover."

"It is a nice day to spend some time at the beach." Athena said while looking forward to getting a tan and exciting her lover a bit with her new swimsuit. Even though getting to see her lover and daughter today and spending the day with them was a pleasant surprise, she had planned on visiting the beach regardless. Luckily, she had her swimsuit on her. 'And maybe I could get a slightly more revealing swimsuit for Pyrrha so she could entire Jaune a bit more before tonight.'

"True." Jaune said, sighing as he relented. "Alright. We can head to the beach. We just have to be careful. And we should head to a shop beforehand to get some supplies and some swimwear."

"Yes. Let's go." Pyrrha shouted as she led her mother and Jaune to the spot.

Forty Minutes Later

'Whether with my sisters, my lovers, or my friends, why am I always the pack mule!?' Jaune thought as he carried a near-obscene amount of supplies all by himself. 'But if it makes the others happy and everyone's time better, then who am I to complain?'

Setting the stuff down, Jaune began to unpack everything they would need for the short time here. After about ten minutes, he had finished setting everything up. Breathing out, Jaune grabbed the skin-tight swim trucks that they had brought. Typically, he would have gotten something a bit looser. But for some reason, Athena insisted he wore something skin-tight and nothing on top. Initially, he was about to protest, but seeing Athena's face wore him down. Although, he was confused about why she occasionally glanced at Pyrrha, who was blushing up a storm.

'A bit too tight in the crotch. At least I'm with Athena and not Willow, Winter, or some of the others. There's no way I would be able to hide an erection in this.' Jaune thought as he headed back to their spot. But once he arrived, he felt his face heat up at what he saw.

"There you are, Jaune." Athena said as she walked up to him and guided him back to their spot as she wore a modest bikini set. And despite it being modest, it did highlight her curves, which would make most do a double-take. "I knew it was a good idea to make you wear this. It really does suit you."

"Thanks. And so does yours." Jaune said. "Oh. Where's Pyrrha?"

"Here I am, Jaune." Pyrrha said, getting his attention.

Turning to where it came from, Jaune blushed a bit more at seeing his partner wearing a red keyhole bikini with her crest on the right breast of the bikini top. While not the most revealing and relatively modest when compared to other types, it did nearly cause Jaune to have a nosebleed while the remainder of his blood rushed downstairs. As for Pyrrha, she was admiring her leader shirtless, allowing her to see the abs that were slowly forming on him as a result of their training.

"You look nice, Jaune." Pyrrha said.

"So do you, Pyrrha." Jaune said.

"Well." Athena said, clapping her hands and smiling at the sight. She honestly felt like only a bit more of a nudge and her daughter would jump the poor boy. And if she were being honest with herself, Athena was close as well due to seeing him half naked. But unlike the others, she would wait until they were in a private location. "Now that we're here. Let's enjoy the day."

"Right." The two teens said, snapping out of it.

Grabbing Pyrrha's hand, both teens were about to race to the water while Athena returned to her chair with the intent of catching some sleep. However, that went out the window when Pyrrha and Jaune grabbed her hands and pulled her to enjoy the warm water with them. While Athena knew some of the others, especially Raven, would have hated this, she simply laughed and smiled as they reached the water. Finally, spending time with her lover and daughter felt so nice, refreshing, and freeing from the cold prison of loneliness. And she knew, after today, the dreadful feeling would never return.

'I should probably tell Jaune and my daughter the surprise another time.' Athena thought before getting splashed with some water.

Ninety Minutes Later

"Now that was fun." Pyrrha said as they returned their rentals.

"It sure was, dear." Athena agreed before leaning in close to Jaune. "And I take you enjoyed what we did."

"It was fun." Jaune blushed. While typically the more modest of the lovers, even Athena sometimes made some daring moves. And this time, whenever her daughter was distracted or wasn't looking, she would purposely rub herself against Jaune in a provocative way that certainly got her a delightful reaction each time.

"What should we do now?" Pyrrha asked.

"Well, seeing as it is late, how about we go get something to eat?" Athena said with a smile that Jaune knew all too well. However, he didn't think too much of it since Pyrrha was with them, and he did not doubt that she would want to sleep in the same room as her mother.

"Sure. I'm getting a little peckish." Jaune said.

"Same." Pyrrha said.

"Any ideas on where we could get a light snack?" Athena asked.

"Well, there is this new cafe called Northwind Caffe. It's not too far from here, and while they have decent snacks, they have some good coffee."

"Ooh. Some coffee sounds good right now."

"Alright then. Let's go."

Cafe

"And that was how Pyrrha and I miraculously managed to avoid getting detention. But we had to lay low for a while." Jaune said as he finished retelling the story of how he and Pyrrha only narrowly avoided getting detention with Ms. Goodwitch after an incident left a classroom destroyed. But as he did so, he wondered how his new relationship with Glynda would affect their relationship as teacher and student. 'It would probably remain the same with only a bit more leniency.'

"Count yourself lucky, dear. I heard that Ms. Goodwitch's detentions are harsh. But I'm glad you're having fun at Beacon with your new friends." Athena said before taking a sip of her coffee. However, she had yet to stop rubbing Jaune's thigh since they got to the cafe. And instead of sitting next to her daughter, Athena had sat beside Jaune, albeit a bit too close, which caused Pyrrha to raise an eyebrow while Jaune blushed but said nothing.

"Thanks, Mom." Pyrrha said, relieved that Jaune hadn't told her mom any embarrassing stories. But she still wondered why her mom was so close to Jaune and was almost leaning into him. "Anyway. I had fun spending time with you today."

"Me too, dear." Athena said, smiling.

"So, after this, what next?"

"Well, actually. It's time to head to the hotel. There's something I need to show you. And it involves your crush on Jaune as well." At this, Pyrrha gasped while Jaune's eyes went wide. He was fully aware of what Athena wanted to talk about. But he was not expecting to hear that his partner had a crush on him. However, that immediately raised a question for him.

'Do I like Pyrrha like that?' Jaune wondered.

"I-it does." Pyrrha stuttered before looking down while playing with her fingers. "How did you know?"

"Oh, dear. It's nothing to be ashamed of. It's a wonderful feeling of falling in love. But to answer your question. A mother always knows." Athena answered with a gentle smile that eased some of Pyrrha's worries. She then looked over at her crush and noticed he seemed to be in deep thought.

"Alright. So, shall we get going to the hotel?"

"Yes. It's late. But don't worry. Nothing bad is going to happen. In fact, I'm pretty sure that by the end of it, you're going to love it." Athena answered.

"Okay." Getting up, they all paid for their food and drinks before leaving after tossing out their trash. But, as they made their way to the hotel, Jaune had yet to say a word as his mind raced a million miles a second. Taking a chance, Pyrrha reached out and grabbed his hand. This caused Jaune to snap back to focus. Looking over to Pyrrha, he smiled before gently squeezing her hand. Yet, despite this, she still wondered what they were going to talk about and why her mother seemed a bit too friendly toward Jaune as they had their food.

'I wonder what's going on and what my mom wants to tell me.' Pyrrha thought.

Hotel

"And that's how it is." Athena said as she finished telling her daughter about how she was in a relationship with Jaune. And how Jaune was also in a relationship with several other women.

"I-I... wow." Pyrrha said as she processed everything.

"I know it's a lot, dear. It really is a lot to take in." Athena said while glancing over to Jaune, who was sitting on a nearby chair. He had been silent since they had started making their way here. And it was only a few moments ago that he started smiling again at her and Pyrrha.

"It is a lot. I wasn't expecting to hear something like this today or this soon." Pyrrha said, confusing Athena and Jaune for a moment. But they shrugged it off. Meanwhile, Pyrrha felt conflicted on a couple of different levels. On the one hand, she was happy that her mother had also made some friends and was in a relationship. It was certainly better than being alone in their stuffy old house. But on the other hand, she was in a polyamorous relationship with her crush and several other women. It wasn't even the fact that it was her leader that was shocking. It was the fact that six of the other women were the mothers of their friends, with the last one being their teacher. "I already know the answer to this question since I know how Jaune is; I just want to make sure. But is it a loving relationship?"

"Oh yes, dear. It is a very loving and happy relationship. There's not a single day where we are not loved and don't love Jaune back. We are all happy." Athena answered as she sat beside Pyrrha on the bed and pulled her into a hug. "In fact, let me tell you something about how loving it is."

"What is it?"

"Jaune once told us how he would drop everything, even skip Ms. Goodwitch's class, to come to help us if any of us ever got hurt or sick. And he nearly did a few times."

"Of course, he would say and do that." Pyrrha chuckled as she looked at Jaune, who smiled at her. "I remember him getting ready to go to this convention he's been wanting to attend for a while. Yet, he dropped it without a second thought to help take care of one of our friends when she got sick."

"He is a very caring and loving person. And we are all happy to be in a relationship with him."

"I can tell. While we were eating, you seemed to be having trouble keeping yourself from lying on Jaune's shoulder. And honestly, I'm not too surprised. Anybody would be lucky to be in a relationship with him." Pyrrha said, smiling. "But."

"But you're wondering where you fit in all this." Athena said.

"Kind of." Pyrrha answered.

"Not what I was expecting to hear. Either way. I believe Jaune has something to tell you."

"Pyrrha." Jaune said as he moved to sit on the other side of her. She smiled and grabbed his hand, which he gently squeezed.

"Yes, Jaune?" Pyrrha asked.

"Is what your mom said true? That you have feelings for me?" Pyrrha breathed out before answering.

"Yes, I do, Jaune. I don't know when it started, but I have had a crush on you for a long time. And, while it might be a bit early to say this definitively, I do believe I love you with all my heart, Jaune." Pyrrha answered, causing Jaune and Athena to smile. "But I feel like the question now is, do you love me."

"It certainly caught me off guard when your mother said that you had feelings for me, Pyr." Jaune said, placing his hands on Pyrrha's shoulders, causing her heart rate to increase. "But after thinking long and hard about it. I do. I do have feelings for you, Pyr. I honestly don't know how I haven't realized it. But I have also fallen for you, Pyrrha Nikos."

"J-jaune." Pyrrha said, overjoyed that her feelings were returned. Then, in a move she was not expecting, Jaune leaned in and kissed her on the lips, causing her eyes to flutter close as she enjoyed it. After a moment, they separated, leaving Pyrrha to let out a content sigh. However, if things were going to go how she hoped, then she would definitely be letting out a lot more vocal responses. And if what she saw earlier at the beach was true, Pyrrha knew no one in the entire hotel would be getting any sleep tonight.

"I take it you have been wanting to experience that for a while, dear." Athena said as she moved to be next to Jaune and pulled him into a kiss.

"Oh, yes. For a long time."

"But the big question is this, Pyrrha. Are you willing to be in a polyamorous relationship with me and the others, one of which is your own mother?" Jaune asked.

"Yes. Oh, Brothers Above, yes." Pyrrha immediately answered, surprising Jaune. And before he could say anything, Pyrhha grabbed him by the front of his shirt and smashed their lips together in a steamy kiss. To say that Jaune and Athena were shocked would be an understatement. As the kiss continued, Jaune felt the shock wear off. Yet, it returned full force when Pyrrha shoved her tongue into his mouth and instantly dominated his tongue. After a few moments, they separated, with Jaune having a shocked face while Pyrrha's was full of bliss.

"Uh, wow. I wasn't expecting that, but I'm not complaining. And I wasn't expecting such a quick answer considering... well... everything." Jaune said.

"It is strange even by Mistral standards. I doubt this kind of polyamorous relationship has happened before or will happen again. But honestly, I wasn't too shocked by this."

"You weren't?" Jaune asked, raising an eyebrow.

"Nope. Honestly, the most shocking part of this was learning that my mother and the mothers of our friends were a part of it. But it's not that surprising otherwise, as you have such a pure heart and charms that can sweep any lady off her feet, Jaune. So, it didn't come off as groundbreaking that you ended up in what is essentially a harem, but with a lot of love between everyone." Pyrrha explained. "But I know you, Jaune. Before my mother even said it, I knew you treat them all equally and make them really happy. So, I don't have anything to worry about in that regard. I just wanted confirmation. And I know we can make it work out since we love each other."

"Thanks, Pyrrha." Jaune said, smiling. "But I'm also surprised you didn't bat an eye at the fact that I'm in a polyamorous relationship and are okay with it. I'm pretty sure others would have been shocked or appalled at the idea of it."

"Again, Jaune. I know who you are. So I'm not surprised or worried about anything. And I wasn't kidding when I compared it to Mistral standards. Mistral has a lot more lax views on sexual/relationship taboos."

"She's right, Jaune. It's not that uncommon to see people with multiple partners at one time, along with other types of relationships. Granted, they were never to this scale. It's typically at most two or three." Athena added.

"Well, that's good to know." Jaune said. "Anway. Uh. Welcome to the group, Pyrrha. I'm not sure if that is the correct way to say it."

"Probably not. Either way, thanks, Jaune." Pyrrha said, moving to lean into him. Smiling, Jaune wrapped his arm around her and pulled her in close while doing the same to Athena, who moved to sit on his other side.

"You're welcome, Pyrrha."

"I'm so glad we're all in a relationship together." Athena said, with the others nodding. They stayed like that for about ten minutes, just enjoying being together. However, that changed when Jaune let out a groan when he felt a hand rub his crotch.

But it did not belong to Athena.

"P-Pyrhha." Jaune stuttered, groaning.

"MMMHHHH. I can't wait to see your other sword, Jaune. I can tell it is quite gifted." Pyrrha said, licking her lips.

"Oh, gifted is exactly the right word, dear. It's so much more than that. And he can go for quite a while, too. Jaune can easily leave us all satisfied in one afternoon and still have a few rounds left in him for any one of us who could still stand." Athena said, remembering the times she could barely walk after Jaune had screwed her senseless. As she said this, she moved her hand beside her daughter's hand and helped stimulate their lover's cock.

"If what you say is true, then I can safely say he will never leave us unsatisfied."

"Nope. We are all very satisfied every time. You should see some of the other's faces when Jaune is done screwing their brains out."

"W-wait." Jaune groaned.

"What is it, Jaune?" Athena seductively whispered in his ear.

"A-are you sure you want to-?" Jaune began to ask, but Pyrrha cut him off with another raunchy kiss as she pressed her breasts against his arm, causing him to groan in pain and pleasure as his cock pressed tightly against his pants.

"Oh, yes, Jaune. You have no idea how long I have been wanting to confess my feelings for you. But you also have no idea how long I have been wanting you to..." Pyrrha began before leaning in to whisper into his ears. "...ravish me into submission and have me scream my lungs out."

"Oh." Jaune said, feeling his cock become painfully erect when Pyrrha said that followed by licking and biting his ear.

"Then we shouldn't keep either of you waiting." Athena said before leaning and kissing her daughter on the lips, surprising her and greatly arousing Jaune. But the shock only lasted a minute as Pyrrha soon kissed her mother back. And even though Jaune couldn't see it, he knew there was a lot of tongue play going on as they moaned into each other's mouths. Jaune was grateful his pants were of great quality; otherwise, he was positive his cock would have broken through from how erect it was. After a few seconds, they separated. "And don't worry, dear. I'll show you all the ropes of how to please our man. And soon, in no time, you will be able to get him all pent up and ready."

"Oh, you don't have to worry about that, mom. Hundreds of hours of unrestricted internet access and private time have left me as an excellent theoretician. I know what I'm doing and how I want it." Pyrrha confidently said with a smirk.

"That's my daughter. Always studying and preparing for what really matters." Athena said, proud of her daughter. "But enough stalling. Our award and treat awaits us."

"Right."

Leaning in, both mother and daughter shared a kiss with their lover before standing up while ensuring he stayed put. They then gave him a wink before slowly undoing their clothing. Pyrrha started by removing her tiara and her gloves. She then reached behind to loosen the strings of her corset. But rather than letting it fall, she kept it mostly up so it would only give Jaune a tease of what was to come.

Pyrrha then undid her skirt, letting her fall to the floor to reveal her smooth, toned legs. And it also revealed to Jaune that Pyrrha was wearing red, nearly see-through panties that were soaked in her juices. Finally, with a wink, Pyrrha let her corset fall to the fall with a light thud, allowing Jaune to see Mistral's four-time champion's perfect C-cup breasts. Her see-through bra allowed him to see her rock-hard nipples.

Meanwhile, Athena had removed her sweater. While it wasn't that cold, she was more accustomed to the temperature in Mistral. And the night air made it chillier. With the outer layer off, Athena removed her boots and gloves before unbuttoning her button-up shirt. Once done, she removed it to reveal that she had worn chest bindings. Blushing, she undid her panel skirt and let it fall to the floor, revealing that she had brazenly decided to go commando. Athena then reached behind her and undid her chest bindings, allowing her magnificent Double D breasts to spring forward and bounce enticingly.

"Like what you see, Jaune?" Athena asked with a light blush on her face as she took off her shoes and socks.

"Yeah." Jaune said, almost hypnotized by the two naked Nikos women in front of him.

"Well. I like what I see." Pyrrha said, licking her lips as her eyes remained glued on the tent Jaune was pitching.

"And it's even better when it's not hidden away by so many clothes." Athena said as she kneeled in front of Jaune. "Let's do this together, dear."

"Right." Pyrrha said as she kneeled next to her mother.

"Ready?"

"Ready." Pyrrha said as they hooked their fingers into Jaune's pants after unbuckling his belts.

"Three."

"Two."

"One."

"NOW!" They said as they pulled down Jaune's pants along with his underwear to reveal his hard as steel, ten-inch cock that was nearly wrist thick.

"OH MY!" Pyrrha gasped, her mouth watering a bit. She knew Jaune was big down there when she saw him shifting a bit earlier at the beach, allowing her to see an outline of it. Yet, seeing it like this blew her expectations out of the water. It was far bigger and thicker than any of the dildos she had brought in secret to prepare herself for this moment.

"Oh, I missed this." Athena said, inhaling her lover's musk.

Leaning forward, Athena peppered Jaune's cock with kisses. She then reached forward, grabbed the base of it, and dragged her tongue from the bottom to the top, where she gave the head a gentle suckle. The result was Jaune moaning as he bucked up a bit into her mouth as precum left his dick. Athena lapped it up, loving the taste and tingling sensation it gave her. She then gave his cock a few sloppy kisses as she slowly moved down to his ball sack.

However, Athena was practically forced down to her lover's ballsack when Pyrrha lunged forward. She grabbed Jaune's shaft and began rapidly pumping it up and down the top part of it as she slowly dragged her tongue up and down the rest. Jaune groaned at the immense pleasure his partner was giving him. It astounded him how well she was servicing his cock with her tongue. And Jaune couldn't help but close his eyes when Pyrrha began sloppily kissing and slurping all over his shaft as her hand kept pumping it.

As for Pyrrha, she couldn't help but moan at her lover's cock's taste. His taste, his musky scent, the feeling of him becoming putting as he let pleasurable moans. It was everything she had dreamed about and more so. Closing her eyes, Pyrrha relished the salty taste of Jaune's breeding pole, imagining it filling her up with enough warm cum that would guarantee her that she would get pregnant. The thought of her lover breeding her like a common whore combined with his musky scent, sent her ovaries into overdrive as her juices leaked out of her sopping cunt and onto the floor.

Meanwhile, Athena smiled at the sight of her daughter happily worshiping the cock of her crush/lover. Leaning back down, she took another deep breath of Jaune's scent before bringing up her hand to massage the balls that held the sperm that would allow her to raise even more children. Grabbing one of them, she gave it a gentle lick before stuffing it into her mouth and coating it with her saliva. Moaning at her man's taste, Athena began swirling her tongue around it while gently massaging the other with her dainty hand.

"Oh, Athena. Pyrrha." Jaune groaned from above. He then placed his hands on both Nikos' heads and gently ran his fingers through their silky red hair, earning a pleased hum from both of them.

Glancing at her daughter, Athena internally smirked at the idea that formed in her head. Giving his ball sack one last squeeze, Athena removed Jaune's ball from her mouth before leaning to the side and started fingering her daughter's leaking pussy. The sudden sensation caused Pyrrha to jump slightly before settling down and redoubling her efforts. As she did this, she began bouncing on her mother's fingers while she thrusted them into her, causing her heavenly orbs to bounce up and down, catching Jaune's attention and making him get harder.

Seeing precum forming at the tip, Athena kissed her lover's balls once more before raising and licking clean the tip, all the while never stopping fingering her daughter. Groaning at the taste she has long since come to love, Athena moaned before suckling the tip like a tasty lollipop. She gently sucked it for a few moments before taking more into her mouth. Feeling this and not wanting to be outdone, Pyrrha brought up her breasts and wrapped them around the bottom part of Jaune's dick. She then started alternating between shifting each one up and down, all the while never stopping licking whatever of Jaune's erection wasn't in her mother's mouth or between her breasts. This continued for another eight minutes, with both Nikos women servicing their man. Soon, the combined pleasure his partner and his partner's mother were giving, along with the arousing sight of Athena fingering her daughter, was enough to send Jaune over the edge.

"I'M CUMMMING!" Jaune shouted as he came into Athena's mouth.

Athena closed her eyes as her lover came buckets into her mouth. She relished the salty but sweet taste as she drank as much as she could. But it was so much that her cheeks puffed out while some spilled out and landed on her breasts. Pyrrha, meanwhile, let out a growl/pout at not being able to taste Jaune's seed, which she had been wanting to taste for a while. After three minutes, Jaune had finally finished coming into the redhead milf's mouth.

Moaning, Athena pulled back until Jaune's cock slid out of her mouth with an audible pop. Careful not to spill a single drop, Athena looked over to her daughter before making a come here motion with her finger. Getting the hint, Pyrrha made sure Jaune was watching her before swinging herself to the side to face her mother, causing her breasts to swing with her. She then moved closer to Athena, who gently cupped her face before opening her own to reveal a mouthful of Jaune's cum. Athena was about to tilt her daughter's head back to drip some of Jaune's semen into her mouth. But Pyrrha lunged to kiss her mouth and get her share of Jaune's baby batter. Both redheads moaned as they swished their lover's cum around in their mouths for a few moments before swallowing the rest. The incredibly arousing sight of the Nikos women kissing and sharing his cum was enough to get Jaune hard as a rod again.

"Tasty as always. I hoped you liked that, dear." Athena said as she and her daughter separated while licking their lips.

"I did." Pyrrha answered, still huffing and full of lust and horniness. But she licked her lips again and felt herself grow even hornier and wetter when she saw Jaune's shaft standing proudly as he looked at them with arousal.

"It looks like he is ready. Good. It is time for the-" Athena began, ready to guide her daughter through the process of lovemaking. She knew, from looking over the credit card bills, that her daughter had brought some sex toys. And while there was nothing wrong with that, Athena knew that having an actual cock enter you, especially one as thick that also belonged to one as gifted as Jaune, was something else entirely. Yet, that went out the window because of what her daughter did next.

"WOAH!" Jaune shouted when Pyrrha suddenly lunged at him, causing him to fall onto his back in the center of the bed. Pyrrha then crawled to where she was hovering over Jaune's face. And he couldn't help but let out a moan as Pyrrha grabbed his shaft and gave it a few slow, strong pumps. Yet, despite the pleasure, Jaune couldn't help but feel a bit of fear go down his spine from how lecherous and lust-filled Pyrrha's face seemed to be. "P-Pyr?"

"I have been wanting to do this with you for a long time, Jaune." Pyrrha said before leaning down and kissing him. They moaned into the passionate kiss, with some of Jaune's fears easing away as they separated a moment later. Yet they returned in full force from what Pyrrha said next. "Get ready, Jaune. I'm about to help you with your stamina today. And I'm not going to go easy on you. And you're not allowed to pull out. Got it?"

"Got it."

"Good." Pyrrha said with a gentle smile as she eased her grip on his cock. "Now then. Let's begin."

Leaning down, Pyrrha gave Jaune another kiss to let him know that this was all part of their lovemaking, which settled his nerves and washed away any fear he had. Soon, they separated, with both of them smiling. Pyrrha then moved to line up her entrance with his dick. Then, with a wink, she plopped down on him, taking the entirety of Jaune's cock in one go.

"OOOOHHHH!" They both moaned. For Jaune, it was the feeling of how tight and how Pyrrha's entrance felt. As for her, the feeling of her lover spearing her and taking her virginity sent her senses alight with pleasure.

Groaning and panting at how big he was, Pyrrha placed her hands on Jaune's shoulders as she got used to it. Seeing this, Jaune reached down and placed his hands on her hips while smiling at her, hoping to show that it was okay and to take her time. Yet, no sooner than he did this, Pyrrha smirked before raising her toned ass into the air until only the tip remained inside. She then slammed all the way back with such a ferocity that it caused the bed to creak.

'Oh, my!' Athena thought as she watched her daughter repeatedly bounce up and down on Jaune's cock like a maniac. The sight was highly arousing. Moving to a chair, she sat down and began fingering herself to the scene. While not as into voyeurism as someone like Kali or Winter, it still got her gears, as evidenced by how wet the chair and floor were now.

Groaning, Jaune relished the pleasure Pyrrha was giving him as she rode him like no tomorrow. From how rapid she was bouncing on his cock, Jaune knew she must have been pent up and had been waiting for this moment for a while. Realizing this, Jaune decided to help out like the good lover he was.

"BY THE BROTHERS, YES, JAUNE!" Pyrrha screamed as her tongue rolled out of her mouth.

Jaune had grabbed her hips and gave her ass cheeks a firm squeeze. Then, as she came down, Jaune thrust into her, striking her G-Spot and hitting her womb. Loving the pleasure but also wanting a bit more, Pyrrha tightened her grip on Jaune's shoulders before speeding up her bouncing on his cock.

Moaning, Jaune kept thrusting into Pyrrha in tandem as she slammed her hips down on his cock. The feeling of fucking his partner was indescribable. And the sight of his partner's mother masturbating to their lovemaking caused him to get even harder and go even faster inside Pyrrha, causing her to begin to pant like the bitch in heat she felt like. Yet, because of this, her breasts started swinging wildly in front of Jaune's face. And try as he might, Jaune could not maintain eye contact with the heavenly, sweaty pillows so close to his face. Seeing his face, Pyrrha leaned forward so they would smack him in the face. But as soon as she did this, Jaune launched his attack.

"FUCK YES, JAUNE! DON'T YOU DARE STOP!"

Leaning forward, Jaune had captured one of Pyrrha's tits in his mouth and began to suck on them. Pyrrha moaned at the feeling of her lover sucking on her breast like a baby deprived of its milk. And she let out another scream when he began biting and twisting her nipple. Closing her eyes, Pyrrha bit her lip as she relished in the pleasure her lover was giving her while she kept slamming down on his shaft as he thrust upward, hitting her womb. They continued like this for another ten minutes until their rutting became erratic.

"YES! CUM INSIDE! DON'T YOU DARE TRY TO CHANGE MY MI

IIIIINNNNDDDDD!" Pyrrha began before screaming when Jaune thrust so deep into her that his cock head hit her cervix and blasted his baby batter directly into her womb. This was more than enough to send her over the edge and cum from all the pleasure. And as this happened, Athena finally reached her own peak.

'Oh, Oum, did I really need that.' Athena thought as she came down from her high. Looking over to her daughter and lover, she smiled as they collected themselves while some of their combined love juices seeped out of Pyrrha's freshly fucked cunt and onto Jaune's lap.

"H-How was-" Jaune began. But he couldn't finish because Pyrrha had grabbed his shoulders again before throwing herself back and bringing Jaune with her so that she was on her back while he was on top of her, with his dick never leaving her.

"We're not done yet. NOW FUCK ME!" Pyrrha demanded.

"With pleasure." Jaune said as he fixed himself. And once he did, he immediately began pounding into Pyrrha's pussy.

'Oh, my. They're really going at it.' Athena thought as she resumed fingering herself while groping her right breast.

Groaning, Jaune adjusted his hands on either side of Pyrrha's head as he continued to thrust inside her. And from this new position, Jaune kept on rubbing against her G-spot, causing Pyrrha to see stars. Yet, she still wanted him deeper. Raising her legs, she wrapped them around Jaune's lower back and pulled him even closer. Jaune groaned in slight pain from this new angle, yet now he was able to breach/hit Pyrrha's womb with every thrust.

Panting, Pyrrha brought her arms around Jaune's head and pulled him into a kiss, causing their chest to rub against each other. And with each thrust, Jaune could feel her diamond-hard nipples scraping against his chest, spurring him on. They continued on like this for another few moments, with their combined juices flying out of Pyrrha's pussy whenever Jaune entered her fully. Jaune then moved his hands underneath Pyrrha's body to cup her ass again and began to massage each cheek roughly. Pyrrha groaned from the rough love Jaune was giving her ass. But she let out an internal yelp with her eyes opening when Jaune suddenly lifted her off the bed as he moved to a kneeling position. Then, before she could say anything, Jaune delivered a powerful slap to her ass.

SMACK

"JAUNE!"

SMACK

"HARDER!"

SMACK

"HARDER, JAUNE! HARDER!"

SMACK

"YES!"

SMACK

"YES, JAUNE! YES! MORE HARDER!"

Groaning, Jaune slammed their lips together with their tongues, immediately battling for supremacy, with Pyrrha winning out in the end. As Pyrrha explored Jaune's mouth again, he kept bouncing her up so she could come down on his cock as he thrust into her from a new angle that made her mind go foggy with lust. And each time Jaune bounced her up, he delivered another powerful slap to her ass, causing her pussy muscles to clench on his dick tighter. They continued like this for another ten minutes until they felt their limits hit them like a truck.

"MMMMMWWWWAAAAHHH!" They both groaned as another deluge of fertile sperm left Jaune's balls, traveled through and out of his shaft, and into Pyrrha's fertile womb, looking for an egg to fertilize. As this happened, Pyrrha felt her orgasm rip through her like a truck as her sense lit up while her pussy juices combined with Jaune's cum, with some leaking onto the bed, ruining the sheets.

"Wow." They panted as Jaune moved so he could sit on the bed's edge with his dick still hard and inside Pyrrha's love tunnel as she sat on his lap.

Smiling, Jaune gave Pyrrha a sweet, romantic kiss that filled her heart with joy. Wrapping her arms around Jaune, she pulled him in closer as she poured all her love and feelings for him into the kiss. After a moment, they separated as the need for air became too strong. They then leaned their foreheads against each other as they basked in the afterglow of their passionate lovemaking. Yet, it only lasted a minute as Pyrrha felt herself become increasingly horny when she felt Jaune's cock twitch inside her, causing her to moan.

A quick glance behind her told Pyrrha that they were near the wall with a window close by. She then remembered a scene in one of those smut books that Blake had lent her. Wanting to try it, Pyrrha smashed her lips against Jaune's while shoving her tongue into his mouth and wrapping her legs and left arm around his body. She then raised her other arm and aimed toward the wall behind her before using her semblance on the metal frame of the window.

"WOAH!" Jaune shouted as they were suddenly pulled to the window, with Pyrrha's back and ass pressing against the glass.

"OH!" Pyrrha moaned/shouted as the sudden impact caused Jaune's cock to slam all the way back inside her, push past her cervix, and enter her very womb. The sensation and sudden burst of pleasure were enough to cause Pyrrha to see stars, with the edges of her vision turning hazy.

"Are you okay, Pyr?" Jaune asked as he pulled back.

But instead of answering, Pyrrha merely used her core strength to keep herself upright before pulling Jaune closer by bringing her legs in. Groaning, Jaune got the answer. Adjusting his stance, Jaune moved his hands down to cup Pyrrha's ass before thrusting into her with as much force as he could muster.

'Oh, come on. Just a little relief.' Athena thought as she rubbed her pussy against the armchair of the chair, hoping to create enough friction to find some relief as her fingers were just not doing it anymore. Yet, to his dismay, she simply grew hornier with each passing second as she watched Jaune plow his cock into Pyrrha's pussy. 'Hopefully, Jaune can still go when my daughter is done with him.'

"YES, JAUNE! KEEP GOING!" Pyrrha screamed her lungs out.

Cupping her cheek, Jaune slammed their lips together as he kept thrusting into her. Each time he did, Pyrrha's ass pressed hard against the glass, leaving an imprint of her toned rear. And since they were on the third floor, all someone had to do was to look up, and they would be exposed. Yet, the thought of getting caught making love to her blonde knight caused Pyrrha's pussy to get significantly tighter as if it was trying to keep Jaune's cock in her indefinitely.

Groaning from how tight Pyrrha got, Jaune moved his hand from Pyrrha's ass to her leg to keep her up. And his other hand moved down from her face to cup her right breast. He gave it a light squeeze, earning a groan from Pyrrha. Yet it turned into a scream when Jaune pulled her nipple roughly before alternating between pinching and twisting. They kept this up for another few minutes, with Jaune drilling into Pyrrha's sopping core, rearranging her internal organs, and ensuring only he could please her in the future. But it was when Jaune moved his hand back to Pyrrha's ass and inadvertently fingered her asshole did she buck into Jaune's thrust. The combined feeling of him thrusting into her, playing with her breasts, and the sudden burst of pleasure from Jaune fingering her ass pushed her over the edge. And the feeling of Pyrrha's juices gushing all over his cock was enough to get Jaune to his finish as well.

"AAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHH!" They screamed as they came. Their combined juices leaked out of Pyrrha's cunt and onto the floor. Yet, despite the amount that dripped out, Pyrrha still felt unbelievably full from just how much Jaune pumped into her.

"Wow." Jaune said as he gently let Pyrrha stand on her own legs while he pulled out, which allowed a bucket's worth of cum to drip out of her and create a noticeable puddle on the floor.

Panting, Jaune took a step back to catch his breath as Pyrrha did the same. And even though he had just came so much, he felt himself get harder from seeing Pyrrha's heaving breasts as she caught her breath. This also had an effect on Pyrrha as she licked her lips. Still able to go and wanting Jaune to take her anal virginity, she turned around and placed her hands against the window. Pyrrha then turned around, closed one eye, and made the other one half-lidded, stuck out her tongue, and then slapped her ass before spreading her ass cheeks apart. The sight of it caused Jaune's cock to become hard as steel.

"Come, Jaune. Let's continue your stamina training but with a different hole of mine." Pyrrha said, licking her lips, her pussy dripping with lust as she impatiently waited for Jaune to take her.

Licking his lips, Jaune moved closer before leaning down and kissing Pyrrha's perfect ass. He then spread her ass cheeks further apart before kissing and licking her anal passage. Pyrrha groaned at the pleasure and let out a slutty moan when Jaune inserted his tongue into her asshole and proceeded to give her a rim job. Jaune then proceeded to massage her cheeks as he continued eating her ass out. After a couple of minutes, Pyrrha came hard onto the floor and felt some of her strength leave her. Yet, she barely had any time to compose herself as Jaune stood up behind her while holding her ass cheeks apart with one hand while the other grabbed and pumped his shaft. Then, in one swift move, he plunged his dick all the way into Pyrrha's ass.

"AAAAAAAHHHHHH!" Pyrrha shouted in pain and pleasure as she threw her head back while her tongue rolled out.

'Oh, my. He's going absolutely wild. And who knew my daughter could take our lover's cock in her ass all in one go. Perhaps anal is what she will enjoy the most. Hmm. I wonder who likes it more. Her or Winter?' Athena thought as she huffed while continuing to rub her pussy against the armrest.

"AUGH! KEEP FUCKING ME, JAUNE!" Pyrrha groaned.

Obeying her command, Jaune grabbed her hips and continued thrusting deep into her ass. Groaning from how tight Pyrrha's ass was, Jaune continued hammering away while willing himself from cumming too soon. Meanwhile, Pyrrha huffed as she took her lover in the ass. The pleasure coursed through her veins. And with each thrust, her breasts pressed against the glass, leaving an imprint of them and allowing the whole world to see Mistral's champion's perfect breasts should anyone look up. The thought of being exposed to the world as nothing more than a cocksleeve to her lover caused her pussy to tighten around nothing as more of her juices leaked to the ground.

Groaning, Pyrrha began pushing her hips back in time with Jaune's thrust. The newfound pleasure from this caused them to groan and reach ever closer to the edge. And with Jaune's ball hitting her pussy every time he slammed back into her caused her to double the amount of pleasure as her pussy dripped like a leaky faucet. They continued like this for another few minutes while growing ever closer to their limit. Yet, Pyrrha felt a jolt of near-blinding pleasure course through her body that drove her closer to her limit when Jaune smacked her ass as he thrust in her.

SMACK

"FUCK!"

SMACK

"MORE, JAUNE! MORE!"

SMACK

"FUCK ME, JAUNE! FUCK ME LIKE THE DIRTY WHORE I AM!

SMACK

"FUCK YES!" Pyrrha screamed as she came around nothing. Her juices came out of her like a waterfall as she struggled to stay coherent. Yet, it was when Jaune slammed back into her that she realized that Jaune had yet to come and fill her bowls with his precious cum. "OH! FUCK ME MORE, JAUNE!"

Grabbing her hips, Jaune began thrusting inside Pyrrha's ass as fast and as strong as he could. And each thrust sent ripples across her body as her breasts pressed up against the glass while his ballsack smacked her wet pussy. As Pyrrha enjoyed being fucked in the ass, Jaune looked at her perfect, sweaty body and heaving breasts. Her panting and moaning only spurred him on with each passing second. Wanting to feel more of her, Jaune grabbed her ponytail before gently tugging her up.

Pyrrha groaned from the slight pain that she felt when Jaune pulled her by her hair. Yet, she felt pleasure when her back made contact with his chest. However, she became utterly drowned in pleasure when Jaune thrust into her as hard as he could; with this angle allowing him to reach so deep inside her, Pyrrha through he entered her womb again. Then, to keep her back pressed against his chest, Jaune reached around, placed his arm right underneath her breasts, and pulled her close while playing with her tits.

"AUGH! YES!" Pyrrha shouted as she came yet again.

Groaning, Pyrrha felt like Jaune was drilling for dust inside of her ass. And with each thrust, her left breast was sent bouncing while her right was roughly played with by Jaune. Yet, it was when he thrust into her with his balls smacking into her pussy while he pinched her tit that she gained an ahegao face. But as soon as she did, Jaune cupped her face with two of his fingers hooking into her mouth. He then continued pounding away at her while moving to manhandle both of her breasts like the personal fun bags they were that only belonged to him. And with each thrust, their love juices splattered out of her ass and cunt and onto the floor.

Moaning and lost in her pleasure, Pyrrha leaned back into Jaune as he had his way with her body. It was everything she had wanted, and she couldn't wait to do this again already. They continued like this, with Jaune fucking her ass and playing with her tits while his fingers stayed in her mouth. Soon, her eyes crossed when Jaune began kissing her hard enough to leave hickeys on her neck. After about another five minutes, they finally reached their limits.

"I'M CUMMING!" They shouted as their orgasms hit them like a truck. Jaune filled Pyrrha's ass with more spunk than it could hold while Pyrrha's pussy convulsed around nothing, with her juices creating another puddle at her feet while also coating her toned legs.

"Wow." Pyrrha panted as Jaune removed his fingers from her mouth.

Yet, Pyrrha could not get a moment to catch her breath as Jaune picked her up and removed his dick from her ass before throwing her on the bed, stomach face down. She wondered what was about to happen but got her answer when Jaune got onto the bed on his knees behind her. Licking her lips, she leaned down with her breasts squishing against the mattress as she parted her ass cheeks again.

Rubbing her ass, Jaune smacked it a few times until it turned a cherry red colour, at which point he kissed it. Then he grabbed her hips before slamming back in her. Pyrrha let out a scream at feeling her lover fill her ass again with his cock. And she regained her ahegao face again when Jaune smacked her ass. But she nearly lost it when Jaune reached around her and flicked her clit with his fingers.

"OH FUCK!" Pyrrha groaned as she came onto the bed sheets while her vision became foggy from her orgasm. But it came back into focus when her mother appeared in front of her. Athena cupped her face before bringing Pyrrha in for another incestuous kiss with lots of tongues. And from this raunchy display, Pyrrha felt Jaune get harder inside her while also speeding up. After a few seconds, they separated. "Mom?"

"You didn't think you'd leave me out, dear? Now, be a good daughter and..." Athena said, smiling as she got onto the bed and lay on her back with her dripping, needing pussy inches from her daughter's face. "... eat your mother out."

Seeing the pink lips of her mother before her spiked Pyrrha's arousal levels. While she would never admit it out loud, this was a kink of hers that she always wanted to try out and now could, thanks to Jaune and her mother. Yet, Pyrrha didn't get a chance to respond as Jaune gave an extra-strong thrust that sent her face right into her mother's cunt, where she immediately began to kiss and lick up all the juices.

"Oh, that's it, baby. Lick mommy's cunt." Athena encouraged before moaning.

Groaning from the hot-as-hell sight, Jaune continued smacking Pyrrha's ass while thrusting into her, forcing her into her mother's pussy. Placing his hands on Pyrrha's ass, he massaged both cheeks before using them as make-shift reins to force Pyrrha back into him as he drilled inside her. And with each push, Pyrrha's tongue entered Athena's cunt deeper and deeper, causing the redhead milf to moan. They continued like this for another few moments when they all reached their orgasms.

"MMMMMHHHH!" Pyrrha, Athena, and Jaune moaned in bliss as they all came. Athena's juices filled up Pyrrha's mouth, causing her eyes to go wide before drinking her mother's juices while Jaune filled her ass up with his cum again.

But rather than take it easy, Jaune pulled out of Pyrrha's ass, letting a gallon of his semen leave her anal passage before plunging right back into her pussy. Meanwhile, Athena waited for her daughter to finish swallowing everything. And once she did, Athena gently pushed her daughter's head back to her cunt to eat her out some more while Jaune hammered away at her daughter's pussy.

Looking up, Jaune and Athena smiled as they continued to pleasure or receive pleasure from Pyrrha. Leaning forward, Jaune placed his chest on Pyrrha's back before reaching around and grabbing her breasts. He then started alternating between pinching and pulling her tits and groping her heavenly orbs. Seeing how close they were, Athena gently applied a bit more pressure on her daughter's head to make her go deeper before leaning forward and capturing Jaune's lips in a passionate embrace.

Groaning, they continued like this for another twenty minutes. And soon after, their bucking and sucking became erratic while their tongue-coiling kiss became more erotic as their orgasms fast approached. But it was when Jaune pinched Pyrrha's nipple while his other hand twisted her clit that Pyrrha was sent over the edge, which also triggered Athena's and Jaune's climax.

"MMMMMHHHH!" They all moaned as they came.

Athena filled Pyrrha's mouth with her juices while Jaune delivered another helping of his fertile seme into Pyrrha's depths. After two more minutes of non-stop cummming, they finally stopped, with Jaune pulling out of Pyrrha's cunt, letting some of their love juices seep out. Athena pulled her daughter up and gave her another tongue-filled kiss on the lips before separating and getting up from the bed. With no one to keep her up, Pyrrha fell onto the bed. She let out a small hiccup as some of her mother's juices exited her mouth while Jaune's cum seeped out of her ass and pussy. Soon, her eyes closed as she presumably fell asleep.

"Wow. That was a lot." Jaune panted as he struggled to stay upright after standing up from the bed.

"It sure was." Athena agreed as she flipped her daughter onto her back. She then gently kissed her forehead before moving to stand behind Jaune. He was confused by what she was doing but let out a groan when she grabbed his cock and began to pump it.

"A-Athena?" Jaune moaned.

"Don't worry, dear. We just need one more cumshot from you to seal the deal and make Pyrrha yours." Athena said before kissing him, easing some of his worries. Yet she didn't stop jacking him off. "And you don't have to do much. Just relax and let your lover and the sight of her daughter's naked body do the rest."

Turning back around, Jaune felt himself get hard by seeing Pyrrha's naked form on the bed, chest heaving as cum seeped out of all her holes. Yet, despite this, she still had a blissful smile on her face. But he couldn't stay on it for long as Athena sped up her hand on his cock. Turning to the side, Jaune and Athena engaged in another erotic liplock while enjoying the feeling of each other's bodies. And despite Athena wanting him to cum, Jaune didn't want to leave her out either. Lowering his hand, he began to finger her wet cunt as best and as fast as he could despite the awkward angle, causing her to groan into the kiss. They stayed like this for another few minutes until she felt his shaft begin to twitch.

"A-Athena. I-I'm close." Jaune warned.

"Then cum, dear. Cum for me." Athena whispered into his ear before biting his earlobe. This was enough to send Jaune over the edge. Yet, before he could shout out his pleasure, Athena captured his lips in another kiss as his cock shot out rope after rope of cum onto Pyrrha's body. Her breasts, stomach, legs, pussy, arms, and face were now coated in his pearly white cum. "Good."

'I should probably clean Pyrrha up once we're finished.' Jaune thought as he panted.

"Now. I hope you still got enough in your tank for me."

"Of course, Athena. I always have enough to satisfy all of you."

"Which you never fail to do." Athena said before pecking his lips. "Now come on. I want to do this in the shower."

"Alright."

Smiling, they both kissed each other again before making their way to the bathroom. Once inside, Jaune closed the door while Athena got the water running and made sure it was nice and hot. But while they did this, they never took their eyes off of each other's bodies. Athena even shook her ass while swaying her breasts to entice Jaune and get him ready. Once they felt like the water was warm enough, they both entered the shower. Yet, as one might expect, they started making out rather than cleaning themselves.

"MMMHHH!" They both moaned into the kiss as the warm water pelted their skins and washed away the tension and tiredness in Jaune's body.

Their hands began roaming each other's bodies as they kissed. Soon, Jaune's hands stopped on Athena's right breast and her cunt while her hands wrapped themselves around Jaune's shaft. Athena began pumping Jaune's cock while he fingered her pussy and played with her breast. They both groaned from the pleasure and, after a few moments, reached their peak, with Jaune's sperm coating Athena's legs while she came on his hand. They separated as they panted from the pleasure.

"I missed this. How I missed doing this so much." Athena said as she and Jaune rested their foreheads against each other.

"I can tell. And I missed this, too." Jaune said, smiling. Yet he became worried when Athena looked away. "Is something wrong, Athena?"

"Not really, Jaune. It's just that as the days pass by, we are all getting older, right?"

"Of course."

"But as we get older, life changes. I always knew one day, my dear Pyrrha would leave the nest we call home and find a new one to call home. And while that might not be true anymore since we're in a relationship with you, I still feel a bit alone at times."

"You're never alone, Athena. No matter what happens, we will always be there for you. If you ever need someone, just call me, and I will drop whatever I'm doing and come and visit you."

"I know you would, Jaune. And I am so grateful to have met you and for my daughter and I to be in a relationship with you. But still, life is short. And soon, life will start imposing restrictions on us. I don't want to live with regrets, Jaune." Athena said before cupping his face with a smile. "Jaune. I want to have a child with you. I want to experience the joys of raising a child from birth but with you by my side this time. Will you do me this favor, Jaune? Will you give me a child that we can raise as a family?"

"Of course. Anything for you and the others. We'll gladly raise it together. And the others can be the aunts or godmothers." Jaune said, causing Athena's heart to soar with joy as a few tears streamed down her face. Reaching up, Jaune wiped them away before kissing her. After a moment, they separated, with Athena moving to sit on the shower shelf that was far more sturdy than anyone could have imagined.

"Thank you, Jaune. I really do love you." Athena said as she parted her lower lips to reveal her pink entrance. "Now. Come and put a bun in this over."

Chuckling, Jaune moved closer to his lover and locked lips with her in a passionate embrace as their hands resumed exploring each other. Jaune then grabbed his cock and gently inserted himself to the hilt inside of Athena, who groaned from the pleasure. Jaune waited for her to get used to it before pumping back and forth into her.

Groaning, Athena relished in the pleasure her lover was giving her. And the thought of being able to raise another child with Jaune by her side elevated her senses to new heights. Raising her arms, she wrapped them around Jaune's head to pull him deeper into the kiss. Meanwhile, Jaune grabbed her ass and started thrusting into her as he pulled her closer, causing him to hit even deeper inside her.

Squeezing her cheeks, Jaune gently massaged them as he continued making love to Athena. Soon, he raised his right hand to her chest and began massaging the milf's breasts, committing the curves and feel of it to memory. The feeling of Athena's body rubbing against his as they fucked and kissed spurred him on. And the water from the shower lubricated their bodies, allowing them to go faster.

"Yes, Jaune. Fuck me. Give me a child." Athena moaned as they separated, feeling her lover strike her cervix with his cock. Yet, both tensed up when another voice spoke up.

"Yes, Jaune. Fuck my mother. Give her another child and give me some siblings." Pyrrha whispered in a sensual voice as she appeared next to Jaune. Her cum stained breasts rubbed against him.

"P-Pyrrha. AH!" Athena and Jaune said, shocked.

Yet, they both released a shocked moan when Pyrrha fingered Jaune's asshole, causing him to buck erratically into Athena's pussy. Chuckling, Pyrrha rubbed her breasts against Jaune's body while fingering Jaune's anus, causing him to fuck her mother almost like an animal in heat. And not wanting to leave her out, Pyrrha started sucking on her mother's breasts. They continued like this for another couple of minutes, with Pyrrha enjoying being in control of her mother's and lover's pace. Soon, their thrust became erratic on their own, signaling their ends fast approaching.

"WE'RE C-CLOSE!" Athena and Jaune shouted as they continued bucking into each other.

"Then cum. Let me have some siblings." Pyrrha whispered before thrusting her finger into Jaune's ass, causing him to strike deep into Athena and enter her womb. Meanwhile, Pyrrha pinched and pulled her mother's nipple, causing her to scream as she came as well. After a moment, they came down from their high as the shower washed away any of their juices that escaped Athena's pussy.

"Wow. Thank you, Jaune." Athena said, smiling. Leaning in, Jaune gave her a loving kiss.

"Anytime and anything for you and the others, Athena." Jaune said as they separated.

"Well, while this is nice. I still have one more round in me, and only you can satisfy me at this point, Jaune." Pyrrha said with a coy smile.

"A-alright. How do you want it?"

Smirking, Pyrrha grabbed her mother's hand, causing her to stand up on shaky legs before pulling her to the shower floor. Athena let out a squeak at this as her breasts squished against her daughter's. But Pyrrha silenced her by thrusting her tongue into her mouth, causing the both of them to moan. They separated after a bit, with Pyrrha spreading her and her mother's nether lips after spanking her mother's ass.

"Come, Jaune. Fuck us, Nikos women, and give us some children to raise with you." Pyrrha enticed.

Unable to control himself with such a delicious and arousing sight, much less say no, Jaune lowered himself to his knees before coming closer. He kissed Athena's ass before doing the same to Pyrrha. Then, he gave each a hearty smack, causing them to moan from the pleasure. Grabbing his cock, Jaune pumped it a few times before inserting himself into Athena's cunt in one go. Athena screamed from the sudden penetration, but her daughter silenced her by grabbing her face and bringing her in for another kiss with lots of tongue. Athena closed her eyes as she enjoyed the incestuous kiss with her daughter as her lover took her from behind.

Groaning from the sight and tight feeling surrounding his cock, Jaune grabbed Athena's hips and began rutting away at her. The water allowed him to go faster without much trouble. But Jaune knew he would not last long after how many rounds he just went. Adjusting his grip, Jaune began giving Athena's cunt long, hard, powerful strokes, causing her body to bounce forward a bit with each thrust. And each time she did, she and Pyrrha groaned as their tits rubbed against each other.

After a couple of more moments, Jaune pulled out of Athena before plunging himself into Pyrrha. And he did not start off soft. He went hard and fast, causing Pyrrha to scream into her mother's mouth. Yet, that only spurred Jaune as he pounded her poor pussy even harder while smacking Athena's ass, causing ripples to go across her ass flesh.

Meanwhile, Pyrrha and her mother continued swapping spit as their tongues battled for supremacy. But in the end, Athena won and shoved her tongue deep into her daughter's mouth. Yet, despite this, Pyrrha's hands wandered her mother's body while Athena cupped her face to bring her in closer. Meanwhile, Jaune continued alternating between Athena's and Pyrrha's pussies. And every couple of swaps, he would shove his cock between their entrances and begin thrusting between their bodies, stimulating their clits. This continued for what felt like another twenty minutes before they felt their orgasms fast approaching.

"I-IM CLOSE!" Jaune warned.

"INSIDE!" Both Nikos women demanded.

Nodding, Jaune shoved his cock back into Athena's pussy and gave her a huge helping of his cum. And once he felt like he was halfway done, he pulled out of her, with his dick still spurting out cum, which coated both Nikos women's legs, asses, ad pussies with cum, before plunging back into Pyrrha and giving her the rest. As this happened, both Nikos women came the hardest they ever did in their lives. After another minute, they finally finished. Falling on his ass, Jaune panted to catch his breath. Looking back to his lovers, he saw Athena smiling as she stood up while carrying a sleeping Pyrrha.

"Let's actually get washed up this time and then head to bed. I don't even want to look at the time." Athena said. Nodding, Jaune got up and helped Athena clean Pyrrha before they washed themselves. But they did sneak in a few kisses occasionally.

Forty-Five Minutes Later

"Thanks for the date, Jaune." Athena whispered as they all lay in bed. Athena was on his left side while Pyrrha was asleep on his right side, snuggling into him as she let out adorable snores.

"You're welcome, Athena." Jaune said before kissing her. "But did you know that your daughter was this much of a sex fiend?"

"Nope. I'm just as shocked as you were. I even thought she would be appalled by me kissing her a bit and would try to have it like Winter and Willow do. Only small acts such as kissing and the occasional rubbing/massaging of their breasts. But to see her this open and even starting it was something I was not expecting. Yet, it could just be a kink of her or something she does cause she knows it gets you even more excited. Still, I'm glad she's now part of this polyamorous relationship the others, and I have with you. And I'm also happy you return her feelings."

"Yeah. I'm glad, too." Jaune said as he wrapped his arms around Pyrrha's sleeping form before bringing her closer.

"But... are you still willing to give me a child, Jaune? I know you want to wait until after you graduate from Beacon Academy, but I don't want to take any chances." Athena said, slightly worried. But they went away when Jaune kissed her.

"Of course. Anything for all of you. And I'll stick by your sides as we raise our children."

"Thanks, Jaune."

"You're welcome, Athena." Jaune said, smiling. "Oh, but before I forget. Were those suitcases yours? The ones some employees took with them at the bullheads."

"Oh, yes. But it's a surprise for you and my daughter. I'll tell you another time. Right now, let's go to sleep. We both had a long but fun day." Athena said before yawning.

"Alright. Good night, Athena."

"Good night, Jaune." Reaching over to her side, Athena turned off the lamp before rolling back over and cuddling into Jaune. Smiling, he kissed her head before doing the same with Pyrrha. Jaune then closed his eyes and drifted off to sleep, with the warmth of his lovers' bodies helping him fall asleep much faster.

Notes:

Well, it's been a while since I updated this story.

I'm honestly surprised with the direction this chapter went.

I feel like this might get my account suspended/banned but oh well.

More info in the next chapter's notes. Not sure when I will update it, though.

Chapter 4

ARC'S DATING OUR- - WHAT!?

Chapter 4

'That was a nice sleep.' Jaune thought as he woke up while stretching. Sitting up, Jaune smacked his lips to try and get the terrible morning taste out of his mouth. But he became slightly worried when he didn't feel any weight on him or on his sides. Looking down, Jaune saw that Athena and Pyrrha were gone. "Where are they?"

Getting up, Jaune rubbed his eyes before stretching and yawning one last time. He then stood up, looked around the room, and quickly noticed that none of Athena's or Pyrrha's stuff was present. Worried, Jaune began looking around for any clue about where they could have gone. However, he calmed down when he found a note from Athena on a nearby chair.

'Hey Love,

I had a great time yesterday and even better last night. And I'm pretty sure my daughter loved it as well. I'm glad that she's now part of our polyamorous relationship. Honestly, I'm thankful she ended up falling for you. I was always worried she would end up with some sleazy person or finally crack under pressure from her sponsors to get with someone that they chose. But now, I don't have to worry since I know who you are and that you will help give her, me, and the others a fantastic life.

Anyway, hopefully, we can have another date soon, followed by a night of passion. Also, in case you're wondering, Pyrrha and I went out for another mother-daughter day. While the date was lovely, there is still so much my daughter and I need to catch up on. And that includes the surprise I have. I'll tell you about it later tonight or tomorrow. Well, preferably show you.

Talk to you soon.

Athena.

P.S. Even though it was during a moment of passion, we still need to have a long talk about the child thing with clear minds. And I'm sure the others would also want to have a similar talk soon.'

'I'm glad Pyrrha's part of it too. I can't believe I didn't realize her feelings sooner. I should probably make it up to her somehow. But I am glad she got to reunite with her mother again and spend the day with her. And I wonder what's the surprise Athena has?' Jaune thought, smiling as he folded the paper before carefully putting it in his sweater. While there was only an infinitesimal chance that people would make the connection that the note was referring to THE PYRRHA NIKOS, Jaune did not want to take a chance on scandals and rumors arising. She already had enough on her plate to deal with, and if this got out, there was no telling how bad it could be. However, only after Jaune zipped up the pocket of his sweater did the full weight of the final part of the letter sink in. 'I know I said I always wanted to have children. But would I make a good father? Would I even be a good dad? Would my kids even like me? And how would I spend time with all of them? And lien? I know the others have a lot of lien saved up, but I wouldn't feel good about myself if I didn't do jack shit. I need to find something soon to start saving up lien since kids are quite expensive. But where to start?'

GRUMBLE

'Getting breakfast would be a start. Then, I can figure out the rest.'

Taking a look at the time, Jaune saw that it was nearing ten o'clock. After a moment, and not wanting to travel back to Beacon to simply cook something himself, Jaune decided to get a bite at one of the local cafes. However, first things first. As with all the other times he spent a passion-filled night in a hotel/motel with one of his lovers, Jaune knew he had to clean up the place a bit and do his best to get rid of the smell. Yet, it was when the blanket hit his dick that he realized another thing.

'I should also probably put on some clothes.' Jaune thought as he looked down at his naked body. But he then raised his arm and took a whiff before recoiling. 'After a shower, though, since I reek of sweat and sex.'

After looking around for a bit, Jaune found his clothes neatly folded and placed in a closet. And the letter on it from his partner caused him to chuckle. Pyrrha always had the best penmanship out of all of them. But from how it was written, Jaune could tell that Pyrrha was blushing up a storm. The most likely reason was that Pyrrha was trying to write out how she felt about him and what happened last night while her mother teased her about the whole thing.

Smiling and happy that he had met Pyrrha and was now in an unorthodox with her, Jaune put away the note before grabbing his clothes and heading to the bathroom to take a shower. Turning on the shower, Jaune began to brush his teeth as he waited for the water to get warm.

RING

'I wonder who's calling.' Jaune thought as he washed his mouth. Spitting everything out, he wiped clean his mouth before answering his scroll. "Hello."

'Hello, Jaune.'

"Oh, hey, Ren. How's it going?"

'Not bad. Nora and I just got back from breakfast. We're planning on going on another date today.'

"Oh, that's nice."

'It is. I'm glad we're finally together.'

"It took some time, but I'm glad you two are together, too."

'Thanks, Jaune. But how about you? How's it going on your end?'

"It's going great. But you'll never guess what happened."

'You found out about Pyrhha's feelings for you, and now she's part of your polyamorous relationship.'

"Was it that obvious?" Jaune asked in a deadpan voice.

'Pretty much for everyone except you.'

"Wow. I am dense."

'No argument here.'

"Moving on." Jaune said, rolling his eyes.

'Did you two get intimate last night? And what about Athena?'

"Yup."

'I take it Pyrrha took control of everything.'

"Pretty much. Honestly, Athena and I were not expecting how Pyrrha acted."

'Not surprising. She always seemed like a take-charge kind of person in the bedroom. Anyway. Are you coming back to Beacon now or not yet? And what of Athena and Pyrrha?'

"Athena and Pyrrha are spending the day together to catch up since it's been a while since they last saw each other."

'True.'

"And I'll be heading back to Beacon much later, probably at night. It's Sunday, and I don't feel like spending the day alone in the dorm. Plus, there are a few things I need to look into and want to try here in Vale."

'True. And it is a nice day outside. But what do you have to look into? Is it related to your lovers?'

"Yes. Even though it was just with Summer beforehand, Athena told me last night while we were getting intimate that she wanted to have a child with me. And today, Athena left a note saying where she and Pyrrha went. And on it was how we must talk about the whole child thing with clear minds. She also said the others might want some as well."

'And now you're thinking about the future and how to provide not only for your lovers but for your future children.'

"Yes. I'm thinking about getting a side job and possibly buying some books about how to be a good dad and care for children."

'Well, even though your lovers already have a decent amount of lien, additional lien never hurts. And I know you would make a great father, Jaune. During the few 'assignments' we had where we had to escort kids to their destination, you always knew what to say and do to keep them happy and calm. Not to mention, I remember how your nephew, Adrian, always seemed excited when you visited. Nora even told me how she overheard your sister Saphron and her wife Terra agree to always call you first when they are looking for a babysitter. So, I'm pretty sure you would know what to do. And even if you need help, you can always ask your parents and some of your sisters for advice.'

"Thanks, Ren. I appreciate it." Jaune said, internally grateful for having a friend like Ren.

'You're welcome, Jaune. Anyway. I have to go now. Talk to you later.'

"Alright. See you, Ren." Jaune said before hanging up. He then checked the shower before getting in while mentally reminding himself to call some of his sisters later.

Two Hours Later

Local Cafe

'Alright. Let's see what's available.' Jaune thought as he sat at a local cafe while eating a simple egg sandwich.

Taking out his scroll, Jaune opened it and went to some sites that showed the current part-time job listings available. Even though Ren was right in that the other probably had a decent amount of lien already in the bank, some additional lien would not hurt. And it was never too early to start saving. Unfortunately, Jaune knew he could only get a part-time job because he was still a Beacon student. Not only that, but he also has to run it by Ozpin first since that was a requirement for some reason.

'Probably to fit in with our schedule.' Jaune assumed before taking a sip of his coffee. "Hmm. Okay. So, the only options available are being a barista or being a receptionist. Which should I choose?"

"That depends on a couple of factors. But honestly, I think being a Barista would suit you better. However, I would also recommend against it since you do meet a lot of irrational and downright idiotic people that will make your day a living hell." A voice answered. And it was one that Jaune instantly recognized and made him tense up. Looking to his side, Jaune saw Coco Adel walking around to sit across from him.

"O-oh. Hey, Coco." Jaune nervously said. Even though Jaune could say that he and Coco were 'friends,' he was still scared of her. And the main reason was that she could easily tear him a new structurally superfluous new behind with her minigun. Or she could smack him into next week if she uses her weapon when it is a purse.

"Hey, blondie." Coco said with a smirk as she lowered her shades. "What are you doing?"

"Just looking at part-time jobs. I'm hoping to get one."

"That's a good idea, especially since you're a first-year and won't get missions that decently pay you until next year."

"Yeah. And the stipends barely cover our expenses."

"True. I remember how my team and I had to get side jobs just to survive. Just make sure to run it by Ozpin first so he can adjust everything."

"Will do."

"So, what brings you to this cafe, Arc? And where were you yesterday?"

"It was a surprise for my partner, Pyrrha. And long story short, we got Pyrrha's mom to visit yesterday so they could spend the day together since they hadn't seen each other for more than a year. While I wanted to give them some space, Athena and Pyrrha insisted I join them. And by the time we finished, it was too late to return to Beacon, so we stayed at a hotel for the night. Now, I just came here to get something to eat while looking up some part-time jobs."

"Oh, that's nice of you. But where are they now?"

"They are spending the day together again, but just the two of them this time since, as they said, they have a lot to catch up on."

"Alright. But what about you? Planning on doing anything today?" Coco asked while lowering her shades.

"No, not really. I might just..." Jaune began before remembering the conversation he had with Coco on Friday. "... And I forgot, didn't I?"

"Yup."

"Right. Can we skip the 'dragging me' part and just go to the park?"

"If you buy me a coffee first, then sure."

"Alright. You want anything else?"

"Maybe a croissant." Coco answered before handing him a slip of paper. "Here. This is how I usually order my coffee. And just ask for a plain croissant."

"Okay. I'll be back in a moment."

'Jaune certainly is something. And if the stories I heard about him are anything to go by, then I'm glad my bun-bun fell for him.' Coco thought, smiling. But she then gained a thoughtful look. 'But if there's one thing Arc isn't, it's being a good liar. He's definitely hiding something. I should tail him to see what he's hiding and if it might concern Velvet. And maybe I should start today with his date with Velvet.'

Half an Hour Later

Carlyle Park

'I don't think I will ever be able to drink coffee like that.' Jaune thought as he watched Coco drink her scalding hot coffee like nothing. "So... uh... why did you want me to come here?"

"You'll see in a moment." Coco answered as she finished her coffee before throwing out the cup.

"Alright."

The two fell into a semi-uncomfortable silence as they continued walking through the park. Well, it was semi-uncomfortable for Jaune as Coco seemed to be enjoying the sights and day. Figuring it would be a good way to ease his anxiety, Jaune began admiring the beauty of the park and taking note of what it had to offer since he had only been here once before.

'Hmm. This seems like a nice park. Perhaps the rest of my team and I can have a team bonding day here. And we should probably have it soon since it's starting to get a little cold.' Jaune thought.

"Alright. We're here." Coco said, snapping Jaune from his thoughts. Looking around, Jaune became confused when he saw no one else around. For a moment, he thought Coco had set up something for them to do, but again, he didn't see anything that would hint at that.

"Uh. Okay. But where is here... or what's going to happen?" Jaune asked, confused.

"You see the gates of the pier over there." Coco asked, pointing ahead of them.

"A pier... Oh, yeah. I see it." Jaune said, looking around and spotting the entrance to the pier about half a kilometer away.

"Yup. Just head there and go to the end, and you will get your answers."

"Alright." Jaune said, slightly uncertain about the whole thing.

"Don't worry. I'm sure you'll like it. And who knows, by the end, you might even get a real nice surprise." Coco said with a smirk. But Jaune then felt like death was staring him in the eye when Coco grabbed him by his sweater and pulled him in close. And for a moment, Jaune could have sworn her eyes turned blood red.

"U-uh, Coco." Jaune fearfully said as goosebumps formed on his skin while sweat poured down his forehead.

"But if I even see one hair out of place, then I won't hesitate to pulverize you into a bloody mess that even the brothers above won't be able to put you back together. Got it?!" Coco asked/threatened/warned.

"G-got it."

"Good." Coco said as she let him go, with the tension in the air disappearing almost immediately. "Now, don't have too much fun. Ciao."

'That was... strange... and immensely frightening.' Jaune thought as he watched Coco leave. But for a moment, he could have sworn she was deliberately shaking her hips to give him a show of her ass.

Shaking his head, Jaune focused back on what he had to do to avoid becoming a distant memory. Turning around, he made his way to the pier while wondering what this was all about. After a couple of minutes, he made it to the pier and looked around for anyone that Coco could have been referring to. Yet, he saw none. Figuring the person must be down by the end, Jaune walked down the docks. But as he did, he wondered if it was a good place to catch some fish as there were some recipes he had been wanting to try.

'Woah.' Jaune thought, stopping dead in his tracks near the end of the dock. And what he saw stunned him.

Near the railing was Velvet Scarlatina, taking some photos with her signature camera. But it was what she was wearing that caused Jaune to freeze. Rather than her usual clothing or Beacon attire, Velvet was wearing something completely different. She wore a brown, unbuttoned motto jacket that allowed Jaune to see she was wearing a black shirt underneath with her crest on the front. Velvet was also wearing light brown shorts and black opaque stockings. Then, to complete the look, Velvet wore brown buckle booties with a gold buckle on the side.

Jaune knew he was dense. And the fact that it took Athena to say it 'bluntly' that Pyrrha had feelings for him to realize that was proof of that.

Even before becoming good friends with Velvet, and even now, Jaune always thought of her as really cute. Yet, this attire brought out a whole other level of cute from her. She was downright adorable. And how happy and free she looked as she took some photos only added to it.

'Wow.' Jaune thought, still shocked, amazed, and stunned by how cute and beautiful Velvet looked. Thankfully, she still hadn't noticed him yet. However, Jaune tensed up when someone wrapped their arms around his neck before pressing their body against his. But he relaxed when the scent of the perfume the person was wearing entered his nose, telling him who it was. Smiling, Jaune let it continue as the person leaned her head against his.

"Hey, there, stud. I take it you're enjoying the site of my cute bunny daughter." Meg Scarlatina whipped into his ear before biting his earlobe.

"Hey, Meg." Jaune said as he turned his head so they could share a quick, chaste kiss. "And yeah. Velvet is cute. And this outfit really suits her."

"It sure does. But I'm just glad she seems so happy taking some photos."

"Same." Jaune agreed as they watched Velvet move to sit on some nearby benches. "But, uh. Just asking. What brings you here, Meg?"

"I could ask you the same thing."

"Well, a friend of mine asked me to come here and dragged me here when I forgot about it. But I don't know what she wants. She didn't tell me anything aside from coming to the end of the pier."

"Maybe it's to spend some time with this little horny bunny and her cute daughter." Meg whispered while pressing her breasts against Jaune's back, causing him to blush. Thankfully, he managed to keep himself from getting a hard-on.

"I-I doubt it. But it would be nice to spend the day with you, Meg. Outside of the movie a few days ago, we haven't been able to spend any time together."

"Yup. And you bet your sweet ass that I want to make up for it. And possibly have some frisky time later." Meg said, chuckling as she let go of Jaune, allowing him to turn around. And to his surprise, he saw that Meg was wearing a yellow sundress and sunhat. Yet, he couldn't help but chuckle when he noticed the carrot designs on the sundress and carrot pin on the sunhat.

"Perhaps when we have or can find some alone time, we can do it."

"Well, it doesn't have to be when we're completely alone if you catch my meaning." Meg said with a wink, causing Jaune to roll his eyes. "Anyway. So, what do you say, Jaune? Care to spend the day with me and my daughter?"

"Sure." Jaune said. But he then remembered to continue looking into some courses and part-time jobs. "It would be nice to spend time with you. And it would be nice to hang out with Velvet since it's been a while because schoolwork got in the way."

"YES!" Meg cheered, excited.

Separating, they walked side-by-side to the end of the pier. But while Meg wanted to hold hands with Jaune and lay her head on his shoulder, she didn't. While her daughter knew she was in a relationship, her dear little bunny was unaware it was with the one that got those bullies to stop harassing her. And while Meg does intend to tell her daughter, she wants to wait until the right moment. After all, she was a mother first and did not want to overwhelm her poor Velvet. However, as they neared her daughter, a few thoughts entered Meg's mind. And one of those caused her to place her hand on her stomach.

'I wonder if Velvet could get used to calling Jaune her stepdad or even father. And I wonder how she would feel about being an older sister.' Meg thought as they reached the bench Velvet was sitting at.

However, to their surprise, despite being a rabbit faunus and having excellent hearing, Velvet didn't hear them coming. The duo looked at each other with smirks on their faces as an idea formed in their minds. They then leaned forward so their heads were next to Velvet's. And from a glance down, Meg and Jaune saw that Velvet was going through the photos she had just taken.

"Did you take some nice photos?" Jaune and Meg asked, smirking.

"YYYYIIIPPP!" Velvet screamed as she involuntarily jumped twenty feet into the air. The sight of it caused both Meg and Jaune to laugh. Landing on her feet gracefully, Velvet calmed her beating heart before turning around and glaring at her mother and crush. "DON'T DO THAT!"

"Sorry, Velvet." Jaune said as he calmed down from laughing so hard.

"Sorry, dear. We just couldn't help ourselves." Meg added.

"Still." Velvet pouted, causing Jaune and Meg to chuckle a bit more. "Anyway. What are you two doing here? I thought you were running some errands, Mom. And I thought you were hanging out with your friends all weekend, Jaune."

"Well, I did have some errands to run. But most of the places I had to go to were either closed or gave me too much of a headache to deal with them. Thankfully, the few errands I had to do I did. Now, with the extra free time, I decided to simply walk around town to enjoy the day." Meg answered before twirling around. "Look. I even found a sundress and this cute sunhat."

"It suits you, Mom."

"Thanks, dear. Perhaps we should get you one as well."

"M-maybe another time." Velvet said, blushing. She then cleared her throat before turning to Jaune. "And what about you, Jaune?"

"That's a bit of a longer story. I was hanging out with some friends yesterday and had to stay overnight at a hotel since the bullheads were closed. Then, while I was grabbing some breakfast at a cafe, Coco came, reminded me that I was supposed to come here, dragged me here, and told me I had to meet up with someone. And I'm guessing that someone is you, Velvet." Jaune said.

"Figures she was behind this." Velvet huffed.

"Behind what, dear?" Meg asked, curious.

"Coco, my team's leader, loves doing things like this for some reason. Today, she woke me up pretty early, dragged me to several different shops to get this attire, and then brought me over here and said to wait until someone special arrived."

"And I guess your mom or I was the person she told you to wait for." Jaune said.

"I think it was you, Jaune since I didn't know that Coco was going to drag you here or that my daughter was here as well." Meg said. "But the question is why she did this."

"I'm not sure to be honest."

"There's got to be a reason."

"Y-yeah. A reason." Velvet blushed when she realized Coco set this up so she could spend some time with her crush. While this might have presented the perfect opportunity to confess her feelings to her crush, Velvet would have preferred it if they were alone. And even though she could ask her mother for help, Velvet knew how her mother would react to it. She would make a big fuss over it and just blurt it out at the 'worst' time. And Velvet knew without a doubt that would lead to a serious awkward moment that she did not want to experience. "But I doubt we will figure it out any time soon. Coco does tend to do things for reasons you wouldn't expect."

"Yeah, I believe you." Jaune said, chuckling.

"So, what now?" Velvet asked, curious.

"Well, it is a nice day today. And it would be a shame to spend indoors. So, how about the three of us spend it together." Meg suggested, catching her daughter off guard.

"W-what?" Velvet stuttered.

"Yes, the three of us. I know he's your best friend, dear, and the one who stopped those bullies from harassing you. Not only would I like to spend some time with my dear daughter, but I would also like to get to know this strapping young lad who helped my daughter so much."

"W-well, it would be nice to spend some time with you, mum." Velvet agreed. But she wondered why her mother called Jaune a strapping young lad while leaning into him. Velvet knew Jaune was downright handsome and cute. But wasn't her mother already in a relationship with someone else? 'I'll ask her who it is later.' "But what about you, Jaune? D-do you-"

"I think it would be nice, Velvet, especially since it's such a great day today. Not to mention, we haven't been able to hang out recently." Jaune interjected with a smile that caused Velvet to smile as well.

"True. It would be nice to hang out with you as well, Jaune. But what should we do?"

"Well, it is a nice day, so I think a trip to the beach is in order to get some sun." Meg said.

'Thankfully, I still have the swim trunks from yesterday.' Jaune thought, slightly relieved. But he was confused about why Velvet looked at him for a moment before turning away with a blush on her face.

"Y-yeah. Getting some sun is important." Velvet agreed while mentally picturing her crush without a shirt and only wearing swim trunks.

"Then we can grab something to eat at a restaurant." Meg said.

"Which one, though?"

"How about that one called Krieger's Paradise? I heard they had a good selection of food from all over Remnant." Jaune suggested.

"Sure." Meg agreed.

"Yeah, we can go there. I've been wanting to try there anyway." Velvet said.

"Excellent. And we can even order some desserts after our meals." Meg suggested with a wink that only Jaune caught. "And then, if we have enough time, we can attend a fireworks festival that's happening on the other side of town."

"Is it the one where we watch the fireworks show from a canoe?" Jaune asked, curious.

"Yes. That's the one."

"I-I think that would be a good way to close out the day." Velvet said, looking forward to it. And while she would have preferred it to be just her and Jaune, Velvet was not going to pass on a romantic night with her crush. Not to mention, if she plays her cards right, she might be able to turn it into a date.

"Yeah. It would be." Jaune agreed.

"Alright then. We have our schedule." Meg said, excited. However, she planned on having a proper ending to the day with her lying on the bed, cum seeping out of her pussy while she snuggled into her lover.

"But we should probably get going now if we want to get a decent spot at the beach."

"Yeah. Not only is it Sunday, but it is beautiful weather. So, I'm pretty sure a lot of people will be heading to the beach."

"Right. Let's get going then." Velvet said as they left the pier and headed to the beach. But she did wonder why Jaune blushed and looked away for a moment. 'Probably just remembered an embarrassing moment when he was younger. I remember overhearing him say that he had seven sisters who loved to tease him.'

Half an Hour Later

"WOW! It's packed." Meg said as she looked over some rocks.

After leaving the pier, the trio headed to the nearest beach they knew. But along the way, they made a pit stop at a store to buy/rent what they would need for it. Thankfully, this time, Jaune managed to grab some swim trunks that were much looser and could stretch a bit, which would allow him to hide an erection if it happened. And he knew without a doubt that it would happen as Meg tried to get him riled up a few times by bouncing her breasts in front of him while Velvet wasn't looking. Thankfully, he managed to keep his hormones in check, as it would have been an awkward conversation if Velvet had asked why he was walking funny.

Luckily, after getting all the stuff they would need for some time at the beach, Meg had stopped and simply resigned to walking near him. After a couple of minutes, they had finally arrived and were only marginally surprised to see lots of people already there. Yet, despite the abundance of beachgoers, the trio managed to find a great spot by some rocks. Not only did it provide them some privacy, but it was close to the water and blocked some of the wind.

"That's probably because a lot of students from regular schools are also on break." Velvet said as she helped Jaune set everything up.

However, she was a bit distracted by seeing Jaune without a shirt on. Yet, Velvet was equally grateful that Coco wasn't here, meaning she could dress how she preferred. As opposed to her partner, who loved showing off trendy clothes that showed a lot of skin and would have made her wear something along the lines of a microkini, Velvet preferred more modest clothing. That's why she was wearing a cropped halter bikini top and boy shorts in her colour scheme. But she did wonder why Jaune fumbled a bit when she returned from the changing rooms.

"True." Meg agreed as she saw even more people arrive.

"And done." Jaune said as they finished setting everything up.

"Now, we can rest a bit before heading into the water." Velvet said as she stretched.

"Y-yeah." Jaune stuttered, blushing as Velvet accidentally gave him a show of her fantastic curves. Even though she was cute, Jaune couldn't deny that Velvet looked sexy in her swimsuit. Coughing, he cleared his throat. "We can rest a bit before going in. But first, let's put on some sunblock."

"Right. We don't want to get sunburnt." Velvet agreed as she grabbed the sunblock.

"Now, Jaune. Be a dear and rub some sunblock on our backs." Meg said as she lay on her front on the beach mat. And because she was wearing a white skirted bikini set, Jaune could see her luscious curves and some of her fantastic ass.

"A-alright." Jaune stuttered as he desperately tried to keep his hormones in check. And it wasn't easy as Meg shook her ass a bit.

"I-It's okay, Jaune. I c-can do it myself." Velvet stuttered as well, with a blush covering her face.

"Oh, nonsense, Velvet. Let him do your back. I don't want my daughter to get sunburnt. And if you want, he can even do your legs and arms." Meg said, smiling as her daughter blushed.

"O-Okay." Velvet stuttered as she lay on the mat next to her mother.

"Are you sure, Velv? I don't want you to feel uncomfortable." Jaune said, concerned for his friend.

"I-I'm sure, Jaune. I trust you."

"Alright."

Grabbing the bottle, Jaune poured a healthy amount of sunblock into his hands. He then rubbed his hands together before going to Meg and lathering the sunblock onto her back. The cold sensation, combined with her lover's strong hands and technique, caused Meg to moan as pleasure filled her body. Closing her eyes, she relaxed into the mat as Jaune massaged the sunblock into her back before moving to her legs and arms. For a moment, she was tempted to have him do her butt and breasts next, but Meg decided against it.

'MMHHH. This is the life.' Meg thought as she enjoyed the massage.

"Okay. You're done, Meg." Jaune said, snapping her from her thoughts.

"Thanks, Jaune."

"You're turn, Velvet." Jaune said as he poured some more sunblock onto his hands.

Nodding, Velvet relaxed and lay her head on the mat face down. While slightly uncomfortable, it would still allow her to hide her blush if she gets one. And she was right as no sooner than Jaune placed her hands on her back and began rubbing it, Velvet felt her cheeks heat up. She even had to bite her lips to prevent a moan from escaping her lips. Thankfully for her, after the first few seconds, all she felt was mind-numbing comfort as her body relaxed into Jaune's touch.

"Want me to do your legs and arms, Velvet?" Jaune asked.

"Yes, please."

Nodding, Jaune poured some more sunblock into his hands before doing Velvet's arms and legs. And he wasn't surprised by how toned they felt. Yet, Jaune smiled when he saw Velvet with a blissful look on her face. After a couple of more minutes, he finally finished.

"Okay. Done." Jaune said as he stood up before putting sunblock on himself.

"Thanks, Jaune." Velvet said, blushing a bit.

"Now that we are protected from the sun's harmful waves. Let's enjoy the day and water." Meg said as she and Velvet put sunblock on the front of their bodies.

Without waiting for a proper answer, Meg got up, grabbed Jaune's and her daughter's hands, and pulled them to the water. Velvet and Jaune were surprised by this but quickly overcame it when Meg splashed them. Smirking, Jaune and Velvet nodded before teaming up against Meg. They all laughed as they had a lot of fun. However, Jaune did blush and had to will himself not to get hard when the water caused the Scarlatina women's bikinis to cling to their skin and become somewhat transparent, allowing Jaune to see a bit more. And from certain angles, he could even see a bit of Meg's firm tits and her lower lips. Thankfully, from all the movement they were doing and the fun they were having, it was barely even noticeable.

Two Hours Later

"Now, that was a lot of fun." Meg said, raising her arms into the air and stretching. While probably not intentional, it caused her breasts to jut out a bit and bounce, which caused Jaune to blush.

"It was." Velvet said, doing the same, causing Jaune's blush to deepen.

"Y-yeah. It was." Jaune agreed.

"But we should start packing up. We only paid to rent the gear for a few hours." Meg said.

"Right. And then we can head to the restaurant." Velvet said, feeling a bit hungry.

Nodding, everyone got up and started packing up their supplies. Once done, they threw out their trash in some nearby waste bins before heading to the boardwalk. They then used some of the shower heads to clean off the sand that stuck to their bodies and supplies.

"Okay. I'm going to get changed in one of the changing stalls. Once I return, you two can change while I watch our stuff." Jaune said as he grabbed his clothes.

"Alright." Meg and Velvet said.

Nodding, Jaune turned around and made his way to some of the changing stalls. But he did have to wait for one to open up as numerous others were also waiting a turn. Thankfully, Jaune didn't have to wait long as the corner one opened up. Getting in, Jaune saw that the changing stalls also had a shower head so people could clean the sand from some of their more intimate parts.

'That's convenient.' Jaune thought as he set his clothes on a shelf.

Jaune then turned the lock before turning on the water. And to his surprise, it wasn't scaling hot or freezing cold but a pleasant lukewarm temperature. Sighing in relief as the water washed away the tension in his muscles, Jaune began cleaning himself. However, because he was enjoying it, combined with the sound of the shower pouring water on him, Jaune failed to hear the lock jiggling a bit. After a second, it became unlocked. And before Jaune could react, it opened and closed in a split second, with the person pinning him to the wall.

"HEY! WH-MMMHHH!" Jaune shouted, but the person silenced him with a fierce kiss, causing his eyes to go wide. However, he calmed down when he realized that it was Meg who had entered his stall. Knowing this, Jaune relaxed into the kiss, with their tongues soon intermingling with each other. After a couple of seconds, they separated with dazed looks on their face as they panted. But Jaune felt his cock awakening when he saw Meg's heaving breasts and tits through her wet swim top.

"Hey there, sexy." Meg panted.

"M-Meg. What are you doing?" Jaune asked.

"What's it look like? All that fun in the water got me thirsty. And I'm looking for a nice... tasty... drink." Meg answered. And as she saw those last few words, she took off her swimsuit before pulling down Jaune's swim trunks, allowing her access to her prize. She then pushed Jaune to sit on the bench in the shower that was there for the elderly or handicapped to rest on. "Now, just relax and let this let horny bunny do the rest."

Knowing he would be unable to do anything and that he was also a bit pent up, Jaune couldn't do anything but groan as he let Meg do her thing. With a wink, she got on her knees before grabbing his shaft. Meg then leaned in close and took a whiff of his masculine scent. The scent caused her to groan as some of her juices started to leak out of her pussy and onto the floor to combine with the shower water. In the back of her mind, Meg was glad that she wasn't in heat; otherwise, she would have mounted him already and have him ravish her so hard that everyone would hear her.

Adjusting her grip, Meg pumped Jaune's shaft a few times to get him nice and hard for her. And once he was ready, she gave the tip a sloppy kiss before enveloping the head in her mouth. Jaune groaned at the feeling of the tip of his dick entering Meg's moist oral cavern. But his hands flew to the edge of the bench when Meg flicked her tongue against his tip.

Internally smirking at her lover's reaction, Meg began suckling his tip while licking up any precum that seeped out of his cock. The taste sent her tastebuds alight while also getting her even wetter. Bringing up her breasts, Meg wrapped the heavenly orbs around Jaune's shaft and began rubbing them up and down. The water from the showerhead lubricated his dick, allowing her to go faster and without resistance.

"Oh, Meg." Jaune groaned at the pleasure of Meg's titjob. Bringing his hand up, he rested it on Meg's head and began combing his fingers through her hair. The feeling of her lover's hand caused Meg to groan.

Knowing they didn't have too much time and getting impatient for her drink, Meg released Jaune's cock from her mouth. She then licked the tip before giving a wink to Jaune. Then, before he could react, she plunged her mouth onto his shaft, taking him to the base in one go.

Schlick! Guhguhahg!

Up and down, Meg began face fucking herself on Jaune's cock. Each time, she pulled up until only the tip remained before slamming back down until she took him to the base until she was deep-throating him. And every time his cock entered her mouth, Meg constricted her throat to increase her lover's pleasure. Yet, in tandem with her blowjob, she kept rubbing up and down her D-cup-sized breasts along Jaune's cock.

MMMHHH! Schlick! Schluck!

Groaning as pleasure clouded his mind, Jaune looked down and felt himself get slightly harder at seeing Meg's breasts rub his shaft. Wanting to return the pleasure, Jaune reached forward, grabbed the doughy orbs, and gave them a gentle squeeze. Meg was surprised by this but quickly let go of her breasts so that her lover could have his way with them. And almost instantly, Jaune started roughly rubbing them up and down his shaft, causing Meg to groan at his rough treatment. Not wanting to be outdone, Meg put even more effort into her blowjob.

Glurk! Guhguhahg! Glurk!

Groaning, Jaune stopped rubbing Meg's breasts up and down his shaft and began groping and pinching her tits. Moaning from the pleasure and slight pain, Meg began humming into his cock while making sure every inch of it was covered in her spit. But it was when Jaune pinched and pulled her nipples that her right hand flew to her pussy and began furiously fingering herself while her other hand massaged Jaune's balls. They continued like this for another few moments before feeling their limits fast approaching.

"I-I'm close." Jaune groaned through gritted teeth.

Hearing this, Meg doubled her effort on taking her lover's cock in her mouth. Her hands also sped up, causing wet squelching sounds to come from her sopping wet pussy. Meanwhile, Jaune continued massaging and playing with Meg's breasts and tits. They both groaned as they rapidly pushed each other closer to their limits. But it was when Jaune gave an extra hard pull and twist to Meg's tits while she hummed and sucked on his cock that caused them to reach their orgasms.

"MMMMHHHH!" They both groaned as they came. Meg's juices splashed against her thighs, legs, and the floor. Meanwhile, Jaune's balls created enough sperm to fill a bucket and had it shoot throughout his shaft and into Meg's awaiting gullet.

GULP! GULP! GLURK! GULP! GLURK!

"MMMHHHMMM!" Meg groaned as she drank all of her lover's sperm. And despite her best efforts, some still seeped out of her mouth, landing on her breasts, only to be washed away by the shower. After a full moment, Jaune's cock finally ceased ejaculating. Meg groaned and swallowed the rest that was in her mouth before releasing Jaune's dick with a loud pop. She then leaned her head down so that it was next to it. "That was delicious. Thanks, dear."

"You're welcome, Meg." Jaune huffed as he caressed her head and hair again. Smiling at the affection, Meg kissed his cock one last time before getting up on slightly shaky legs.

"Now, let's finish getting dressed up. I'm sure Velvet is beginning to wonder where we are."

"Right." Jaune agreed before getting up.

Five Minutes Later

"There you two are. What took you two so long? Did something happen?" Velvet asked, worried, when she saw her crush and mother returning.

"Nothing happened, Velvet. There was just a long line." Meg answered.

"Thankfully, now it is a lot shorter." Jaune added.

"That's good." Velvet said, sighing in relief. She then grabbed her clothes. "Now that you two are back, you two can watch our stuff while I get changed."

"Alright, dear. Just be careful and make sure the door is fully locked." Meg said. Nodding, Velvet headed to the stalls. Once she was out of sight, Meg immediately grabbed Jaune's hand and brought him and their stuff to a nearly empty bench. They sat down, with Meg grabbing his hand again before lying her head on his shoulder. Smiling, Jaune kissed on her head.

"How's it going, Meg?" Jaune asked.

"Tiresome. I had so many errands to do recently. Augh. But at least it's over with." Meg answered as she cuddled against Jaune.

"I know how that can be. I remember having to do some errands for my parents since we were a big family and had to share responsibilities."

"But what about? Anything interesting happened since we last saw each other?"

"Well, kinda. The others wanted me to help out a friend, who turned out to be Glynda. But I guess you already knew it."

"Yup."

"And now Glynda is also a part of our polyamorous relationship."

"That's nice. She could use some love in her life. And I know you will give her everything she needs and wants." Meg said, smiling. "Anything else?"

"Well, I did go on a date with Athena yesterday."

"Oh, right. How did it go?"

"It went great. We also spent the day with Pyrrha, Athena's daughter, and my partner at Beacon."

"That's good. Athena was feeling a bit lonely, so I'm glad you could make her smile and feel... not alone again. But I feel like something else happened."

"Yeah. Athena revealed that Pyrrha also had feelings for me. And one thing led to another; we made love, and Pyrrha is now a part of our relationship."

"You really have a way of charming others, Jaune, and making them fall for you."

"Maybe." Jaune said, not entirely convinced. Meg wanted to try to argue with him but couldn't as they spotted her daughter coming back. Straightening up, the two lovers separated and waited for Velvet to arrive.

"Okay. I'm back." Velvet said.

"Was everything alright, dear?" Meg asked.

"Yeah, everything was fine. The new shower heads were a nice addition. But the shower stall I used had a funky smell that I couldn't quite place. Thankfully, I was born a rabbit faunus and not one with a strong sense of smell."

"U-uh. Perhaps someone had an accident. Or did a prank there." Jaune said, hoping Velvet wouldn't realize what the scent was.

"Probably."

"That's most likely it. Anyway. Let's go return the gear, and then we can head to the restaurant." Meg said. Nodding, they got up, grabbed their gear, and headed to the rental place to return what they had before heading to the restaurant. But Jaune was curious as to why Velvet walked so close to him.

One Hour Later

"Enjoy." Their waiter said as they gave the trio their meals before leaving. But they did wonder why he was wearing a gas mask and a trench coat.

'Possibly because of all the smoke that's coming from the kitchen. But why the shovel?' Jaune thought as they watched the waiter enter the kitchen.

"Alright. Let's dig in." Meg said as they began eating. And to their delight, it was incredibly delicious.

"Okay. This is pretty good." Velvet said as she ate her slow-roasted chicken with honey-glazed carrots.

"It really is." Meg agreed as she ate her carrot Gazpacho.

"We should bring our teams here in the future." Jaune added as he ate something called Spätzle that's served with Schnitzel. While he doubted he could ever correctly pronounce the names, it was delicious.

"But speaking of teams, how's your team doing, dear?" Meg asked her daughter.

"They are doing fine. Yatsuhashi recently got an upgrade to his weapon, Fulcrum. Fox got a side job to bring in some extra lien." Velvet answered.

"And your team leader?"

"She's fine. But aside from today, she has been pestering me to try on and wear more revealing clothing."

"Well, having new clothes is never a bad thing."

"Especially since the ones you're wearing, Velvet, fit you really well. They make you look really cute." Jaune absentmindely said. But once he realized it, both he and Velvet blushed while Meg laughed a bit.

"You really think so, Jaune?" Velvet asked.

"Well, you always have been cute, Velv. And this outfit really helps bring it out."

"T-thanks, Jaune." Velvet said, blushing. But she also made a mental note to find other types of outfits similar to the one she was currently wearing.

"What about your team, Jaune?" Meg asked.

"They're doing fine. Two of them recently got together. And the other one, who is my partner, got to spend some time together." Jaune answered.

"That's great. Always nice to see people getting together in meaningful relationships."

'Looks like Pyrrha is getting a bit closer to making her move. I should probably act fast.' Velvet thought.

"But speaking of meaningful relationships." Meg said with a smirk as she turned to her daughter. "Do you have your eyes on anyone, dear?"

"U-uh. N-no." Velvet answered with a blush while occasionally glancing at Jaune. But she coughed to compose herself. "Not yet. But maybe soon."

"Hopefully, soon. Remember, dear, I'm not getting any younger and would like to see my grandkids before I enter Monty's kingdom."

"A-alright." Velvet said, blushing. Despite what some might think, Velvet was hardly pure-minded. She knows what sex is and has masturbated before. While she would want to have kids in the future, she wanted to wait a bit. But Velvet also knew that would mean getting intimate with Jaune. And if she were being honest with herself, she wouldn't mind having Jaune be her first.

"What about you, Jaune? Do you want kids in the future?" Meg asked.

"I wouldn't mind having some kids. But I would prefer to wait a bit until I have a steady income of lien." Jaune answered. But he remembered that he still had to talk with Athena about wanting to have a kid soon.

"True. It's always good to have everything set or at least planned before having a kid." Meg said, with Velvet and Jaune agreeing. But before anyone could say anything else, another waiter approached them.

"Is everything alright here?" The waiter asked.

"Yes, everything is alright." Jaune answered.

"Alright. And just to let you know, your precious waiter clocked out for the day. I'll be your new one."

"Okay. What's your name?" Meg asked, curious.

"Hanz." The waiter said before leaving.

"Well, that was strange." Velvet said.

"It sure was." Jaune agreed.

"Anyway. Let's eat our food before it gets cold. And once we're done, we'll head for the fireworks event." Meg said. Nodding, everyone resumed eating their food while occasionally making some light conversation.

Ninety Minutes Later

"Okay. Are your life jackets on?" Jaune asked as he got ready to push the canoe into the water.

"Yes." Meg and Velvet answered as they double-checked to ensure their life jackets were on correctly.

"Alright then. Let's go."

Jaune pushed the canoe into the water before hopping in himself. Meg and Velvet then grabbed the oars and rowed the canoe all the way to their 'spot.' Granted, it did take them a few minutes to get there as they kept going out of sync. But that only caused them to laugh a bit. Once they arrived, they put the oars into the canoe before relaxing.

"When will the fireworks start?" Velvet asked as she resisted the urge to lean into Jaune.

"In... about... two minutes." Jaune asked as he carefully took out his scroll so as not to rock the canoe too much.

"You know, this is kind of romantic." Meg said, grabbing Jaune's hand.

"Y-yeah. I can easily see a lot of people using this as a date." Jaune agreed, smiling.

"Or even as a team bonding event. Granted, I don't think this one would be the best for my team, considering Fox is blind, and Yatsuhashi isn't a fan of fireworks shows." Velvet added.

"What about Coco?" Jaune asked.

"I'm... not sure. She might like it, but it would probably not be her first choice."

"What about your team?" Meg asked.

"Pyrrha would be indifferent to it. She would like it, but like with Coco, it would not be her first choice. Nora would love it, and Ren would simply be content by being with Nora."

BOOM

"Look. It's starting." Meg said, pointing to the sky where a firework had just exploded into an array of dazzling lights shaped in Vale's symbol.

Smiling, everyone looked up to the sky as more fireworks started exploding. The explosions ranged from simple shapes or spheres to more intricate designs like trees and what people thought the Brothers above looked like. And soon, it seemed like the fireworks began to tell a story or just showed off some impressive displays. Yet, everyone was still in awe at what they were seeing.

However, Jaune tensed for a moment before relaxing when he realized that Meg had wrapped her arms around his neck before pulling herself close. Smiling, he leaned into her a bit before grabbing her hand, bringing it up to her lips, and kissing it. Feeling pure bliss of her lover showing her such affection, Meg kissed his cheek before laying her head on his shoulder.

'This is nice. I should probably take the others here.' Jaune thought as he enjoyed the embrace. Yet, Jaune tensed up again when Velvet did something he wasn't expecting.

"This is really romantic." Velvet said as she leaned back into Jaune to the point where she was basically sitting between his legs.

"U-uh, yeah. It is." Jaune said, blushing.

"Honestly, I wouldn't be surprised if some people were here on dates."

"Yeah. I'm pretty sure I even saw some married couples earlier."

"I wonder if anyone proposed during this event." Velvet said as she leaned back into Jaune even more. At this point, her back was on his chest.

"Uh, Velvet?" Jaune nervously asked.

While to some, what Velvet was doing might be obvious, Jaune didn't want to take a chance and misread the situation. Sighing, Velvet sat upright while composing herself for what she was about to do. Velvet knew simply telling Jaune wouldn't work cause not only was he a bit dense, but she also knew she would stumble over her words. So, the only option that would for sure get the message across was to show him directly. Breathing in, Velvet turned around and leaned in to kiss Jaune on the lips. But before she could even reach halfway, she stopped in her tracks at what she saw.

Her own mother was leaning in to kiss Jaune on the lips as well while pulling him into a warm embrace. Yet, Meg also stopped when she realized that her daughter was planning to do the same.

"Uh... this is awkward." Jaune said when he realized what Velvet was about to do and why she stopped.

"MOM!" Velvet shouted, shocked, annoyed, and a little worried.

"Uh, yes, dear?" Meg asked, unsure of what to say or do. On the one hand, she was delighted to find out that her daughter was indeed in love with someone that she knew was a good person.

"W-w-what are you doing? Why are you pulling Jaune against you in a hug? Why were YOU ABOUT TO KISS MY CRUSH!?" Velvet shouted, still doing her best to process this.

"Well, you see-"

"Aren't you already in a relationship with someone?" Velvet asked, lowering her voice when she felt some people glaring in their direction.

"Yes. I am in a relationship with someone."

"Then wouldn't this count as cheating?"

"Technically, no." Jaune answered, surprising Velvet.

"What do you mean, Jaune?" Velvet asked, confused and curious.

"I am the one your mother is in a relationship with."

"WHAT!?" Velvet shouted, shocked.

"Yes. I'm in a relationship with Jaune Arc. And so are others." Meg said before kissing Jaune on the lips. "And it's consensual."

"I-I... uhhh... several... duh... mother... Jaune... others... Uumm... what..." Velvet stuttered incoherently as her brain struggled to process everything. Eventually, it proved too much for her, and she passed out from information overload.

"Velvet. Velvet. Are you okay?" Jaune asked, worried for his friend.

"I'm sure she is fine, Jaune. She just... passed out as her brain struggled to accept everything. And we can't blame her for it." Meg said.

"True. So... what now?" Jaune asked, curious.

"Let's head back to shore. Then we can head to a hotel and wait for her to wake up. Then, we can go from there."

"Alright." Jaune said as he carefully adjusted Velvet so she would be comfortable and would not get hurt as they traveled back to shore. They then grabbed the oars and paddled back to the land before getting out and heading to a nearby hotel.

One Hour Later

Hotel

"S-so let me get this s-straight." Velvet stuttered as she shakily brought a cup of Chamomile tea to her face and took a slow sip of it. While it wasn't her favorite drink, it was certainly helping her relax and calm her nerves.

"Take your time, dear. We have all night. Take your time." Meg said with a gentle smile as they sat at a kitchen table in the hotel they were at.

"Your mom is right, Velvet. Take all the time you need." Jaune said, reaching forward and gently squeezing her hand, causing her to smile.

"Okay." Velvet sighed as she set her cup down. She then took a deep breath. "Okay. So, Jaune is the one you have been dating for a while, right, mom?"

"Yes. We have been in a loving relationship for quite some time." Meg answered as she and Jaune smiled at each other.

"But it's not just you, right. There are others. And that makes this a polyamorous relationship, right?"

"Yes. It is a polyamorous relationship. There are others, eight to be exact, although two of them recently joined." Jaune answered.

"But despite the size and it being an unconventional relationship, it is a loving and consensual one. We all know about each other. And we all love Jaune. And he loves us all equally." Meg added.

"Normally, I would have questioned how that would be possible. But then I remember how Jaune said he grew up with seven older sisters." Velvet chuckled.

"Yeah. It is a lot. But I do my best to give them the love and attention they deserve and make sure no one is left out." Jaune said.

"And not just on dates, but in the bedroom as well." Meg added with a wink.

"MOM!" Velvet shouted, a fierce blush covering her face.

"I'm just teasing, dear." Meg said as she and Jaune laughed a bit. But she then moved her seat to be closer to her daughter. Meg then wrapped her arms around Velvet. "But all jokes aside, it is a very loving relationship. We all love Jaune so very much and are glad to be in a relationship with him."

"And I'm glad to be with them as well. I love them all with all of my heart." Jaune added as he moved closer to Velvet and squeezed her hand to help her relax.

"I guess this explains why you two seemed so familiar with each other earlier when you scared me on the pier." Velvet said, causing all of them to chuckle.

"Yup." Meg and Jaune answered.

"Wow. Of all the things I was expecting today, or even in my time at Beacon, this was not one of them."

"None of us could have seen this coming, dear." Meg said as she wrapped her arms around Velvet. But she became slightly nervous and worried when her daughter looked down. "Is something wrong, dear?"

"K-kind of. It's just that-"

"You also have a crush on Jaune. And you planned on showing how you felt about him during the fireworks show. But you don't know what to feel or do since you learned that your crush is already in a relationship with nine other women, one of which is your mother."

"Y-yeah. But also-"

"This was not how you planned on confessing your feelings to me. And now, you're unsure if there is still a chance since I'm already in a relationship." Jaune said.

"Plus, I'm not sure how you feel about me." Velvet added. But she smiled and became slightly confused when Jaune leaned in and kissed her on her lips. Even though it was quick and chaste, she still loved it.

"I'm not sure how I can say this without it coming out wrong since I'm bad with words. But I always thought of you as a cute and great friend with an even better personality. I really like you a lot, Velvet." Jaune said.

"Really?" Velvet asked, sounding hopeful.

"Yes. But the thing is that I'm not sure if those feelings are simply friendly or actual love."

"Well, yeah. That's not too surprising. A lot of people feel like that."

"Which is more true than you two would realize." Meg said. "That's why a lot of people go on dates, not only to get to know each other better but to see if they love each other."

"Yes. That's why, if you are willing, though, I would like to go on a date with you so we can see if it is love or just friendly feelings. That way, there's less of a chance that we would get hurt."

"Sure. I think that would be a good idea." Velvet said, smiling. While it wasn't in the way she imagined or would have preferred, Velvet was still happy with it. And she internally agreed that by doing this, it would help Jaune sort out his feelings. Then, even if he didn't return her feelings, they could remain as good friends. Granted, she would prefer it if he did.

"But, a question remains. If it comes to that, would you be willing, and would you be comfortable being in a relationship with me while nine other women are also in a relationship with me?" Jaune asked in a serious tone, causing Velvet to pause. While she would have preferred to have Jaune by herself, she knew that was not going to happen. However, Velvet also knew that despite sharing him with nine other women, Jaune would love her as if they were the only ones in the relationship.

"Yes. I would be okay with it." Velvet said, smiling.

"Great." Jaune said, pulling Velvet onto his lap and wrapping his arms around her. Smiling, Velvet leaned into the embrace while snuggling her head into Jaune's chest.

"Oh, welcome to the relationship, dear." Meg congratulated.

"T-thanks, mom." Velvet said, blushing, as she adjusted her position on Jaune's lap. However, she went rigid when she felt something poking her womanhood. And the groan from Jaune only confirmed what it was. "J-Jaune?"

"S-sorry, Velvet. I-it's a natural reaction. A-and I couldn't help it when I have such a cute bunny girl like yourself rubbing her butt on my lap." Jaune said, emberassed.

"I-it's fine, Jaune. I took sexual education classes a while back. I know how and why it happens." Velvet blushed. But to Jaune's surprise, she rubbed her butt against his lap again. "But I think it's sweet that I could get a reaction from you. And that you called me cute."

"Well, you are cute, Velvet. There's no denying that."

"A-and you are quite MMMHH handsome." Velvet moaned when Jaune's covered erection pressed against her pussy with a bit more pressure. And once she did, her hands instantly flew to her mouth to cover it.

"Ah. It looks like my little bunny is getting a bit turned on." Meg cooed, causing Velvet to blush and look away. "Don't worry, dear. It's only natural to feel like this, especially about someone you love."

"T-true." Velvet thought, getting aroused at feeling her crush's erection poking against her slightly wet netherlips. But then she remembered something her mother said only a few moments ago. "But is it true?"

"Is what true, dear?"

"That you and the others have gotten intimate with Jaune?"

"Oh, yes. Plenty of times. Sometimes it's just one or two of us and other times it's multiple of us." Meg answered before realizing something. And it caused her to smile. "Are you sure you want to do this?"

"Do what?" Jaune asked, only to let out a groan when Velvet rubbed her butt against his crotch. And he could feel her pants getting ever so slightly wetter.

"Jaune." Velvet said, looking into his eyes.

"Yes, Velv?"

"I know we agreed on going on a few dates so you can sort out your feelings for me. But do you think we can also... become friends with benefits in the meantime?" Velvet asked, surprising Jaune. However, he smiled a second later before leaning down and kissing Velvet. But this time, it lasted a full minute.

"Of course, Velvet."

"Thanks, Jaune."

"But I have to ask. Have you ever done this before?"

"N-no. While I have masturbated before, I never used any toys. A-and I would like for you to be my first." Hearing this, Jaune smiled again before capturing Velvet's lips in a steamy kiss that sent her mind reeling and loins on fire.

"I would be glad to be your first." Jaune said as they separated.

"Thanks, Jaune."

"OOH! My baby girl is going to become a woman." Meg cooed as she moved to wrap Jaune and Velvet in a tight embrace. But she made sure that her breasts rubbed against Jaune's arm. "And don't worry, dear. I'll walk you through the whole thing and show you the ropes."

"And I'll be gentle as I can be for you." Jaune added.

"Thanks, Jaune. Thanks, Mom." Velvet said, happy.

"So... how do you want to do this, Velvet? Or do you want to do it another time?"

"And, by chance, are you on the pill or have protection? Or do you want to have some little bunnies running around?" Meg asked. And despite the second question causing Velvet to blush, she could tell her mom was being serious. However, there was something else that came to her mind.

"No, I don't have protection. And while I wouldn't mind having some kids, I would like to wait until I have enough lien saved up." Velvet answered before turning to Jaune. "And, yes. I would like to do it today. But can you wait a bit? There's actually something I want to try out. It's something that I always watch... alone... when I need to get off. But that is if you're willing to go with it, Jaune."

"Of course, Velvet. Anything you want, or however you want, I'll gladly help you act it out and experience it." Jaune said, rubbing Velvet's arms.

"Oh. My little bunny is a kink. What is it?"

"We would need to go out and get it, though. But I'll tell you on the way. I would like to surprise Jaune."

"Alright. And we can get some protection on the way back."

"Meanwhile, I'll get ready here." Jaune said as Velvet stood up.

"We'll be back soon, dear. So, you best get ready." Meg said as she locked lips with her lover. But unlike with Velvet, their kiss was erotic and full of tongue play.

"I will be." Jaune said as they separated.

"See you in a bit, Jaune." Velvet said, struggling to make eye contact with him while playing with her fingers. Chuckling, Jaune leaned in and kissed Velvet on the lips, calming her down. Surprised but delighted, she wrapped her arms around his neck and returned the kiss. After a few moments, they separated.

"Don't worry, Velvet. Everything is going to be fine. I'll be here waiting for you. And I promise you will love it." Jaune assured in a calming tone.

"Thanks, Jaune." Velvet said before leaving with her mom.

"Well, then. I guess I better get ready. I wonder what Velvet is planning on doing." Jaune wondered as he started to get everything ready. But he imminently grabbed his scroll when he saw the time on the wall clock. "Shoot. I better send a message to Ren saying that I will probably won't be back until tomorrow."

Forty Minutes Later

'Roses are red, and violets are blue. One day, we'll cruise down Blood Gulch Avenue. It's Red vs. Red. And Blue vs. Blue. It's I against I. And me against you.' Jaune hummed in his head as he waited on the bed for Meg and Velvet to return from wherever they wanted to get protection and what Velvet needed for her... kink.

Ding

'I wonder who's texting me.' Jaune thought as he grabbed his scroll and saw it was from Meg.

'Hey, there, lover. I hope you're ready for a check-up.'

'Check-up? I wonder what she means by that.'

Hearing the doorknob jiggle, Jaune placed his scroll on the nightstand beside the bed. He then sat on the side of the bed and waited for Meg and Velvet to enter the room. After another moment, the door finally opened, with Meg and Velvet entering the room. And what they were wearing caused Jaune to freeze and become incredibly aroused and horny, with his cock becoming hard as steel in his pants.

"Paging Mr. Arc. We hope you are ready for your weekly sexual check-up." Meg said as she and Velvet struck a pose. Well, while Meg posed confidently, Velvet was doing her best to stay in it while shyly looking away.

"WOW!" Jaune couldn't help but say. Before him were Velvet and Meg wearing sexy outfits.

Meg wore a buttoned-up doctor's lab coat that clung tightly to her body, showing off her curves and DD breasts, with her nipples poking against the fabric. She had white fishnet stockings and white heels. Then, to complete the look, Meg held a clipboard in her left hand, had a head mirror on her forehead, and a stethoscope around her neck.

Meanwhile, Velvet wore brown heels, a white miniskirt with red outlines, and white socks that only reached her ankles. But unlike her mother, Velvet didn't wear any kind of stocking, allowing Jaune to see her smooth, toned legs. Her miniskirt was so tiny that Jaune could see that Velvet had forgone panties, with some of her arousal juices seeping out of her pussy and coating her legs or the floor. And also, unlike her mother, Velvet only had a white half-cup push-up bra, which accentuated her perfect B-cup breasts. On each cup were red crosses directly on top of where her tits were. Then, to complete the look, Velvet wore a nurse's head clip on her head in front of her bunny ears.

'I guess Velvet's kink is being into cosplay. Or is it roleplay?' Jaune thought as Velvet closed the door. Shaking his head, Jaune struggled to meet their eyes as his cock strained against his pants. "Yes. I am."

"Then let's get started. Nurse. Follow my directions." Meg said as she approached Jaune while sashaying her hips.

"Yes, doctor." Velvet said, blushing as she tried but failed to copy her mother's movements. Yet, despite that, it was still incredibly arousing in its own right. There was just something about someone as pure and cute as Velvet attempting to do something sexy that was a major turn-on for Jaune.

"Okay, nurse. When giving someone a sexual check-up, you must get them completely naked. And don't be afraid to be sexy when you do it, as we need to get our patient as riled up as possible. Plus, it's okay to linger a bit to admire our patient. Just don't get too lost in it." Meg said as she placed the clipboard on the night table.

"Right, mam." Velvet said.

Nodding, Meg kneeled down and began to undo his two belts. She then winked before leaning down and catching Jaune's zipper in her teeth. Meg then unzipped his zipper and unbuttoned his pants before pulling it down.

Meanwhile, Velvet leaned forward and began a sloppy make-out session with Jaune. They moaned into the kiss as their tongues began to play. After a few seconds, Velvet reached down to grab the hem of Jaune's shirt before lifting and removing it from his body. This caused them to separate, but only briefly, as their lips crashed back into each other. But this time, Velvet rubbed her hands all over Jaune's chest and groaned from how good it felt. Reaching up, Jaune wrapped his right arm around Velvet's neck and pulled her deeper while his left hand went around, grabbed and massaged her ass. And the feeling of her breasts rubbing against his chest felt like heaven.

'I can't believe I'm finally doing it. It feels like a dream come true.' Velvet happily thought as they continued their make-out session. And they only separated when Velvet felt her mother tapping on her thigh.

"Wow." Jaune sighed in bliss.

"Yeah." Velvet agreed. But she snapped back to focus when they heard Meg snapping her fingers to get their attention.

"Nurse. Pay attention. This is the most important part." Meg said.

"Right." Velvet said as she kneeled next to her mother.

"Now, remember, nurse. While the rest of the body needs to be checked, we cannot forget about the main part. It deserves our utmost attention."

"Yes."

"Good. Now, let's reveal it on the count of three."

"Alright." Velvet said as she and Meg hooked their fingers into Jaune's underwear.

"One."

"Two."

"Three."

'WOW! HOW DID JAUNE KEEP THAT POLE HIDDEN? ESPECIALLY WHEN WE WERE AT THE BEACH EARLIER!' Velvet thought in awe after she and her mother removed Jaune's underwear, allowing his impressive erection to spring up and stand at attention.

'I can't wait to have this inside me again.' Meg thought as she inhaled the musk of her man's scent. It was enough to send her ovaries into overdrive. She was pretty sure that if a scent was enough to get pregnant alone, Meg was confident she would be pregnant with triplets. However, despite wanting to have the juice carrot breed her again, Meg knew who took priority now. 'But first, I have to guide my little bunny and show her what to do.'

"It's so girthy. Will it even fit?" Velvet asked nervously.

"It does seem intimidating at first. But don't worry. There's a little pain at first, but it will quickly turn into pleasure. And soon, you will feel like you're in heaven." Meg assured, momentarily breaking character.

"Alright." Velvet said, still uncertain. Yet, she relaxed when Jaune gently cupped her face and rubbed her cheek with his thumb. "So, what next?"

"Well, in order to give a proper sexual examination of Mr. Arc here, we need to get him as stiff as possible and well-lubricated. And to do that, we need some help from our girls." Meg said as she unbuttoned her doctor's lab coat to reveal her breasts and that she was wearing nothing underneath.

"O-okay." Velvet stuttered as she removed her bra. And despite their small size when compared to her mother, Jauen could not help but be mesmerized by them.

"Now, let's give him something he loves: A double tit job."

Placing her hands under her impressive chest, Meg wrapped them around the right side of Jaune's throbbing cock. She then motioned for Velvet to use her breasts to cover his left side. Shyly nodding, Velvet moved closer before wrapping her breasts around Jaune's dick to the best of her capabilities. Briefly, she felt a bit self-conscious about her breast size, but it went away when Jaune groaned while giving her shoulder a reassuring squeeze.

Breathing out, both Scalatina women began moving their breasts up and down Jaune's shaft. Yet, while Meg confidently slid her breasts up and down, Velvet was a bit more clumsy and hesitant in her movements. But soon enough, they found a decent pace, with Meg sliding her breasts up Jaune's cock while Velvet slid down to the base. Meanwhile, Jaune groaned at feeling the heavenly pillows pleasure his ever-hardening dick.

"MMMMHHH! That feels good. Keep going." Jaune groaned.

Smirking, Meg increased the pace of her movements while pressing her breasts against her lover's cock more. Not wanting to fall behind, Velvet did the same and increased her pace ever so slightly. Yet, both women could not help but moan when their diamond-tipped nipples rubbed against each other. The warmth that emanated from Jaune's erection gave them immense pleasure while also getting them wetter with each passing second.

"Alright. Now, we move to the next step of the examination."

"Which is?" Velvet asked as they slowed down their titjobs but never stopped completely.

"A blow job."

"Oh."

"Now, an important thing to remember is to never try to take it all in one go. It will hardly ever go like that. Just do as much as you can. But also listen for the sounds he makes to know what he likes the best."

"Okay."

Nodding, Meg moved to the side to let Velvet take center stage. Breathing to steady her nerves, Velvet moved to be in front of her crush's cock. She took a big whiff of his scent and felt her lips getting wetter. Remembering something she saw in one of those videos, Velvet slowly dragged her tongue from the base to the tip before giving it a wet kiss. The taste was strange and foreign but not at all unwelcome. She then began licking all over Jaune's cock, enjoying his taste.

"Oh, Velvet. That feels so good." Jaune groaned.

Feeling emboldened by his words, Velvet decided it was finally time to do what her mother suggested. Grabbing the base of Jaune's cock, Velvet gave it a few pumps before bringing her head over it. She then opened her mouth as wide as she could go before slowly taking inch by inch of his shaft into her mouth. Eventually, she managed to put half of Jaune's meat into her mouth before being unable to go any further.

"That's it, nurse. Take it nice and slow. Don't push yourself. Meanwhile, I will conduct a more thorough investigation of Mr. Arc here." Meg said as she moved to sit on the bed beside Jaune. "Come here, you."

Chuckling but also groaning from the immense pleasure Velvet was giving him, Jaune grabbed Meg gently by the back of her head and smashed their lips together. Moaning, Meg brought up her hand to cup her lover's cheek while pressing her breasts against his toned chest, causing him to get stiffer and a little bigger in Velvet's mouth. Soon, their tongues began wrestling for dominance.

"MMMMMHHHH!" They both moaned.

Wanting to take charge, Jaune reached up and began gently massaging Meg's bunny ears as he knew that was her weak spot. The sensation of her lover doing this caused Meg to let out a slutty moan as pleasure overwhelmed her senses. And when he gave it a gentle tug, she came, flooding and staining the bed sheets with her slick girlcum. As she rode out her orgasm, Jaune took advantage of her aroused state to win the tongue battle and gain entry to Meg's mouth. Yet, she didn't mind as she enjoyed having her lover clean out her mouth.

Meanwhile, Velvet did her best to keep Jaune's cock as she got accustomed to it's size. Thankfully, to what most people don't know, some faunus did not have a gag reflex, which helped her tremendously. After a few moments, Velvet began slowly moving her head up and down while licking everything she could.

"Oh, Oum, Velvet. That feels amazing. Keep it up." Jaune groaned before returning to make out with her mother.

Feeling encouraged by his words, Velvet increased her pace while taking in everything she could. But still wanting to give her crush as much pleasure as she could give, Velvet lifted herself up slightly before wrapping her breasts around his cock again. She then began rubbing her breasts up and down Jaune's shaft while taking the rest in her mouth and making sure not a single spot was left unlicked.

MMMHHH! Schlick! Schluck!

Groaning but wanting to return the pleasure, Jaune moved his hand from Meg's bunny ears down her head, trailing her back and sliding across her ass cheeks, where he gave them a firm squeeze. But it was when he inserted two fingers into her anus and began rapidly pumping them in and out did Meg's body start thrashing around as pleasure rocked through her body like fireworks, sending her closer to another mind-blowing orgasm.

Schlick! Guhguhahg!

Yet, he didn't let his cute, sexy bunny nurse go unnoticed. Lowering his other hand, Jaune massaged her bunny ears as well, causing Velvet to groan from the pleasure. But she let out a whimper when he let go after a second. However, that changed when Velvet felt Jaune gently grab her hair before gently using it as his reigns to take control of her pace. The feeling of her lover using her mouth like a fleshlight got Velvet hot and bothered beyond belief. She felt like she was in her heat period. Soon, Velvet's hands shot down to her pussy, and she began fingerfucking herself in hopes of finding some relief.

Guhguhahg!

They continued like this for another couple of minutes. Jaune and Meg kept making out while he fingered Meg's ass and controlled the pace of Velvet's blowjob and how much of his cock she took into her mouth. Yet, despite the mind-numbing pleasure, Jaune made sure that he didn't overdo it with Velvet. But as he did this, Meg continued rubbing her breasts agent his chest, with her tits scraping against him each time they moved. After a couple more minutes of this, Jaune finally came.

"I'M CUMMING!" Jaune shouted as he came inside Velvet's mouth.

And at the same time, Jaune thrust his fingers as deep as possible into Meg's asshole, forcing her over the edge and causing her to experience another mind-blowing orgasm. Meanwhile, Velvet struggled to take all of Jaune's cum into her mouth and swallow it. It soon proved too much for her, and she was forced to remove Jaune's cock from her mouth. And since it was free now and still had some left in the tank, Jaune's cock shot out its remaining sperm onto Velvet's body, coating her stomach, thighs, and breasts in pearly white cum.

"That was a-amazing." Meg panted as she relished in the afterglow of her orgasm. She then turned to her daughter, who had just finished swallowing the remainder of their lover's cum that was in her mouth and was now catching her breath. "Are you okay, dear?"

"Y-yes. It was just a lot more than I was expecting." Velvet panted. But as soon as she caught her breath, Velvet began scooping up some of crush's cum from her body and licking it up. "Tasty. A bit bitter but still sweet."

"It sure is. We all love his seed. Some of us even want it as a snack." Meg said as she kneeled on the floor before scooping some cum off of her daughter and putting it in her mouth. She savored the taste before swallowing it and releasing a tasty sigh afterward. "But don't worry about not being able to take his entire load. How much Jaune can cum has surprised all of us. Soon, with a bit of practice, you'll be able to swallow his entire load."

"Alright." Velvet said as she finished cleaning herself of Jaune's cum. And even though she just had a healthy amount, she couldn't wait to taste it again. However, Velvet became shocked when she saw Jaune's cock still hard as steel. "H-how?"

"Oh, he can go so many rounds, nurse. That's why we must perform a weekly sexual check-up to make sure he doesn't get backed up." Meg said.

"Right. So, what now?"

"Well, right now. Our patient needs a bit more lubricant on his pole, so he will be ready for the next part. I will take care of that. Meanwhile, you, nurse, will give him another oral examination."

Nodding, Velvet got up on shaky legs with her arousal still leaking out of her wet cunt. She then walked up to Jaune, who smiled at her, which calmed any of her remaining nerves. Velvet then leaned forward and captured Jaune's lips in a searing kiss. And while it started off as sweet and romantic, it quickly turned erotic with their tongues dancing around each other.

"MMMHHHMMM! MMHHH!" Velvet and Jaune moaned into each other's mouths.

Groaning, Velvet and Jaune wrapped their arms around each other as their make-out session increased in passion. But since there was nothing keeping them up, they fell back onto the bed. Yet, they did not separate once. Adjusting herself, Velvet moved so that she was directly on top of Jaune, with her petite, cute breasts squicking against his toned chest. Moaning from the feeling of her tits rubbing against him, Jaune reached down and grabbed Velvet's asscheeks and gave them a firm squeeze, eliciting a moan from her. As he did this, she rubbed her damp pussy right above his crotch while wrapping her arms around his head and shoving her tongue deeper into his mouth.

"Just like that, nurse. Continue with your examination while I do mine." Meg said, smiling at how much passion her daughter was putting into her make-out session with her crush. 'Hopefully, Jaune does return her feelings soon. But I know he will eventually. But in the meantime.'

Spitting on her breasts, Meg rubbed her breasts to get them nice and wet. She then brought them up to Jaune's cock and gave his ten-inch pecker a magnificent titjob. Up and down, Meg rubbed against his breeding pole, loving the heat it gave off. As she did this, her pussy started leaking as a faucet, with the floor now ruined. After a couple of moments, Meg pushed her breasts all the way down to the base before taking nearly all of Jaune's dick in one go.

"MMMMHHHH!" Jaune groaned at the feeling of Meg's warm oral cavern taking his cock.

"MMMHHH!" Velvet groaned when Jaune gave her ass an extra form squeeze.

Internally smirking, Meg began rapidly bouncing her head back and forth on her lover's shaft, coating it in her saliva. And with each passing second, her speed increased to the point where she was basically face-fucking herself.

Schlick! Guhguhahg!

"MMMMMMMMHHHHHH!" They all moaned as they came simultaneously.

Velvet came onto Jaune's abdomen, coating it in her slick girl cum while Meg came onto the floor yet again. Meanwhile, Jaune came into Meg's mouth. But unlike with Velvet, she managed to take the whole load and swallow it without letting a single drop escape. She then released Jaune's cock with a loud and wet pop before giving it a few strokes.

"Delicious." Meg said before kissing the tip.

PANT "That... sure... was." Velvet panted as she and Jaune separated.

"It really was." Jaune agreed as he gently cupped Velvet's cheek while smiling at her.

"But, now, nurse. It is time for the main part of the examination." Meg said, getting Velvet's attention. Looking back, she was surprised to see that Jaune was still hard. But she chalked it up to him having high stamina and a lot of aura.

"Alright. But let me do something first." Velvet said before pecking Jaune on the lips and getting up.

"What is it?" Jaune asked, curious.

"If you don't mind, I want to record it." Velvet said as she grabbed her camera.

"Wait. I thought your camera only took pictures outside of using it in battle." Jaune said, confused.

"It used to. But I made some upgrades recently with some tech Atlas sent me. Now, I can record things with it. Granted, it doesn't do anything for combat. So, what do you say? Can I record our love-making session?"

"Sure." Meg and Jaune answered. Smiling, Velvet set up a camera stand and placed her camera on it. She then set it up to record everything before going back to her mother and Jaune.

"Alright. So, how do we do this?" Velvet asked, looking at Jaune's cock.

"Nice and easy. That's how." Meg answered as Jaune lay down in the middle of the bed.

"Okay."

"Now, nurse. Let me get our patient protected with a condom and-

"Actually." Velvet said, stopping Meg from putting a condom on Jaune's cock. "Can we do without it?"

"Are you sure, dear?" Meg asked, surprised.

"Y-yes. I'm sure. I don't want anything in the way." Velvet said, blushing.

"What about you, Jaune? Are you okay with that?"

"I'm alright. But I have to ask, Velvet. Are you fine with the potential risk of getting pregnant?" Jaune asked, slightly worried.

"I am. Also, I got some morning-after pills while we were out. But even if that fails and it does happen, I'll glady raise your children, Jaune."

"Alright. But if that does happen, you won't raise them alone." Jaune said with a smile that sent Velvet's heart soaring while Meg internally squealed.

"Thanks, Jaune."

"Alright, then nurse. Since we don't need protection, your shaft is ready." Meg said.

Nodding, Velvet got onto the bed, crawled over to Jaune, and gave him a sweet kiss, which he reciprocated. She then moved back to where her mother was waiting. Meg nodded to Velvet while grabbing and holding still Jaune's erection. Breathing out, Velvet lifted herself before moving to hover her moist entrance above it. After a moment, she lowered herself to where Jaune's cock pressed against her entrance, with only the tip entering her a second later.

"That's it, nurse. Take it nice and slow." Meg said as she kept holding Jaune's cock while her daughter braced herself.

Nodding, Velvet breathed out as she slowly took inch by inch of Jaune's cock into her pussy. Thankfully, despite its girth, it slid rather easily into her, thanks to her juices and the salvia from her and her mother coating it. After taking half of Jaune's dick into her, Velvet breathed out and steeled herself for what was about to happen. Then, in an instant, she took the rest of it into her in one go.

"AAAAHHHH!" Velvet screamed in pain.

"VELVET!" Meg shouted, worried. But she calmed down when Jaune quickly pulled Velvet into a comforting kiss while wrapping his arms around her. A tear escaped from Velvet's eye as the pain proved almost too much for her. Yet, Jaune cupped her cheek and quickly wiped away the tear. The sight brought a smile to Meg's face at how loving and caring Jaune was. It was times like these that reminded her and the others of the many reasons they fell in love with the blonde knight. 'Ever the gentleman.'

"Are you okay, Velvet?" Jaune asked, separating after a moment.

"Y-yes, Jaune. I-I'm fine. It was just... a lot more than... MOAN I was... expecting." Velvet answered, moaning a bit as some of the pain turned into pleasure.

"That's why you were supposed to take it easy." Meg chided.

"I-I'm sorry." Velvet struggled to say as more of the pain turned into pleasure.

"Just be careful next time, Velv. We don't want you to get hurt." Jaune said.

"I-I will."

"Now, take your time to get used to it. We'll continue when you're ready."

"Alright."

Smiling, Jaune pulled Velvet in for another searing kiss. Seeing that she could take a seat back, Meg went to a nearby chair, sat down, and began masturbating as she waited for her turn. Meanwhile, Jaune and Velvet continued making out as they waited for Velvet to get accustomed to having a cock inside of her tight entrance. After a couple of minutes, the pain turned into pleasure, with Velvet wiggling her hips, trying to find some relief.

"Are you ready to continue?" Jaune asked as they separated.

"Yes." Velvet answered.

"Alright. But tell me if it becomes too much for you." Jaune said, vaguely aware that he had told Pyrrha the same thing the previous day.

"I will. Now, please, Mr. Arc. Let's continue with your sexual examination." Velvet said, getting back into character.

"Okay, nurse. Continue."

Smiling, Velvet placed her hands on Jaune's shoulders while he placed his hands on her hips. Then he slowly lifted her up and down his cock while keeping a steady pace. Feeling him enter and exit her filled Velvet with immense, near-overwhelming pleasure. Panting, Velvet closed her eyes as she took it all in and slowly increased the speed.

"Oh, yes." Velvet moaned.

"That's it, nurse. Make sure he is all okay and not backed up." Meg moaned as she massaged her breast while rubbing her clit.

Nodding, Velvet started to increase the pace at which she took in Jaune's cock. Briefly, Jaune tried to keep her at a steady pace but soon gave up when he realized that Velvet no longer needed support and had gotten accustomed to being implied. Groaning, Jaune loosened his grip to let Velvet go faster and faster.

Wanting to increase the pleasure, Jaune started thrusting into Velvet as she came down onto his cock. The velvety feeling of her warm, tight, moist entrance caused him immense pleasure. It was almost as if it wanted him to stay in there.

"Hoohoo yess! That's it, Jaune!" Velvet moaned as she increased her pace.

Seeing her breasts bounce up and down with her movement got Jaune immensely aroused. Giving her ass cheeks a final squeeze, Jaune raised his hands and groped Velvet's breasts. The sudden sensation caused her to let out a slutty moan. Groping the fleshy orbs, Jaune began playing with them. He massaged them, kneaded them, and committed their curves to memory.

"Oh, yes." Velvet moaned at the rough treatment Jaune was giving her breasts.

Leaning down, Velvet adjusted her position to take even more of Jaune and at a faster pace. Groaning, Velvet started slamming her hips onto Jaune's cock. And with this new angle, she felt him hitting her very womb, causing spikes of pleasure to dance across her nerves. Yet, let out a gasp with her tongue sticking out of her mouth when Jaune leaned up and captured one of her tits in his mouth. He then started sucking on it like a baby looking for milk.

Panting, Velvet continued bouncing on Jaune's erection while he chewed, bit, twisted, and pulled her right tit between his teeth. Yet, he did not leave her other breast unattended as he continued massaging and kneading it. Soon, he let go of her right tit and gave it a kiss before taking her other nipple into his mouth and giving it the same treatment. However, she nearly lost it when Jaune moved his free hand to her ass and lightly fingered her ass.

"AAAHHH!" Velvet moaned, her eyes rolling into the back of her head.

Focusing on the pleasure, Velvet willed herself to go faster and faster on Jaune's shaft. Seeing how she was reacting to this, Jaune started thrusting two fingers into Velvet's tight passage while moving his other hand to grope her ass. All the while, Jaune continued sucking on her breasts and alternating every couple of seconds. They continued like this for another few moments, with both of them getting closer to their orgasms. But it was when Jaune gave an extra long suck on her tit while simultaneously thrusting his fingers into her asshole while hitting her G-spot that she finally went over the edge.

"AAAAAAAHHHHHHH!" Velvet moaned to the high heavens as she felt her orgasm rip through her. Her eyes went into her skull while her tongue hung out of her mouth with saliva connecting the top and bottom. And the feeling of her orgasm was enough to send Jaune over the edge as well.

"I'M CUMMING!" He shouted as he filled Velvet's womb to the brim with his cum. It was so much that a lot of it gushed out of her despite Jaune's cock still being inside of her. For a moment, Velvet even thought that some of it might come out of her mouth or ass. After a full moment, Jaune's cock finally ceased firing his sperm. Jaune then lifted Velvet off of him, allowing their combined juices to leak out of her cunt.

"Are you okay, nurse?" Meg asked, struggling to think clearly in her lustful state.

"Y-yeah. I'm more than fine." Velvet panted as she sat on the bed and placed her fingers on her pussy to try and stop their juices from escaping, to no avail.

"How was it?" Jaune asked.

"Magnificent." Velvet answered, smiling. "But I think I got one more round."

"Do you want to take a break first?"

"No, I'm ready to go."

"Okay. How do you want it this time?" Instead of answering, Velvet turned around and got on all fours. She then placed her hands on the railing before turning to look at Jaune with a massive blush on her face while shaking her ass.

"Like this." Velvet said, blushing. But in the back of her mind, she made a mental note to pick out a sexier costume next time, like a bunny outfit or a maid outfit the next time they did this.

"Are you sure?" Jaune asked.

"Yes. I am." Velvet answered before spreading her moist lips as an invitation to him.

Nodding, Jaune got on his knees before moving to stand behind Velvet. He grabbed her ass and gave each cheek a kiss before dragging his tongue across her moist lips. The sensation of his tongue touching her sensitive opening, along with the gentle kisses he gave her ass, caused Velvet to moan. Jaune then straightened up and grabbed his cock before lining it with her dripping entrance.

"I'm going in." Jaune warned.

Nodding, Velvet braced herself as Jaune slowly entered her again. Thankfully, there was no pain this time. Slowly, Jaune entered Velvet until his dick was entrapped in her wet love canal. Then, he stayed still to let Velvet get used to him penetrating her again. After a moment, Velvet began moaning and pushing her hips back, telling Jaune that she was ready. Smiling, Jauned pulled back until only his tip remained inside of Velvet before slamming all the way back into her.

"AAAAAAHHHHH!" Velvet moaned as her eyes watered a bit from the sudden burst of pleasure.

Groaning, Jaune instantly started hammering at Velvet as fast as possible. The sounds of flesh slapping flesh reverberated around the room. And with each thrust, Velvet went forward a bit as her breasts swung freely.

Moaning, Velvet began thrusting her hips back to match Jaune's thrust. This allowed him to reach ever deeper into her to the point where he entered her womb... her very fertile womb. The sensation caused her to feel fireworks exploding all over her body.

"Oh, Jaune. Keep going." Velvet moaned as she closed her eyes.

Nodding, Jaune picked up the pace and continued rutting against Velvet. Looking down, Jaune saw Velvet's breasts swinging around with each thrust he delivered. Getting aroused by the sight, Jaune leaned forward so that his chest was on her back. Feeling the sudden change in weight, Velvet looked to her left with half-lidded, lust-filled eyes and smiled at her crush. Jaune smiled back before kissing her with their tongues soon dancing around each other. As this happened, Jaune reached forward and began pinching and twisting Velvet's tits, causing her to moan even more into his mouth.

'This is so hot. I can't wait for my turn. Perhaps the others and I should start recording our sessions, so we have something to get off to when Jaune's not there.' Meg thought as she furiously fingered herself.

Back with the two teens, Jaune continued thrusting into Velvet while playing with her tits. Soon, Velvet came hard, with her eyes snapping open as she screamed into Jaune's mouth. Yet, he did not stop thrusting into her or slow down. He kept on going and started fucking her faster.

This continued for another couple of minutes until Jaune reached his limit fast approaching. Knowing that he would need to increase the pleasure to get Velvet to another mind-blowing orgasm, Jaune decided to change it up. Twisting her nipples one last time, Jaune separated from her Velvet with a thin trail of saliva connecting their mouths. He then gave an extra hard pull of her tits before grabbing her arms. For a moment, Velvet wondered what Jaune planning on doing, but it became clear quickly.

"YYYEEESS!" Velvet shouted when Jaune suddenly pulled both of her arms back before delivering an extra powerful thrust into her.

Grabbing her wrists, Jaune pulled her arms back as far as they would go before using them as reins. He then started thrusting into Velvet while pulling her back. The sudden sensation and Jaune constantly hitting her G-spot and cervix caused Velvet to gain an ahegao face.

"YES! YES! YES! JAUNE! KEEP GOING! GIVE THIS NURSE YOUR SEMEN!" Velvet shouted, barely able to comprehend anything outside of the pleasure Jaune was giving her.

Moaning from the tight sensation, Jaune continued fucking his bunny nurse. With each passing second, he kept going faster and faster, hitting deeper each time. And the sight of Velvet's depraved face and swinging breasts only edged him on. They continued for another couple of minutes until Jaune felt his limit rapidly approaching.

"I'M CLOSE!" Jaune warned.

"GIVE IT TO ME! GIVE THIS BUNNY NURSE YOUR SAMPLE!" Velvet shouted/demanded.

"HERE... IT... COMES!" Jauned groaned as he thrust a few more times before delivering a deluge of fertile sperm into Velvet's already overflowing fertile depths. And the feeling of this was enough to send Velvet over the edge as well.

"JJJAAAUUUNNNEEE!" Velvet screamed as she came harder than she thought possible.

Their juices combined as she came all over Jaune's cock, with her eyes going into her skull while her tongue hung out of her mouth. After a moment, Jaune finally ceased cumming and pulled out of Velvet, letting more of their love juices seep out of her freshly fucked cunt. He then let go of her arms, and with no support since her strength left her, Velvet flopped on top of the bed's railing and passed out with a fucked crazy expression on her face. Yet, as Jaune sat back on the bed, he saw that a lot of their juices were still seeping out of Velvet while her top half was hanging off the bed in a lewd way.

'I just hope Velvet is sure of this.' Jaune thought as he caught his breath while moving to sit on the edge of the bed.

"Well, Mr. Arc. It seems like you gave this new nurse a good showing of your sexual prowess along with showing her a good time." Meg said as she carefully picked up her daughter before bringing her over and placing Velvet in a nearby chair, where she snuggled up into herself. Meg then grabbed a blanket and put it on Velvet before kissing her forehead. "But now it is the doctor's turn. So, I hope you are ready."

"Yes, I am." Jaune said, already hard again as Meg completely disrobed herself. Smirking, Meg walked over to Jaune before locking lips with him. Moaning, they cupped each other's faces as their tongues danced. After a moment, Meg lifted herself up slightly before plunging directly down on her lover's cock, taking him in one go.

"Oh, that's the spot. How I have missed this." Meg moaned.

Relishing in the familiar vice-like grip of the bunny milf's vagina, Jaune groaned before slamming their lips together again. Their mouths soon opened to let their tongues battle for dominance. Smirking, Meg easily out-skilled Jaune's tongue and pushed it back to his mouth, allowing her unrestricted access to his oral cavern.

Letting the milf take the lead, Jaune brought his right up to her lower back while his left hand grabbed and massaged her bunny ears. Moaning from the pleasure, Meg leaned into the kiss, causing them to fall onto the bed. Yet, it didn't stop them for even a second. Separating, Meg smiled at Jaune before wrapping her arms around his head. And before he could react, she pulled him into her breasts before slamming her hips up and down against his cock.

Groaning, Jaune reached down and grabbed Meg's ass while thrusting into her as she slammed down onto him. He then began motorboating Meg's tits, causing her to moan. And the moan turned into a scream when Jaune roughly bit one of her nipples while twisting the other.

"YES! JUST LIKE THAT!" Meg screamed.

Increasing their pace, Meg slammed her hips harder on Jaune's cock while he thrust deeper inside her. The force behind their love-making was enough to make the bed creak. Panting like she was in heat, Meg grabbed Jaune's head and pulled him closer to her breasts. Now in a new position, Jaune began licking as much of the valley between her breasts as he could while massaging her ass.

"OH, YEAH! FUCK THIS DIRTY NURSE AND SERVICE HER BREASTS!" Meg shouted as she continued bouncing on Jaune's tool.

Smirking, Jaune continued licking her breasts while fucking her pussy. This continued for another couple of minutes before he gained an idea. Giving her ass one final squeeze, Jaune moved his head back as much as possible to take both of Meg's erect tits into his mouth simultaneously, where he began to maul them. The new sensation caused Meg to let out a slutty moan. However, she let out a slutty scream that Jaune was sure all of Beacon could hear when he smacked her ass.

SMACK

"JAUNE!"

SMACK

"JAUNE!"

SMACK

"MORE! JAUNE! FUCK THIS NURSE!"

"MORE!" Meg shouted with her tongue hanging out of her mouth.

Delivering one final smack to her ass, Jaune continued mauling Meg's breasts. He then gripped her ass and firmly squeezed before moving to finger her asshole, causing pleasure to shoot throughout her body, making her thrash around. They continued like this for another couple of moments until their orgasms hit them like a truck.

"MMMMMMHHHHH!" They both moaned into each other's mouths, with Jaune filling Meg up like a cumdump. After a few moments, they finished cumming and relished in the afterglow of it.

"Tell me you can go another round." Meg said, rubbing her breasts and hands against Jaune's chest.

"Yeah. I got one last one in me." Jaune said.

"Good. Then, let's get to it."

Giving him a kiss, Meg dismounted Jaune before laying on the bed with her legs in the air while on her back. She then spread her lips while sticking her tongue out and closing one eye in a seductive gaze. Then, with her free hand, Meg beckoned Jaune closer. Chuckling, Jaune got onto the bed on his knees before making his way closer to Meg. He then placed her legs on his shoulders before lining up his cock with her entrance. Jaune then rubbed her pussy a few times before entering her.

"Oh, yes." Meg moaned as her lover entered her.

Grabbing her legs, Jaune gave them a kiss before thrusting all the way inside Meg, causing her to moan. Relishing in her feeling tight passageway, Jaune groaned and stayed there for a moment before hammering away at her.

Seeing Meg's delicious breasts bounce up and down in time with his thrusts caused Jaune to get harder inside of her and to go faster. Leaning down, he gave Meg a quick kiss before latching onto her breasts and start sucking on them. Moaning, Meg placed her hands on his head and began combing through his hair. However, she nearly lost it when Jaune bit her tits and rolled them between his teeth.

"YES! YES! KEEP GOING!" Meg shouted.

Moaning, Jaune continued hammering away at Meg's cunt. This new position allowed him to constantly hit her G-spot and enter her womb. Pulling her lover up, Meg slammed their lips together, with their tongues soon battling again. But this time, Jaune won when he began massaging Meg's bunny ears. The sudden spike of pleasure caused her to gasp and momentarily lower her defenses, allowing Jaune to overpower her tongue and push it back into her mouth.

SHLUP

"OH, JAUNE! I'M CLOSE!" Meg shouted as they separated.

"M-ME TOO!" Jaune struggled to say.

"THEN INSIDE! FILL THIS SLUTTY DOCTOR AND GIVE HER SOME KIDS!" Meg shouted.

Groaning, Meg and Jaune slammed their lips together again. Jaune started thrusting as hard and as fast as he could while Meg bounced against his thrusts to increase their pleasure. They continued like this for another couple of moments, with the sounds of their love-making echoing across the room. Their combined juices splattered out of Meg's cunt with each thrust, further staining the blankets. But it was when Jaune fingered her anus that she reached her climax. And the sudden tightening of her passage caused Jaune to reach his as well.

"I'M CUMMING!" Jaune and Meg shouted as Jaune flooded her womb with fertile Arc spunk again. This lasted for a moment before Jaune pulled out, causing a bucket's worth of their love juices to seep out of Meg. The sight of it caused Jaune's cock to spurt out a few more ropes of semen onto Meg's stomach. Feeling spent, Jaune fell onto the bed beside Meg.

"It looks like you have a clean bill of health, Mr. Arc." Meg said, cuddling up to him before kissing him. "Thanks for everything today, dear, including showing my daughter a good time and agreeing to date her."

"You're welcome, Meg. And between you and me, I think I have feelings for Velvet. But we should still go on a few dates to be sure."

"True. It never hurts to be sure. But I think you already do." Meg said before yawning. "Anyway. It's late, and we're all tired. Let's get some sleep."

"Right." Jaune said as he got up and removed the blankets on the bed before replacing them with some that were in the nearby closet.

"Good night, love." Meg said, kissing him before letting him pull up the blankets to their chests.

"Good night, Meg." Jaune said as Meg cuddled into his side.

Smiling, Jaune closed his eyes and was about to let sleep take him. But his eyes snapped open when he felt a weight climbing his body underneath the blankets. Pulling them up, Jaune chuckled when he saw Velvet climbing up the bed before stopping when she reached his chest.

"Good night, Jaune. And thanks for the wonderful experience and date." Velvet said, blushing.

"You're welcome, Velvet. And good night." Jaune said before kissing her.

Smiling, Velvet let out a cute yawn before turning to lay face down on Jaune's chest with a blissful look on her face. Smiling as well, Jaune kissed her head before wrapping his left arm around Meg and his right arm around Velvet. He then closed his eyes and let sleep take him, with pleasant dreams visiting him that night.

Notes:

Well, this chapter took a lot longer to write than I would have liked.

Now that Pyrrha's, Glynda's, and Velvet's chapters are done. It is Team Rwby's turn. What order should it be? Ruby with Summer, Weiss with Winter and Willow, Blake with Kali, or Yang with Raven.
